GENERAL

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

READ—

Letter No 839, dated 25th June 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, recommending (1) the election of two new members to represent the newly constituted Hosdurga Taluk in the Dasara Representative Assembly during the present and the ensuing two years, and (2) that the property qualification prescribed for persons eligible to vote and those eligible to become members in the neighbouring taluks of Holalkere and Hiriyur may be made applicable to the new Hosdurga Taluk also.

No. GENL. 45-46, DATED BANGALORE, 7TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The Deputy Commissioner's recommendation is approved.

2. The Huliyar Sub-Taluk having been abolished and 38 of the villages attached to it transferred to the new Hosdurga Taluk as per Proceedings No. 4868-4908—R. F. 16-00, dated 28th April 1902, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to direct that the number of members to be elected by the Chiknayakanhalli Taluk be reduced from three to two.

(1) Government Proceedings No. 17280-319—Mis. 4317, dated 25th June 1901, circulating the Resolution of the Government of India regarding the curtailment of Annual Reports and Reviews and calling for statements of periodical reports and returns submitted by Deputy Commissioners and Heads of Departments.

(2) Replies thereto from the Heads of Departments and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts except the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District.

(3) Government Proceedings No. 1792-183—Mis. No. 316, dated 29th July 1902, appointing a Committee for submitting proposals on the subject of the abolition and curtailment of periodical reports and returns.

No. G. 320-60, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON—In the first of the Proceedings read in the preamble, the attention of Heads of Departments and Deputy Commissioners was drawn to the salutary instructions contained in the Government of India Resolution, Home Department No. 987-1013, dated 25th February 1901, regarding the curtailment and reduction of periodical reports and returns, and a statement in the form appended to the Resolution was required to be submitted for the final orders of Government. As the statements received did not admit of being dealt with at once without further enquiry, a Committee consisting of the marginally noted members was appointed to further consider the subject and submit suitable proposals to Government. This Committee was not, however, able to do any work, mainly owing to Mr. Ananda Rao being engaged in completing the Census Report of 1901. The Government are now of opinion that a Committee consisting of persons who have their own duties to perform is not likely to advance matters much, and accordingly resolve to dissolve the same, and following the precedents in Bombay and Madras, appoint a Special Officer who has had experience both in Secretariat as well as District work. Mr. Tyagaraja Iyer will be on deputation for this purpose, and Government hope that he will be able to furnish his report within a period of three months. The subject of periodical reports and returns was last dealt with as a whole in Government Proceedings No. 3062-80—G. 121, dated 17th July 1886, and the Special Officer may find it a suitable starting point. In Government Proceedings No. 1040-72—Mis. 222, dated 23rd July 1900, the attention of all officers concerned was drawn to the unnecessary prolixity of some of the Departmental Reports, and the Special Officer will examine how far the instructions conveyed in this order have borne effect.

Before doing so, however, it is necessary that he should obtain from Heads of Departments and other officers the several returns with which they are concerned and from the various Secretariat Departments copies of the latest reports dealt with by them. He will then give to each of the reports and returns a full and detailed examination with a view to test how far they satisfy the principles enunciated in para 10 of the Government of India Resolution. He is empowered to make any suggestions he considers necessary to bring about an improvement in the direction indicated by the Government of India. In this connection, he may draw up preliminary proposals and obtain the advice and co-operation of the various officers concerned. In case there happens to be any difference of opinion between himself and the officers concerned, he is requested to state in the report to be submitted by him to Government his reasons for the view which may be taken by himself.

All Heads of Departments and other officers concerned as well as the various Departments of the Secretariat are requested to promptly comply with the requisitions of the Special Officer for information or papers connected with the subject of his inquiry. He will be allowed a small establishment consisting of two clerks and two menial servants.

READ—

Letter No. 7245, dated the 17th June 1903, from the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, enquiring whether appointments on progressive pay, rising by periodical increments to a maximum of Rs. 100 should also be reported to Government.

ALSO—

Letter No. 20, dated the 4th July 1903, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, requesting to be informed whether appointments on progressive pay, starting with a salary of less than Rs. 100 per mensem, but rising to Rs. 100 and above, fall under the category of appointments contemplated in Government Order No. 17108-47—Mis. 2647, dated the 1st June 1903.

No. G. 404-43, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Government observe that the progressive appointments referred to by the Comptroller and the Revenue Commissioner fall within the purview of the Government Order of the 1st June 1903, referred to above, and should therefore be reported to Government for sanction.

EDUCATION

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

Letter No. 9841—353, dated the 15th May 1903, from the Inspector General of Education in Mysore.

With reference to your docket No. 15815—Ed. 4-96, dated the 7th instant, I have the honor to submit for the approval and sanction of Government the budget estimates of all "Industrial and other Special Schools" in Mysore for 1903-04, maintained from Local Funds General with a memo. I have included in them the charges of the Industrial Schools and the Engineering School sanctioned by Government Orders bearing No. 14668-77—Ed. F. 4-96 and No. 14694-6—Ed. F. 4-96, dated the 7th April 1903.

MEMO.

1. The budget estimates of the Government Industrial School, Mysore, for 1903-04, were discussed by the Committee at a Meeting held on the 31st March 1903. The receipts are estimated at Rs. 5,000 against Rs. 7,205 for the current year and the expenditure at Rs. 15,104 against Rs. 16,061 for the current year.

2. For the extension of industrial education in the State, Government have been pleased to sanction the opening of nine Industrial Schools and the grant of a number of scholarships to students desiring to study in Technical Schools in British India in their Order No. 14668-77—Ed. F. 4-96, dated the 7th April 1903. The opening of an Engineering School at Mysore to train up pupils for the subordinate staff of the Public Works and Revenue Departments has also been sanctioned by Government Order No. 14694-6—Ed. F. 4-96 of the same date. The charges on account of these schools and scholarships amount to Rs. 35,728 for 1903-04, and being met from the Local Funds General are provided in the same budget with the charges of the Mysore Industrial School which is maintained from the same funds. The total estimated charges amount to Rs. 50,832 for 1903-04.

RECEIPTS.

3. The figures of the estimated receipts of the workshop classes of the Government Industrial School Mysore for 1903-04 have been obtained from the figures of the actual outturn during the eight working months from 1st July 1902 to end of March 1903. For one month in the current year the school was closed on account of plague.

4. The carpentry class has not turned out work at all equal to the estimated receipts of the current year. The estimated receipts from this class for 1903-04 are shown to be considerably less than for the current year. The outturn expected from the Rattan class is higher than for the current year. The actual outturn of the Blacksmiths' class is very poor. The outturn for 1903-04 is therefore estimated at a low figure. For want of a sufficient number of sheds for drying wet tiles, the actual outturn up to the end of March last was only a little more than half the estimated quantity for 1902-03. The outturn for next year is estimated at a much lower figure than for 1902-03. The outturn of the Mechanics' class is estimated at a higher figure than for the current year. The Mechanics' class is the only class that has turned out the full amount of work estimated for the first eight months of 1902-03. It is proposed to abolish the wood carving class from 1st July 1903.

5. The fee-income of the Engineering School is estimated at Rs. 1,296.

EXPENDITURE.

I. Government Industrial School, Mysore.—(1) Machinery and Tools.—The provision has been reduced from Rs. 1,378 to Rs. 586, which amount provides for the cost of certain new instruments and tools required for the school and of others which are to replace those which are old and worn out. The amount includes also the cost of repairs and up-keep of the Tile Machinery.

(2) Stock Materials—The provision for 1903-04 is Rs. 50 less than for the current year. Rs. 100 more is provided for (4) clay, quartz etc., for 1903-04 than for the current year. The other items under this head are either the same as those for the current year or have been much reduced.

(3) Scholarships.—The provision for the current year is repeated.

(4) Temporary sheds, etc—There are now ten temporary sheds which require to be thoroughly repaired. A sum of Rs. 600 is provided for repairs and new sheds.

(5) Contingencies.—Rs. 150 is provided for certain articles of furniture required for the drawing-class and for the show-room where the articles made in the school are exhibited. The amount for the purchase of drawing materials, such as paper, pencils, brushes, has been raised by Rs. 50. Some books on Engineering, Technical Arts and Industries are required for the School Library which is freely used by the Drawing and Masonry Classes and also by Government Officers seeking technical information. A sum of Rs. 150 is provided for these books. Rs. 175 is provided for sundries, which include the wages of lascars to be employed in connection with surveying and levelling work of the Masonry Class, besides sundry other charges. The Committee are not in favor of granting prizes to the successful students of the school as has been the practice hitherto. The provision of Rs. 120 for prizes is accordingly struck out.

(6) Wages of Temporary Establishment.—In accordance with a resolution of the Committee passed at the meeting on the 31st March last, the class for wood-carving will be abolished in July next and the sum of Rs. 120 provided for the wood carver is struck out. As a sufficient number of carpenters and blacksmiths have to be employed to execute orders received within the stipulated time and the present provision namely, Rs. 300 is found inadequate, Rs. 500 is provided for the purpose for 1903-04.

(7) Establishment.—The provision for 1903-04 is the same as for the current year.

(8) Night Classes.—The present provision is repeated.

(9) Travelling Allowances.—Rs. 150 is entered for 1903-04 as for the current year.

II. Other Industrial Schools.—A sum of Rs. 26,500 is provided for the establishment and maintenance of the five Industrial Schools referred to in para 3 of Government Order No. 14668-77—Ed. F. 4-96, dated the 7th April 1903, and of the four Weaving Schools referred to in para 5 of the same order.

III. Engineering School, Mysore.—A sum of Rs. 4,008 is provided for the Engineering School to be opened at Mysore in accordance with Government Order No. 14694-6—Ed. F. 4-96, dated 7th April 1903. When this school is organised, the Masonry Class attached to the Mysore Industrial School will be abolished as required by para 2 of that order and the provision entered for it in the budget for 1903-04 will be saved and it will be struck out altogether from the budget for 1904-05.

IV. Scholarships.—Rs. 4,800 is provided for 20 scholarships to be granted to young men desiring to study in any of the Technical Schools in British India and Rs. 420 for scholarships to be granted to village school masters deputed to study improved methods in silk industry on Mr. J. N. Tata's Farm at Bangalore.

ALSO—

Letter No. 10476—373, dated the 12th June 1903, from the same Officer requesting that a sum of Rs. 2,090 may be sanctioned for constructing a kiln in the premises of the Industrial School at Mysore and included in the budget estimates of the school for the year 1903-04.

No. G. 177-8—ED., DATED BANGALORE, 14TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—In the budget submitted by the Inspector General of Education with the first of the letters read above, the "Receipts" and "Expenditure" of the Industrial and other Special Schools in Mysore for the yer 1903-04, are estimated as follows:—

	Rs.
Receipts	6,296
Expenditure	50,832

2. A sum of Rs. 2,090 required for constructing a kiln in the premises of the Industrial School at Mysore, referred to in the second of the letters read above is sanctioned.

3. This addition raises the Inspector General's estimate of the charges payable from the Local Funds General on account of Industrial and other Special Schools to Rs. 52,922 against an estimated receipt of Rs. 6,296. These estimates are passed. The usual budget statements are appended and an abstract thereof is given below :—

4. It is observed that the charges of the Mysore Industrial School alone are estimated at Rs. 15,104, while the receipts expected from the sale proceeds of the articles manufactured therein are put down at Rs. 5,000. This outturn would be unsatisfactory; but it is hoped that with better management the disparity between income and expenditure will be reduced.

5. Special attention of the Inspector General is required for the proper utilization of the scholarship grant. A report should be submitted showing how the grant of scholarships in the Weavers' class and the Artware Manufactory is checked and the progress made by the holders of those scholarships.

Letter No. 8627-8—391, dated the 4th April 1903, from the Inspector General of Education in Mysore, submitting the Village School Fund Budget estimates for the year 1903-04 with an explanatory memo.

INSPECTOR GENERAL'S MEMO ON THE VILLAGE SCHOOL FUND BUDGET ESTIMATES FOR 1903-04.

RECEIPTS.

The Village School Fund has not been placed on a satisfactory basis for the past few years. In 1897-98, the receipts exclusive of the opening balance amounted to Rs. 2,31,533, while the expenditure amounted to Rs. 2,22,345. and the balance at the end of the year to Rs. 3,32,961, which includes the invested surplus of Rs. 2,00,000. Till the end of that year the expenditure was within the income. Since 1898-99, however, the expenditure has always been in excess of the receipts. The actual receipts and charges were Rs. 2,20,159 and Rs. 2,27,103 in 1898-99, Rs. 2,16,952 and Rs. 2,36,695 in 1899-00, Rs. 2,21,282 and Rs. 2,70,429 in 1900-01 and Rs. 2,22,457 and Rs. 2,81,799 in 1901-02. It was by Order No. 1948-49—Ed. F. 3-96, dated 11th August 1899, that the aggregate sanctioned expenditure was raised to Rs. 2,93,528 against estimated receipts of Rs. 2,33,316. This disparity between income and expenditure has continued ever since. The result has been that the closing balance which stood at Rs. 3,32,961 in 1897-98 was reduced to Rs. 1,97,784 on 1st July 1902. It will thus be seen that not only the cash balance of Rs. 1,32,961 which existed on 1st July 1898, has been used up but even the invested surplus of Rs. 2,00,000 began to be drawn upon in 1901-02, and will probably be reduced to about Rs. 1,40,000 on 1st July 1903. Without any fresh addition to the present sanctioned expenditure the invested savings will disappear in the course of two or three years, unless ways are found to improve the normal receipts of the Fund.

2. In my letters No. 1707—84, dated 6th August 1900, and No. 9938—423, dated 4th May 1901, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore in the General and Revenue Departments as well as in my Memorandum dated 13th September 1902, I have submitted suggestions for increasing the normal receipts of the Village School Fund and for balancing the receipts and expenditure of the Village School Fund Budget. I would invite once more the attention of Government to these suggestions, and submit that early orders may be passed on this important subject.

3. According to a statement furnished by the Comptroller, the receipts from 24 per cent of the local cess for 1902-03, are estimated at a little over two lakhs. This estimate has been adopted for the ensuing year. The estimated income from schooling fees has been reduced from Rs. 4,800 to Rs. 3,500, as the actuals came to a little less than the latter amount. Taking the invested amount at Rs. 2,00,000 against which the excess expenditure will, I suppose, remain as a debt, the interest should be Rs. 7,000, but this amount is reduced to Rs. 6,801, by the income tax and bank commission paid from it. The contribution from Municipal Funds is Rs. 48 less for 1903-04. Owing to the transfer of the contribution paid by the Municipality of French Rocks, Rs. 150, from the Village School Fund to the State Funds, and that paid by the Municipality of Nyamti, Rs. 102, from the latter to the former Fund. The contribution from the State Funds is raised by Rs. 498, as there has been an increase of expenditure on the Government Normal School, Mysore, on account of which the contribution is paid. The total estimated receipts for 1903-04 thus amount to Rs. 2,36,877 being Rs. 1,049 less than the estimated receipts for the current year.

EXPENDITURE.

4. The Village School Fund Budget Estimates sanctioned by Government Order No. 4142-3—Ed. F. 3-96, dated the 18th September 1902, provide Rs. 2,81,668 for expenditure during the current year. This amount has been supplemented by a grant of Rs. 3,000 sanctioned by Government Order No. 13566-7—Ed. F. 20-96, dated the 9th March 1903. Against a total grant of Rs. 2,84,668 for the current year, the estimates for 1903-04 amount to Rs. 2,73,368. The difference of Rs. 11,300 is due to a decrease of Rs. 120 under General Instruction, Rs 1,500 under Grants-in-aid, and Rs. 11,000 under General and to an increase of Rs. 1,200, under Normal Schools and Rs. 120 under Local Examinations.

5. The decrease of Rs. 120 under I General Instruction is the amount transferred to Head III Special Instruction, on account of allowances at Rs 5 each sanctioned by Government Order No. 5676-7—Ed. 137, dated the 14th October 1902, out of Rs. 2,000 provided in the budget for additional hands, for the Gymnastic Instructor of the Shimoga College and the Music Master of the Government Girls' School, Shimoga, for their work in the Shimoga Normal School.

6. The special grant of Rs. 1,500 in aid of the Sravanabelagola School building provided in the budget for the current year is struck out for 1903-04, which accounts for the corresponding decrease under II Grants-in-aid.

7. The promotion of Mr. Hiriyanna, M.A., and his reversion to the Normal School, Mysore, the increments earned by the Head Master and his assistants and the allowances for the Gymnastic Instructor and Music Master referred to above, increase the expenditure on account of the Normal Schools by Rs. 1,200.

8. The decrease of Rs. 11,000 under IV General is due to the reduction of the provision for buildings from Rs. 16,000 to Rs. 5,000, the provisional figure usually entered in the estimates.

9. The increase of Rs. 120 under V Local Examinations, provides for the increment due to the Manager.

No. G. 242-3—Ed. F. 3-96, dated Bangalore, 20th July 1903.

Order thereon—The following are the Inspector General's estimates of the Village School Fund for 1903-04:—

Sanctioned estimates for 1902-03		Proposed estimates for 1903-04	Difference
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Receipts ...	... 2,37,926	2,36,877	—1,049
Expenditure	... 2,84,668	2,73,368	—11,300

2. As pointed out by the Inspector General in the first para of his memo, the expenditure has, for some years past, been exceeding the receipts, and in consequence the whole of the cash balance of over a lakh that was at the credit of the Fund, has been exhausted and in addition the invested surplus of 2 lakhs reduced to Rs. 1,97,784 on the 30th June 1902. This amount would be further reduced by the excess expenditure of 1902-03.

3. In order to prevent the total disappearance of the Fund in this manner, Government, taking into consideration the proposals made by the Inspector General, direct as follows:—

(1) The allotment to the Village School Fund from the local cess on certain items now forming the Local Funds General, will be raised from 24 per cent to 33 per cent, so as to bring in an income of about Rs. 18,000. The Local Funds General can well sustain the loss caused by this arrangement.

(2) The following charges now borne by the Village School Fund will be transferred to the State Funds:—

(i) Rs. 24,218—Cost of Normal Schools.

(ii) 1,140—Cost of the Students' Home attached to the Normal School at Mysore.

(iii) Rs. 3,134—Cost of Aided Anglo-Vernacular and Sanskrit Schools in Villages.

(iv) 1,848—Cost of certain clerical and menial establishments maintained in the Office of the Inspector General of Education and in the Government Central Book Depot.

4. The Inspector General's estimates both under receipts and expenditure have been revised in accordance with the above changes and are passed as follows:—

		Rs.
Receipts. Rs. 2,45,074		2,36,877	—The Inspector General's estimate.
	Add	18,000	—Increased income from local cess.
	Deduct	8,197	—Contribution from the State Funds being no longer necessary.
	Deduct	1,606	—Contribution by the people towards the cost of Anglo-Vernacular and Sanskrit Schools in villages to be transferred to the State Fund, the cost of such schools being borne by that Fund.
	Rs.	2,45,074

		Rs.
Expenditure. Rs. 2,54,090		2,73,368	—The Inspector General's estimate.
	Add	10,000	—Additional provision for village school buildings.
	Do	1,060	—Amount required for raising the provision for contingencies and fees to Examiners of the Local Examinations.
	Deduct	24,218	—Cost of Normal Schools transferred to State Funds.
	Do	1,140	—Cost of Students, Home attached to the Normal School at Mysore transferred to State Funds.
	Do	3,152	—Cost of Aided Anglo-Vernacular and Sanskrit Schools in villages transferred to State Funds.
	Do	1,848	—Cost of certain clerical and menial establishments maintained in the Office of the Inspector General and in the Central Book Depot, transferred to State Funds.
	Rs.	2,54,090

6. The budget as sanctioned above is still wanting in equilibrium as the income falls short of the expenditure by about Rs. 10,000. But this excess is due to the normal provision of Rs. 5,000 for buildings being raised to Rs. 15,000 for 1903-04. It is directed that hereafter no buildings for schools to be newly established should ordinarily be constructed at the cost of Village School Fund, the provision of accommodation being a duty devolving on the villagers interested, that after completion of the buildings which have been already promised on the strength of contributions actually paid by private persons, the normal building grant of Rs. 5,000 should not on any account be exceeded and that no more deposits of contributions for such buildings should be received until further orders. Such of the existing schools as are in an unsatisfactory state either in respect of strength or efficiency of teaching should be abolished as soon as possible, or transferred to places where there is a real demand and no additional expenditure should be proposed unless indispensable.

Letter No. 9152—319, dated the 21st April 1903, from the Inspector General of Education in Mysore, submitting a list of schools requiring Government aid, and requesting that grants-in-aid amounting to Rs. 246 per mensem or Rs. 2,952 per annum be sanctioned, and included in the budget for 1903-04.

No. G. 368-9—Ed., DATED BANGALORE, 24TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Of the 15 schools recommended for aid, only eight have been dealt with in connection with the budget for 1903-04, and the grant sanctioned for each is shown in the statement appended. The amount of Rs. 960 per annum required for the purpose, is included in the sanctioned budget for 1903-04.

2. As regards the other schools, the Inspector General is requested to submit separate proposals giving in each case detailed reasons for the recommendation of a grant.

Subba Rao, Munsiff of Chikballapur, who is the Honorary Secretary to the Managing Committee of the school, says that the want of a Sanskrit School is greatly felt. To place the school on a satisfactory footing Rs. 25 is required. A Pandit on Rs. 15, an Assistant on Rs. 7, a sweeper on Rs. 2, and Re. 1 for contingencies are required. The old Sanskrit Pathasala under Pandit Rajagopalachar, which was closed after his death, was given a grant of Rs. 70 a month.	10

For a time a grant from the Famine Fund was given to the Home. With that exception the Home has been maintained from the gifts of friends in England and India. It receives no aid from London Missionary Society. The Home costs a large sum of money. The Education Department cannot give a grant towards the cost of the maintenance of the orphans. It can only give a grant towards the cost of their education. 3 Teachers costing Rs. 33 a month are employed for giving instructions. A grant of Rs. 16 is therefore recommended.	10

Letters Nos. 541, 781 and 941—41, dated 12th, 13th and 15th May 1903, respectively, from the District Magistrates of Hassan, Tumkur and Shimoga Districts, reporting that they have received a letter from Mr. Thomas Hunt, Honorary Secretary to the Mysore Game and Fish Preservation Association, asking for certain information in connection with licenses issued and prosecutions instituted under the Arms and Game Regulations, and requesting instructions as to whether the information called for may be furnished.

No. 2-10—J. M., DATED BANGALORE, 2ND JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—All Deputy Commissioners are requested to insert in the Police Administration Reports of their respective districts for the year 1902-03, information regarding the licenses issued respectively, under the Arms and Game Regulations, and the number of cases prosecuted and ending in conviction for breaches of those laws, together with the number of persons involved therein. The Inspector General of Police will embody this information in his Provincial Report in the form of a statement according to districts.

2. Meanwhile the District Magistrates of Hassan, Tumkur and Shimoga may inform Mr. Thomas Hunt, in reply to his application, that orders have been issued by Government to the effect that information of the kind asked for should be embodied in the Police Administration Reports from and after the year 1902-03, in view to publicity being given to it; and that such action as Government might direct in this behalf will be taken after the Report for 1902-03, which is not due till a few months after the close of the official year, has been submitted to and reviewed by Government.

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA,
Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Hassan, Tumkur and Shimoga.
The other Deputy Commissioners of Districts.
The Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

No. 22-30—J. F. 3 of 1903, DATED BANGALORE, 3RD JULY 1903.

ORDER—Government regret to observe that in several cases of offences under the Infant Marriages Prevention Regulation, reported from the Shimoga District, there has been very inordinate delay on the part of the local police officers in taking action. Such delays, it is obvious, detract from the deterrent effect of prosecutions, where they do not render it inadvisable to institute prosecutions altogether; and for this, if for no other reason, the Inspector General of Police will insist on such cases being dealt with promptly and take due notice of any laxity.

No. 41—J. F. 42 of 1902-03, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Recorded.

2. Twenty Companies were inspected during the year against none in the previous year. Government hope that the number of offices inspected will show a further improvement during 1903-04.

3. It is also observed that 5 prosecutions under Regulation III of 1895 were instituted during the year against none in 1901-02.

Letter No. 843, dated 12th June 1903, from the District Magistrate of Tumkur, explaining with reference to a notification issued by him investing Gulam Mahomed Meccai, sub-pro-tem Deputy Amildar and 3rd class Magistrate of the Koratagere Sub-Taluk, with powers under the Excise Regulation, V of 1901, that as in Sections 40, clause (3), 43 and 50 of the said Regulation the words "the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the case" are repeatedly used, and as the Regulation itself does not define the term "Magistrate," it was deemed that, as under the former Excise Act, a special investiture was necessary.

No. 77-84—J. M., DATED BANGALORE, 10TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The words "jurisdiction to try the case" in the provisions referred to, mean the competence of a Magistrate to take cognizance of a case with reference to his powers as a Magistrate and the locality over which his powers extend,—matters which are regulated by the Code of Criminal Procedure. The District Magistrate has erred in construing those words as giving to himself the power to invest a subordinate Magistrate with jurisdiction, as no such investiture is contemplated by the Excise Regulation.

Government Proceedings No. 1928-34—J. F. 12 of 1900, dated 1st June 1903, sanctioning the grant of three months' leave to Mr. M. Setu Rao, Public Prosecutor, Shimoga Division, and the appointment of Mr. B. Guru Rao, Advocate, Shimoga, to act for him, and observing that if, as stated by Mr. Guru Rao, he had, with the sanction of the District Magistrates of Shimoga and Chitaldrug, been doing the duties of Public Prosecutor since March last, it was not clear why this was not reported to Government by those District Magistrates.

(1) Letter No. 1021—42, dated 10th June 1903, from the District Magistrate of Shimoga, reporting, with reference to the observation contained in the above, that the arrangement entered into by Mr. Setu Rao with Mr. Guru Rao in regard to the conduct of the March Sessions, was approved of by him as a temporary measure and that this fact was not reported to Government as the Government Order No. 2660-73—J. 292, dated 24th August 1896, under the authority of which the arrangement was approved of, does not require any such report being made to Government.

(2) Letter No. 820, dated 16th June 1903, from the District Magistrate of Chitaldrug, reporting that Mr. Guru Rao was authorized by him under para 2 of Section 492 of the Criminal Procedure Code to conduct the cases committed for trial to the Court of Sessions by the Magistrates during March last as Mr. Setu Rao was reported to be sick at the time and that such authorization not being general, no report was made to Government.

No. 114-122—J. F. 383 OF 1902, DATED BANGALORE, 11TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON—Government observe that merely temporary arrangements rendered necessary by emergencies may be made by the District Magistrate, who should at once submit to Government a report about this matter. Acting appointments which require the previous sanction of Government should not be made in anticipation of sanction.

READ THE FOLLOWING PAPERS—

1. Government Orders No. 16658-60—J. 1463, dated 11th April 1902, and No. J. 1144-47, dated 7th February 1903, sanctioning a scheme for strengthening the Detective Staff of the Kolar Gold Fields, the total cost being raised from Rs. 12,000 to Rs. 13,000 payable by the Mining Companies on the Fields.

2. Letter No. 5586—331, dated the 28th March 1903, from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, forwarding for orders, with his recommendation, the Kolar Deputy Commissioner's letter of the 22nd idem No. C. 1226, enclosing the following memorandum from the District Superintendent of Police, Kolar Gold Fields:—

Memorandum on the Detective Force, Kolar Gold Fields.

I enclose lists * the showing the—

(1) Number of cases detected by the Detective Department during the official year 1902-03.

(2) Expenditure on Detective Department during the last half year (January to June 1902).

(3) Expenditure on the Detective Department for the official year beginning July 1902, up to end of February 1903.

The amount originally sanctioned for the Department was Rs. 12,000 per annum, and last year this amount was raised to Rs. 13,000 per annum.

Up till now a fixed scale of pay and appointments has been laid down. This scale has been modified two or three times and now stands as follows:—

				Rs.
1 Chief Inspector on	...	...	...	220	including allowance.
1 2nd Inspector on	...	...	...	170	ditto.
2 Head Constables on	...	...	...	60	ditto.
9 Constables on	...	...	...	20	ditto.
5 Constables on	...	...	...	10	ditto.

It has not been possible ever since the Department was established to maintain the full strength continuously.

It is impossible to treat a Detective Force on the same hard and fast lines as an ordinary force. Numbers of fresh men have to be tried before even a very small body of really suitable men can be obtained, and this necessitates constant changes in the personnel of the force.

I consider it waste of money to pay men who are being tried, the same pay as should be given to men who have undergone trial and have been found satisfactory, and I also think it is not advisable to put a strict limit to the pay of men whose retention in the Detective Department is considered expedient. The Department is too small to allow of a regular series of grades of rank and pay, and if a strict scale of pay is adhered to as at present, it is often difficult to give a good man a reasonable prospect of advancement.

In a Department like this, men ought to be paid to a large extent by results. For the above reasons I would propose that the scale of pay and appointments should be made much more elastic. I would recognize three grades:—

1 Inspector
2 Head Constables
3 Constables

and I would not limit the number of men employed in each grade. It would be quite sufficient to fix a maximum salary for each of the three grades and their maxima might be—

Inspectors Rs. 300
Head Constables Rs. 100
Constables Rs. 25.

---

* Not printed.

It will be observed that the total amount spent yearly has not yet nearly approached the total amount sanctioned. But as a competent staff of men is gradually got together, and the operations of the Detective Department are further extended (a most desirable thing), it will be found that the sanctioned amount is none too large. The experiment has worked well hitherto, but is capable of much expansion, and this will probably take place if the grant is sanctioned for a further period of three years.

The advantage of the system above recommended would be that we should be able to pay a man what he is worth: under a fixed scale, we pay some men more than they are worth and others not enough.

It must also be remembered that the circumstances on the Gold Fields are always changing and we never know exactly how many men we can employ.

It might at any time be necessary to increase our staff of either highly paid or low paid men to meet existing circumstance. For example if we extend our sphere of work outside the Gold Fields to a greater extent (a step which I consider highly advisable) we shall require an increase in the number of well paid men whom we can trust to work outside supervision; and on the other hand, if we noticed any sudden increase in the amount of petty quartz-stealing, etc., on the Gold Fields, we should have to increase our staff of low paid informants and constables in order to deal effectively with this class of crime. It is of course understood that under no circumstances would the yearly grant of Rs. 13,000 be exceeded.

No. 170-72—J. 42-1898-99, DATED BANGALORE, 20TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The Government note with pleasure the testimony borne by the Deputy Commissioner to the excellence of the work done by the Special Detective Staff entertained for the Gold Fields; and they agree that the continuance of so serviceable a staff is in every way desirable. Proposals are submitted in the papers last read, for improving the efficiency of the force by making the salary of the members thereof dependent, to a larger extent than heretofore, on the results achieved by them, and for rendering more elastic the number of men in the various grades, so as to meet the constantly changing requirements of the Fields with reference to the state of crime, etc.

Three grades of officers are alone to be recognized, viz.—

Inspectors on a maximum salary of		...	...	300	each per mensem
Head Constables	do	...	...	100	do	and
Constables	do	...	...	25	do

The number of men employed in each grade is not to be limited to any particular figure; but the total cost is under no circumstances to exceed the yearly contribution of Rs. 13,000.

2. After a careful consideration Government are pleased to accord their sanction to these proposals as a tentative measure for a period of three years, at the end of which a detailed report should be submitted regarding the results of the arrangement.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 782, dated 16th March 1903, from the Inspector General of Registration in Mysore, reporting on the matter of the recovery of process fees in Registration cases.

No. 262-72—J. F. 34-03, DATED BANGALORE, 29TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The Inspector General reports that throughout the State except in the taluks of Belur, Arkalgud, Shimoga and Chikballapur, process fees in Registration cases are recovered in Court-fee stamps, that the processes are served by the taluk Revenue officers without any addition to their ordinary establishment or additional remuneration to the latter, but that in the taluks specified, the fee is recovered in cash, and separate remuneration paid to the person serving them. He recommends that as the number of processes applied for by Sub-Registrars is too small to involve any appreciable addition to the ordinary Revenue establishment of taluks, the present practice may be continued and made uniform by laying down that the levy should be everywhere in Court-fee stamps and not in cash.

The Government are pleased to accept the Inspector General's recommendation and to direct that the following rule shall be uniformly observed in future :—

" The fees prescribed for the service of process under Section 36 of the Registration Act, should be levied by means of Court-fee stamps. Such stamps should be attached to the processes and punched. All such processes should be served by the ordinary Revenue establishment of taluks, without additional remuneration."

Government Proceedings No 2099-2101—J. F. 148 of 1903, dated 30th June 1903, sanctioning tentatively for one year, certain proposals for the re-organization of the Bowringpet Town Police.

2. Letter No. 359-31, dated the 13th July 1903, from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, pointing out that in the scheme proposed for the revision of the Bowringpet Town Police the pay of the 1st and 2nd class constables was, by a mistake, calculated at Rs 8 and Rs. 7 per mensem, instead of Rs. 9 and Rs. 8 per mensem, respectively, which is the pay sanctioned for the constables in the Kolar Gold Fields, and requesting sanction to calculate the pay of the constables according to the latter scale.

No. 275-77—J. F. 148-03, DATED BANGALORE, 30TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The proposal of the Inspector General of Police to calculate the pay of the 1st and 2nd class constables of the Bowringpet Town Police under the revised arrangement at the rates sanctioned for the Kolar Gold Fields Police, involves an increase of pay of the said constables by one rupee each per mensem. Their strength as sanctioned in the Government Proceedings read above, being 5 of the 1st class and 15 of the 2nd class, the extra cost amounts to Rs. 20 per mensem. To meet this the Inspector General in consultation with the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, and the Superintendent of Police, Kolar Gold Fields, recommends the abolition of the post of one 2nd class constable of the Bowringpet Taluk Force on Rs. 7 per mensem and that of one 1st class constable of the Kolar Gold Fields Force on Rs. 9+4 per mensem.

2. These proposals are sanctioned. The scale of the Bowringpet Town Police as now revised is as shown below :—

1 Chief Constable, 3rd class, on Rs. 50+20 per mensem.
1 Head Constable, 2nd class, on Rs. 20+10 per mensem.
1 Do 3rd class, on Rs. 16+10 per mensem.
5 Constables, 1st class, on Rs. 9+4 each per mensem.
15 Do 2nd class, on Rs. 8+4 each per mensem.

Letter No. 445—J., dated the 10th May 1903, from the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore, submitting the Report on the Administration of the Jails and Lock-ups in the State for the calendar year 1902.

No. 283-93—J., DATED BANGALORE, 31ST JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—There were 1,161 prisoners of all classes at the beginning of the year under review. Adding thereto, 3,622 convicts, and 4,147 under-trial and 51 civil prisoners that were admitted during the year, the total Jail population amounted to 8,992. 3,716 convicts and 4,158 under-trial and 51 civil prisoners, or 7,925 in all, were discharged from all causes, leaving 1,057 at the close of the year. The daily average strength of prisoners decreased from 1,215·61 to 1,135·9 during the year under review.

2. Of the 3,051 convicts that were imprisoned during the year, 263 or 8·62 per cent were re-committals, of whom 45 were habitual offenders. This percentage no doubt shows a decrease as compared with the percentage of last year, viz, 10·47. Government consider that long-term sentences are more likely to be deterrent in their case than short terms.

3. 54 juvenile prisoners were admitted as against 79 in the previous year. Arrangements if any, existing in the Bangalore and Mysore Jails, for giving juveniles some useful instruction, should be reported.

4. Four convicts and 7 under-trial prisoners escaped during the year; three of the former, and four of the latter have been subsequently recaptured.

5. Why the system of the identification by means of finger impressions has not been of much use should be reported. The Government attach the highest importance to the identification of previously convicted prisoners, and they would be glad to receive suggestions from the Inspector General of Prisons and the Inspector General of Police to improve the system.

6. It is satisfactory to note that the number of prison offences decreased during the year from 448 to 245. Corporal punishments were inflicted in 79 cases as against 25 in the last year.

7. The expenditure in all the Jails and Lock-ups amounted to Rs. 1,03,003, or Rs. 9,241 less than in the previous year, and the cost per head of average strength Rs. 90-10-10 as against Rs. 92-5-4. This decrease is reported to be chiefly due to the cheapness of food grains during the year under review. The total cash earnings amounted to Rs. 20,173 or Rs. 1,434 more than in the preceding year. Deducting this amount from the total expenditure, the net expenditure amounted to about Rs. 82,830, which makes the cost Rs. 72-14-8 per head of average strength.

8. Next as regards the health of the prisoners, it is observed that the number of admissions to hospitals was greater than in the previous year, which was partly due to the prevalence of influenza in the Mysore and Bangalore Jails in the months of August and October 1902, and that the daily average number of sick was 21·09 as against 20·56. 20 prisoners died during the year, the ratio of death per thousand of average strength being 17·60 as against 20·56.

9. Government note that it is under contemplation to establish a sewage farm in the Jail garden at Bangalore for the treatment of excreta by means of bacterial filters. The result of the experiment should be reported in due course.

No. 351-90—L. F. 37-1903, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—It is observed that, as in previous years, there were ten Local Fund Boards, including the Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary Board. A Regulation to make better provision for the constitution of Local Boards to administer the expenditure of District Funds in Mysore and to define and regulate the powers to be exercised by those Boards, was passed on the 15th day of June 1902.

2. The number of meetings held during the year in each Circle, as contrasted with that of the previous year, is given in the following statement:—

Serial No.	Local Fund Circles.	Meetings held in
		1900-01.	1901-02.
1	Bangalore	4	4
2	Kolar	4	3
3	Kolar Gold Fields	8	7
4	Tumkur	4	3
5	Mysore	3	3
6	French Rocks	3	3
7	Hassan	4	3
8	Shimoga	4	4
9	Kadur	5	3
10	Chitaldrug	4	4

The number of meetings held in six of the Circles was less than the prescribed minimum (four). No explanation has been given for not holding one meeting more in Kolar and French Rocks, but in the remaining Circles the omission is stated to have been partly due to the prevalence of plague and partly to there having been no important subjects for discussion. The explanation cannot be accepted. The prescribed number of meetings should invariably be held in future.

In French Rocks, the Civil Surgeon among the official members, and Mr. K. Shamiengar among the non-official members, appear to have absented themselves from all the meetings of the Board. This is unsatisfactory. On the whole, however, the attendance of members was satisfactory except in Shimoga, where plague seems to have interfered with it.

The Presidents of the Bangalore, Kolar and Tumkur Circles report that the non-official as well as official members have taken interest in assisting the Boards in the administration of the funds entrusted to their charge, while the other reports are silent on the point. This information, which is most important, should have been furnished.

3. Appendix I shows that the total income credited to the District Funds during the year 1901-02, rose from Rs. 5,92,272 to Rs. 6,10,193 or by Rs. 17,921. The increase of Rs. 10,000 under "76 per cent of cess" is due to larger revenue collected in all the Circles except those of Hassan and the Kolar Gold Fields, the increase in the Mysore District being the result of the introduction of the Survey and Settlement into the Nanjangud Taluk. No explanation has been furnished for the decrease of Rs. 1,732 and Rs. 70 respectively, in the Hassan Circle and the Kolar Gold Fields. In the Kolar Gold Fields, however, there was a marked increase of Rs. 7,698 over the collections, viz., Rs. 5,918, in the previous year under "Slaughter fees," "Market gate fees" and rents from the cooly colonies recently constructed by the Board. In Hassan, there was a decrease under "Rents" owing to the Rangacharlu Memorial chattram in Arsikere having remained unoccupied for a period of three months during the prevalence of plague.

The finances of the Hassan Board are reported to be in an unsatisfactory condition and the President considers that unless relief is afforded to the Board by the transfer to the Provincial Funds of some of the District Fund roads, such as Arsikere-Hassan road, which has acquired provincial importance owing to heavy traffic, they will have to content themselves with merely looking after the annual maintenance of roads by the Public Works Department and the up-keep of some Hospitals and Dispensaries. This will be separately noticed.

4. The details of receipts are shown in the Comptroller's statement of receipts and expenditure marked A, from which it will be observed that Rs. 5,22,591 or 85·6 per cent of the total revenue was contributed by "76 per cent of the Local Cess," Rs. 31,783 or 5·2 per cent from cattle pounds, Rs. 17,140 or 2·8 per cent from tolls, ferries and bungalow fees, and the rest from miscellaneous sources.

If the revenue thus collected during the year be distributed over the population in rural tracts, the incidence per head of population would be annas 2 pie 0·2, of which anna 1 pies 8·7 was from the "76 per cent of the Local Cess" on Land Revenue, etc., pies 1·3 from pounds, pie 0·7 from "Tolls and Ferris" and the rest, pies 1·5 from miscellaneous sources such as rents, market fees, etc.

5. Appendix I also shows the details of expenditure incurred during the year, which rose from Rs. 5,68,888 to Rs. 5,85,435, the increase being chiefly in the Kolar Gold Fields, where it was Rs. 39,695 against Rs. 8,367 in 1900-01.

6. Out of the total expenditure of Rs. 5,85,435, Rs. 3,69,036 or 63·04 per cent was spent on works executed by the Public Works Department and Rs. 85,360 or 14·5 per cent on works executed by the Revenue agency as shown in the appended statements A, A1 and B, the rest of the expenditure being incurred by the latter agency on account of other charges. This shows that the expenditure per head of population in rural parts was anna 1 pies 11·1, of which pies 11 were spent on roads, pie 0·9 on bridges and tunnels, pies 1·3 on miscellaneous public improvements, pies 2·6 on medical relief, pie 0·7 on travellers' bungalows, pies 1·9 on conservancy and sanitation, including wells, pie 0·3 on cattle pounds and the rest on other miscellaneous items such as establishments, etc.

7. It is observed that the receipts and expenditure for the year 1901-02, as given in the reports furnished by the Presidents, differ from those given in the Comptroller's accounts as noted below. The Comptroller is requested to explain the cause of difference in consultation with the Presidents concerned.

8. The percentage of charges to receipts in each of the Local Fund Circles, as compared with that of the previous year, is given below:—

No.	Local Fund Circles.	Percentage of charges to receipt.
		1900-01.	1901-02.
1	Bangalore	99·88	88·68
2	Kolar	109·41	99·66

7	Hassan	96·16	103·50
8	Shimoga	87·52	95·51
9	Kadur	99·74	84·01
10	Chitaldrug	98·48	106·84

9. The percentages of closing balances to receipts are given below. It is observed that the balances are less than the prescribed minimum in the Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary Board and the District Fund Boards of Kadur and French Rocks. In the former, viz., Sanitary Board, this deficit is due to no credit having been afforded to the Board during the year for the loan of Rs. 20,000, sanctioned by Government, whereas the expenditure incurred on works, for which the loan was sanctioned, was debited against the income in the accounts of the year 1901-02.

But though the financial condition of the Kadur and French Rocks Circles was better than that of the previous year on account of the transfer of five District Fund roads costing Rs. 9,370 to Provincial Funds, their balances did not reach the prescribed minimum. Steps should therefore be taken to maintain the usual working balance especially in the Kadur District.

10. The appended statements 2 and 3 show that of the total expenditure of Rs. 1,22,742 incurred on original works by the Public Works and Revenue Departments, a sum of Rs. 32,353 was spent on roads, Rs. 22,710 on bridges and tunnels, Rs. 12,152 on musafirkhanas and travellers' bungalows and the rest on drinking water wells and other miscellaneous public improvements.

11. The aggregate expenditure incurred by the Public Works and Revenue Departments on repairs during the year 1901-02, amounted to Rs. 2,66,747 as shown in the appended statements 4 and 5. Of this sum, Rs. 2,45,789 were spent on roads, Rs. 1,904 on bridges and tunnels, Rs. 9,801 on musafirkhanas and travellers' bungalows and the rest on drinking-water wells and other miscellaneous public improvements.

12. The amount sanctioned, the expenditure incurred on works and the amount that lapsed during the year are shown in following statement:—

From the above it appears that the percentage of lapses under "A. Public Works" ranges between 1·4 lowest in Kolar and 19·5 highest in Kadur, while under "B. Public Works" it ranges between 2·1 lowest in Bangalore and 73·5 highest in Hassan. Under "B. Public Works" the lapses were heavy in all the Districts except Bangalore. These have not been satisfactorily accounted for and indicate that there is great need for improvement. The Presidents concerned are requested to see that, in future, sanctioned allotments are utilized as fully as possible and that satisfactory reasons are assigned for unavoidable lapses.

13. The appended statement No. 6 exhibits details of expenditure incurred under "Civil charges" in the various Local Fund Circles as compared with those of the previous year.

14. The number of medical institutions supported from District Funds, the number of patients treated in them and the cost incurred on the several Local Fund Circles during the year, as compared with those of the preceding year are given in the following statement. During the year, the number of dispensaries maintained from the District Funds remained the same as at the end of the previous year, as the dispensary sanctioned for Whitefield was not opened for want of suitable accommodation, and proposals for opening the new dispensary at Varthur instead of at Whitefield are under the consideration of the District Fund Board. The number of patients treated in the existing dispensaries rose from 626,244 to 744,975, while the cost fell from Rs. 42,850 to Rs. 39,408 owing to the decrease under furniture and contribution towards dispensary buildings. The hospital at the Kolar Gold Fields is maintained from State Funds.

15. Midwives.—The following comparative statement exhibits the number of midwives employed in the several Local Fund Circles, the number of cases attended to by them and the cost incurred from District Funds during the years 1900-01 and 1901-02. At the end of the year under review there were 78 midwives or two more than in the preceding year.

The reports of the Bangalore and Chitaldrug Circles do not embody statements showing the number of cases attended to by each midwife and the cost incurred on her account. Such omissions should be avoided.

The figures above given do not include the number of cases attended to by the Kolar Gold Fields midwife maintained from the Medical budget or by those entirely supported from Municipal Funds.

16. Travellers' Bungalows and Musafirkhanas.—The musafirkhanas at Nelhal and Maddagiri and the old one at Huliyar were removed from the list under Government Proceedings No. 2052-3—L. F. 71-94, dated 2nd August 1901. The particulars showing the number of third class travellers' bungalows, inspection lodges and musafirkhanas which existed at the end of the year under report, the number of halts made and the fees collected from travellers halting therein, are shown in the appended statement No. 7. The increase in the number of bungalows in Bangalore and of musafirkhanas in the Hassan and Shimoga Local Fund Circles should have been accounted for.

It is satisfactory to note that the travellers' bungalows and musafirkhanas were more freely resorted to by the travelling public, as evidenced by the increased number of halts made by them. But it is not explained why the income from fees collected from the travellers' bungalows was less than in the Local Fund Circles of Tumkur, Mysore, French Rocks, Shimoga and Chitaldrug, notwithstanding the fact that the number of halts made during the year 1901-02 was much in excess of that in the year preceding.

17. Conservancy.—The following statement shows the expenditure incurred on account of special conservancy establishments, opening up of congested parts, filling manure pits, etc., in rural parts of the several Local Fund Circles. The expenditure was Rs. 16,725, which is much less than that of the previous year. Greater attention should be paid to village sanitation and as much money spent on it as may be practicable and useful.

18. The rules under the Village Sanitation Regulation were introduced into all villages containing more than 100 houses in the Bangalore Circle and into 439 villages in the Tumkur Circle. A sum of Rs. 55-7-0 was collected as fines in the former for breach of these rules. In Hassan 51 cases against 57 persons were prosecuted before the Magistrate under these rules, and resulted in the conviction of 53 persons. Government regret to observe that the reports from the other Circles have not furnished information in this matter. The attention of the Presidents concerned is invited to para 26 of Government Proceedings No. 6747-60—L. F. 21-00, dated 28th October 1901 and they are requested to supply this omission invariably in their future reports.

19. Vaccination.—The pay of the Taluk vaccinators and of the Deputy Inspectors of vaccination was, as usual, debited to the Medical budget, the pay and batta of the peons attached to the Deputy Inspectors of Vaccination and the cost of lymph being debited to District Funds. The report of the Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary Board does not embody statistics showing the number of vaccinators employed and the result of their operations. The attention of the President is invited to para 20 of Proceedings No. 15153-92—L. F. 185-02, dated 21st April 1903, and he is requested to submit with his future reports a return of vaccination as therein directed. The information furnished in the remaining reports shows that 59,230 persons were vaccinated during the year 1901-02 as per particulars given in the appended statement No. 8 as against 44,943 of the preceding year.

20. Vital Statistics.—Appendix 9 exhibits the result showing the number of births and deaths registered during the year. The total number of births rose from 75,743 to 75,861, and the total number of deaths from all causes from 86,410 to 92,252.

21. Contribution.—On account of the District Fund quota of the cost of the construction and repair of dispensary buildings and for the maintenance of District Fund roads lying within the limits of the Head-quarter Municipalities, an expenditure of Rs. 4,518 was incurred in 1901-02 as against Rs. 7,448 in the previous year.

22. Village School Fund.—From the 24 per cent of the one-anna cess collected on all items of revenue, 1,724 schools (18 Anglo-Vernacular, 88 Branch, 1,493 Hobli, 3 Normal, 119 Aided Village Indigenous and 3 Sanskrit schools) with an average strength of 55,268 boys and girls, were maintained at an aggregate cost of Rs. 2,43,742. The total revenue realized from fees during the year under review was Rs. 4,249.

23. The appended statement marked C, of which an abstract is given below, shows the revenue credited under Local Funds General and the expenditure incurred therefrom during the year 1901-02 :—

25. Government regret to observe that there was a considerable delay in the submission of these reports and accounts which were due on 30th September 1902. Except the reports of the Kolar Gold Fields and the Chitaldrug District, no other report was received on or before that date, and the last account and report received were, respectively, from the Comptroller on the 23rd February 1903 and from the Presidents of the Tumkur and Mysore Circles on the 28th April 1903 or about 4½ and 7 months after due dates. It is superfluous to comment on such delays which carry their own censure, but it is necessary to point out to these officers that it is of the utmost importance that the work of the year should be reviewed as early as possible after the expiration of that year, and this will only be possible if the Presidents, Comptroller and the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, send the reports and accounts due from them so as to reach this office on or before the prescribed date.

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA,

L. B. B MUNICIPAL.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

READ—

The Demand, Collection and Balance statements for the several Municipalities in the State for the quarter ending 30th September 1902.

No. 17-28—L. F. 44-1901, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The following statement exhibits the Demand, Collection and Balance under the head Municipal Revenue for the quarter ending 30th September 1902 :—

No	Municipalities	Number of Municipalities	Balance on 1st July 1902	Demand for the quarter	Total including balance	Collection during the quarter	Balance at the end of September 1902	Percentage of balance to total demand for the quarter
			Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1	Bangalore City ...	1	1,27,180	32,222	1,59,352	54,148	1,05,204	66·2
2	Bangalore District ...	16	2,097	3,929	6,026	4,626	1,400	23·2
3	Mysore City ...	1	54,288	34,847	89,135	43,406	45,729	51·3
4	Mysore District ...	25	27,405	6,242	33,707	9,789	23,918	70·9
5	Kolar do ...	11	9,854	6,597	16,451	8,815	7,636	46·4
6	Tumkur do ...	18	2, 59	3,900	6,557	4,747	1,810	27·5
7	Hassan do ..	14	7,667	4,299	11,966	6,797	5,169	43·2
8	Shimoga do ..	14	9,090	3,629	12,719	6,926	5,793	45·5
9	Kadur do ...	9	10,821	4,831	15,652	5,805	9,847	62·9
10	Chitaldrug do ...	15	350	4,788	5,138	4,897	241	4·6
	Total ...	124	2,51,419	1,05,284	3,56,703	1,49,956	2,06,747	67·4

2. The total demand including the uncollected arrears of previous quarters was Rs. 3,56,703, of which Rs. 1,49,956 was collected, leaving a balance of Rs. 2,06,747 to be collected at the end of the quarter.

3. The percentage of outstandings to the total demand at the end of September 1902, in the Municipalities of the several districts and the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore, is as given below and is contrasted with that at the end of June 1902 :—

No.	Municipalities	Percentage at the end of— June 1902	Percentage at the end of— September 1902
1	Bangalore City	74·5	66·2
2	Bangalore District	9·2	23·2
3	Mysore City	64·9	51·3
4	Mysore District	57·1	70·9
5	Kolar do	34·6	46·4
6	Tumkur do	12·6	27·5
7	Hassan do	32·7	43·2
8	Shimoga do	34·07	45·5
9	Kadur do	33·5	62·9
10	Chitaldrug do	1·7	4·6
	Total Percentage ...	52·6	67·4

From the above it is clear that the percentage of uncollected arrears at the end of September 1902 was more than at the end of June in all the Municipalities in the State except in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore where all the arrears should have been promptly collected. The attention of the Presidents of the several Municipalities is invited to Government Proceedings No. 13005-15—L. F. 44-01, dated 24th February 1903, and previous orders and they are requested to take very early steps for the speedy collection of all the recoverable items and to submit statements of irrecoverable items for the orders of Government.

The heavy balances at the Bangalore and Mysore Cities and in the Municipalities of the Mysore, Kolar, Hassan, Shimoga and Kadur District Municipalities require special attention. Government would be glad to receive a very early report from the Presidents concerned showing in detail why such large arrears should be outstanding and what steps, if any, are being taken to reduce the same.

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA,
Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

To—The Presidents of the Municipalities in the State.

RECEIPTS.

2. II and VII. House and Mohatarfa Taxes.—The decrease under house, shop and cart taxes in Malvalli and under shop tax in Seringapatam is accounted for by the absence of arrears of previous years, the recoverable portions of which are reported to have been collected already. But the cause of increase under shop tax in Nagamangala should have been explained. The estimate is however allowed to stand.

8. Krishnarajpete .	340	391
9 Pallalli ...	1,035	1,076
10. Kikkere ...	491	542
	9,368	10,060

3. Opening Balance.—The estimates under this head will be modified with reference to the actual balance on 1st July 1902 and the estimates for 1902-03, as shown in the margin.

EXPENDITURE.

4. VII. Lighting.—The proposal of the Municipal Board of Mandya to discontinue arrangements for lighting the town during the year 1903-04, owing to insufficiency of funds and the omission to provide for it in the present budget are approved, with the observation that steps should be taken to develop the sources of Municipal revenue. Even with this reduction, the closing balance of the Municipality is only Rs. 127 which is less than the prescribed minimum by Rs. 182, while the estimated cost of lighting during the year 1902-03 is Rs. 130. As it is undesirable to discontinue lighting arrangements in Municipal towns, the President is requested to suggest, if possible, a reappropriation from the sanctioned grant to meet the cost of maintaining some of the lamps at least in the town. The budgets of Maddur, Malvalli and Nagamangala furnish no details as to the cost of lighting each lamp, and those of Seringapatam, French Rocks and Krishnarajpete give no information as to the number of lamps existing in them. In Melkote and Krishnarajpete, where lump sum provisions of Rs. 100 and 60 respectively are made for the purchase of new lamps, the number and cost of each have not been specified. These omissions should be supplied but the provisions will stand as proposed.

5. IX. Charitable Grants.—In the present budgets of Seringapatam, Maddur, Malvalli and Krishnarajpete, provisions for the repair of dispensary buildings are repeated, while new entries have been made in those of French Rocks, Mandya and Nagamangala at the rate of Rs. 40 each, no corresponding provisions being made in the District Fund Budgets of the French Rocks Circle. It is not explained whether these sums were entered at the request of the Senior Surgeon or the Executive Engineer of the Division, and it is therefore a point for consideration why if there was no requisition, they should not be omitted, especially in Maddur and Mandya, where the working balances are less than the prescribed minimum. Pending further explanation, however, the provisions will stand.

6. The other items, which call for no remarks, are passed.

7. The budget estimates of the several Municipalities in the French Rocks Sub-Division for 1903-04 are sanctioned as per details given in the accompanying appendices. The aggregate results are as follows :—

No.	Municipalities	Estimated opening balance on 1st July 1903	Estimated receipts during 1903-04	Total including balance	Estimated expenditure for 1903-04	Estimated closing balance on 30th June 1904
		Rs	Rs.	Rs.	Rs	Rs
1	Seringapatam	5,368	9,445	14,813	10,290	4,523
2	Melkote	1,035	2,272	3,307	2,024	1,283
3	French Rocks	490	1,280	1,770	1,278	492
4	Mandya	—196	1,237	1,041	914	127
5	Maddur	140	897	1,037	823	214
6	Malvalli	742	2,042	2,784	2,158	626
7	Nagamangala	472	1,369	1,841	1,373	468
8	Krishnarajpete	391	1,023	1,414	1,099	315
9	Pallalli	1,076	817	1,893	1,192	701
10	Kikkeri	542	918	1,460	1,136	324
	Total ...	10,060	21,300	31,360	22,287	9,073

From the above, it will be seen that the closing balance is less than the prescribed minimum in the Municipalities of Mandya and Maddur. The submission of proposals to raise the working balance in each case is awaited, in the event of the actual balance on 1st July 1903 not being much in excess of the estimates adopted in the present budgets.

RECEIPTS.

2. I Octroi.—As octroi was introduced into the Melkote Municipality with effect from 1st July 1902 under the authority conveyed in Government Proceedings No. 19835-6—L. F. 30-98, dated 28th June 1902, the supplemental estimate of Rs. 1,124 proposed under the head is passed.

3. Opening Balance.—In lieu of the approximate estimates provided in the original budgets, the actual balances in favor of the municipalities on 1st July 1902, will be adopted in the present budgets as shown in the margin.

Municipality.	As already sanctioned.	As now revised.
Seringapatam	... 4,000	6,674
Melkote	... 925	774
French Rocks	... 129	388
Maddur	.. 202	365
Malvalli	... 1,830	1,999
Nagamangala	... 732	737
Krishnarajpete	... 270	420
Pallalli	... 611	1,055
Kikkeri	... 487	1,157

EXPENDITURE.

4. III Collection (a) Octroi.—The provision made in the budget of Melkote is on account of commission to the village officials for collecting the duty at 5 per cent, pay of the three temporary peons to be employed at the Vairamudi Jatra for a month and cost of brass seal and forms, the balance being required for certain purposes which the President of the French Rocks Local Fund Board says he has specified in his letter No. 208, dated 9th February 1902, which, however, has not been received in this office from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District. The Deputy Commissioner will be good enough to report as early as possible what has become of the President's proposals. Pending the issue of final orders on the President's reference above quoted, the provision will be allowed to stand. The provisions made in the budgets of Krishnarajpete and Maddur on account of potgi payable towards Mohatarfa collections, are approved.

Melkote (a) Octroi	94
Krishnarajpete (b) Mohatarfa ...	5
Maddur (b) Mohatarfa	40

5. IV Conservancy (b) Other charges.—The President explains that the sum of Rs. 87 entered under this head in the budget of Seringapatam, is on account of the hire of a temporary cart engaged during the plague season in 1899, for which special sanction has been applied for in his No. 252, dated 26th March 1903, received with the Deputy Commissioner's letter No. 1156, dated 14th May 1903. The provision is passed.

6. VIII Public Works.—The provisions made under this head for the completion of incomplete works of previous years sanctioned in Proceedings No. 10632—L. F. 17-02, dated 10th January 1903, are passed.

7. IX Charitable grants.—The supplemental grants provided under this head to meet a third of the cost of contribution towards the repair of dispensary buildings at Seringapatam, Krishnarajpete, Malvalli and Maddur, and the full cost of lanoline paste supplied to the first named Municipality, are sanctioned.

8. XI Miscellaneous (e) Fairs and festivals.—The correct provision that ought to be made on account of expenditure for the Coronation festivities at Maddur is only Rs. 20 as stated in the Deputy Commissioner's No. 975, dated 3rd April 1903, and not Rs. 220 as entered under this head. The necessary corrections will be made in the budget.

9. The additional grant of Rs. 50 proposed for plague preventive measures at Malvalli, is also sanctioned.

10. It is observed that the correct total of income, inclusive of the opening balances of Seringapatam and that of expenditure of French Rocks as per details furnished, come to Rs. 16,274 and 1,228 respectively, and not Rs. 16,294 and 1,238 as erroneously entered in the present budgets. The necessary corrections will be made in this office.

11. The budget estimates of the several Municipalities of the French Rocks Sub-Division except Mandya, as now revised, are sanctioned as shown below; the usual particulars being appended.

RECEIPTS.

2. I. Octroi.—The increased estimates under this head are due in Chikmagalur to the additional revenue expected from the villages of Hiremagalur and Dantarmukhi included within the Municipal limits under Government Proceedings No. 11367-9—L. F. 151-02, dated 5th February 1903, and in Tarikere to the additional articles proposed to be subjected to Octroi duty in President's No. 490, dated 24th February 1903. But the decrease under cloths in Sakrepatna has not been explained nor is the authority for taxing charcoal from which an estimate of Rs. 10 is newly entered under "VIII Metals" in the budget of Tarikere quoted. The omission should be supplied. Pending the issue of orders on the Tarikere Board's proposals for the expansion of Octroi and the early submission of similar proposals for Birur promised by the President, the estimate will stand as submitted.

3. II. Tax on Houses and VII Mohatarfa.—The extension of the Municipal limits of Chikmagalur by the inclusion of the two villages referred to in the foregoing para and the prevalence of plague in Tarikere account for the variations in the estimates under this head in the respective towns. But the cause of decrease under house-tax in Birur has not been explained. Pending information the estimates will be retained.

4. VIII. Rents.—The increased estimate under "Markets" in the budget of Tarikere is due to the collection of rents having been leased out on contract at Rs. 95 per mensem. If the contract amount be Rs. 95 per mensem, the correct amount of estimate that ought to be entered is Rs. 1,140 and not Rs. 1,000 as proposed. The necessary correction will be made and the estimate raised by Rs. 140.

5. X. Miscellaneous.—The budget of Sringeri repeats the estimate of Rs. 10,000 under "(b) Loans" in the present budget the cost of drainage works for which a loan was sanctioned by Government being provided for on the side of expenditure the repetition is said to be due to no reply having been received from the Executive Engineer to the President's reference as to the probable amount, which may be spent before the close of the year on the drainage scheme. Pending information from the Chief Engineer on the point, the estimates proposed will be tentatively retained.

EXPENDITURE.

6. II. Head Office.—The provision for the pay of the English clerk in the office of the President of the Sringeri Municipality is proposed to be raised by Rs. 2 per mensem. As this increase has already been sanctioned in Government Proceedings No. 16616-7—L. F. 159-02, dated 23rd May 1903, the provision will stand.

7. III. Collection.—The provisions made for 2 Kolkars on Rs. 6 each in the budget of Chikmagalur, sanctioned in Proceedings No. 11367-9—L. F. 151-02, dated 5th February 1903, for the villages of Hiremagalur and Dantarmukhi and for a mutsaddi on Rs. 8 per mensem and a kolkar on Rs. 6 per mensem for Tarikere proposed in the President's communication No. 490, dated 24th February 1903, account for the increase under this head. Pending the issue of final orders on the latter reference, the provision will be retained.

8. IV. Conservancy, (a) Establishment.—The present budgets of Chikmagalur, Tarikere and Sringeri include provisions on account of additional hands sanctioned for the former two Municipalities in Proceedings No. 11367-9—L. F. 151-02, dated 5th February 1903, and No. 14258-9—L. F. 20-03, dated 26th March 1903, and for the revised scale of establishment sanctioned for the last in Proceedings No. 12024-5—L. F.—20-02, dated 18th February 1903. The President of the Sringeri Municipality also proposes to reduce the pay of the latrine sweeper from Rs. 15 to 12 per mensem on the ground that the services of sweepers are becoming easily available. If as stated in the President's letter No. 67, dated 19th January 1903, a latrine sweeper on Rs. 8 per mensem was appointed, it should be explained why provision at Rs. 12 per mensem is necessary. Pending information the provisions will stand.

9. VIII Public Works.—The provisions made under this head are passed. According to the instructions contained in Official Memorandum No. 6861-70—157, dated 8th December 1889, the charges under "(a) Supervision establishments" ought not to have been entered in budget Form No. II as has been done at present. The budget statements should in future be prepared in strict accordance with the standing orders.

10. IX. Charitable Grants.—The budgets of Chikmagalur Sakrepatna and Tarikere provide for the marginally noted increases. Increase to the pay of the Surgery cooly at Tarikere was sanctioned in Proceedings No. 12245-7—L. F. 221-93, dated 23rd February 1903. The pay of the compounder of Chikmagalur and the allowance to the midwife are in accordance with the scale sanctioned in Proceedings No. 13250-1—Mis. 1962, dated 8th June 1896, and No. 2273-84—L. F. 55-93, dated 3rd August 1902, and the increased contribution in Tarikere is on account of the construction of a dead-house and conversion of the English School building into a dispensary. All these provisions are allowed to stand. But as it is not explained why the pay of the compounder at Sakrepatna is proposed to be raised from Rs. 8 to 12 per mensem, the provision will stand at Rs. 8 a month.

1. Chikmagalur	...	Compounder from Rs. 10 to 12 per mensem. Allowance to midwife Rs. 3 per mensem.
2. Sakrepatna	...	Compounder Rs. 8 to 12
3. Tarikere	...	Surgery cooly Rs. 6 to 7
4. Do	...	Contribution Rs. 35 to 375

11. XI. Miscellaneous.—A sum of Rs. 120 is provided under this head in the budget of Chikmagalur on account of pension payable to the Sanitary Inspector and others from 1st July 1903, in addition to the usual provision of Rs. 55 under "II Head Office" on account of pensions. It should be stated whether any expenditure is being incurred out of the latter provision, and if so, how much, and who the officials are who are to be retired, and what probable amount is payable towards their pension. Pending information, the provision will be retained, but will be transferred to "II Head Office."

12. The other items call for no remarks and are passed.

13. The budget estimates of receipts and expenditure for 1903-04 are sanctioned as per details given in the accompanying appendices, the aggregate results of which are given below :—

No.	Municipalities	Opening balance on 1st July 1903	Estimated receipts during 1903-04	Total including balance	Estimated expenditure during 1903-04	Estimated closing balance on 30th June 1904
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs	Rs.	Rs.

(9) Letter No. 1165, dated 17th June 1903, from the President of the Municipalities, Kolar District.

No. 334-46—L. F. 100-95, DATED BANGALORE, 23RD JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Government observe that no uniformity of practice exists in regard to the levy of the Municipal house-tax on Government buildings used as private residences at places other than the Cities of Mysore and Bangalore. While the Municipal Boards of Shimoga, Chikmagalur and Hassan systematically levy the Municipal house-tax on the Government buildings occupied by the Head Masters as free quarters, and the Government in the Public Works Department pay such taxes, the Tumkur town Municipal Board levies no such tax under the impression that free quarters are not taxable, and the President of the Kolar town Municipal Board considers that the tax is payable by the occupant under the Chief Commissioner's Order No. 3400—G. 1-35, dated the 6th July 1876. To secure uniformity of practice, Government direct, in modification of the Government Proceedings No. 8844-89—L. F. 100-95, dated the 1st February 1898, that in respect of Government buildings used as private residences wherever they may be situated, the rule laid down in Government Order No. 1933-6—L. F. 100-95, dated 15th May 1903, concerning buildings in Mysore and Bangalore Cities, be made applicable.

2. The Chief Engineer is requested to make arrangements also for the payment of Rs. 5 claimed by the Chitaldrug Municipality, as well as the tax payable on the Government buildings occupied by the Head Masters of the Government High Schools at Tumkur and Kolar, out of the current year's Public Works Department budget.

RECEIPTS.

2. I. Octroi.—The increase under betel-leaves and cloth estimated in the budget of Alur is based on the probable collections of 1902-03, while the other variations under this head are supported by the actuals of 1901-02 and the probable collections of 1902-03.

3. II. House tax and VII. Mohatarfa.—The estimates under these heads are stated to have been based generally on the jamabandi figures of 1901-02. It is not clear whether the estimates under house tax in Alur and shop tax in Saklespur, which vary as noted in the margin, are as a matter of fact based on the jamabandi figures of 1901-02. These figures will be retained but the President will explain separately why there has been so much variation.

	House tax in Alur.	Shop tax in Saklespur.
	Rs.	Rs.
1 Actuals of 1901-02	459	562
2 Probable collection of 1902-03	475	705
Average ..	467	634
3 Estimate for 1903-04 proposed	300	750

4. VIII. Rents.—The decrease under "Markets" in the Hassan Municipality is due to the reduction from four to three in the number of shops kept in the butchers' stall.

5. X. Miscellaneous.—The large decrease in the estimate under "(a) Sale of lands" in Hassan is stated to be due to the demand for building sites having gone down owing to the recrudescence of plague in the town. The item of Rs. 139 entered in the present budget on account of contribution payable towards the repair of the District Fund roads in the town accounts for the new estimate under "(m) Contribution."

6. Opening Balance.—The estimates under this head will be modified as noted below with reference to the actual balance on 1st July 1902 and the sanctioned estimates for 1902-03 :—

Name of Municipality.	Proposed.	Sanctioned.

EXPENDITURE.

7. III. Collection (a) Octroi, and XI. Miscellaneous (c) Cattle-pounds.—The President proposes to raise the pay of the existing mutsaddis on Rs. 10 per mensem in each of the Municipalities of Alur and Hole-Narsipur by Rs. 2 and to employ the mutsaddi at Saklespur solely on the collection work, provision being made for commission to a separate pound-keeper on the ground that the present practice of combining the duties of pound-keeper and Octroi mutsaddi is attended with inconvenience. As changes in the permanent establishments such as those above referred to cannot be made in the annual budgets without the previous sanction of Government as laid down in para 2 of their Proceedings No. 4114 - L. F. 210-92, dated 1st July 1901, the increases proposed will be disallowed and the sanctioned provisions for 1902-03 repeated in the present budgets. It is also proposed to retain permanently the services of the mutsaddi on Rs. 8 per mensem temporarily sanctioned for one year for the Arsikere Municipality and due provision is made therefor in the budget of the town for 1903-04. The item will be retained but before utilising it, the President should submit a separate reference and obtain the orders of Government.

8. III. Collection (b) and (c) House and Mohatarfa taxes.—No provisions are made in the budgets of Hassan, Channarayapatna, Arkalgud, Hole-Narsipur, Grama and Konanur for the collection of these taxes, while those made in the marginally noted budgets are in excess of the sums allowable under the existing orders. Only reduced provisions as noted in the margin are passed.

5 Arsikere ...	940	100	47
6 Sravanabelagola ...	345	50	17
7 Basavapatna ...	476	50	24

9. IV. Conservancy.—The President provides the marginally noted increases and new items in the budgets specified against them and proposes to submit a separate communication in regard to the permanent charges, viz., items I and II. It is observed that without obtaining the previous sanction of Government on such reference, the item referred to should not have been inserted in the annual budgets as pointed out in para 7 supra. As a special case, however, they will be provisionally retained on the understanding that they should not be utilized without obtaining the necessary sanction.

10. VII. Lighting.—The marginally noted lump sum provisions are made in the budgets noted against them on account of the cost of lighting and of the new lamps to be purchased without furnishing details as to the number of existing lamps and the cost of lighting each in the first three Municipalities as well as the number of lamp-posts and lanterns to be purchased in Municipalities Nos. 3 to 11 and the cost of each. The omissions should be supplied. Pending information, the provisions will be retained.

9 Alur ...	...	50
10 Saklespur ...	...	50
11 Belur ...	...	60

11. VIII. Public Works (a) Supervision.—The provision of Rs. 30 made in the budget of Konanur does not correctly represent 10 per cent of the cost of works and will therefore be raised to Rs. 35. It is observed that the budget statements Nos. II and III have not been correctly prepared in accordance with the instructions contained in official Memorandum No. 6861-70—L. 157, dated 8th December 1889 instead of showing the details of charges under this head in Form No. III, they have been erroneously included in statements No. II, which are intended exclusively for the exhibition of details of works. Greater care should be bestowed in the preparation of statements submitted to Government.

VIII. Public Works (b) to (o) Works.—Owing to insufficiency of funds, the provision of Rs. 100 made for "buildings original" in the budget of Arsikere is struck out, a corresponding reduction being made under "Supervision charges."

12. IX. Charitable Grants.—It is proposed to raise the pay of the compounder of the Hassan Dispensary from Rs. 8 to 10 per mensem and to grant malnad allowances to the Compounders attached to the Dispensaries at Alur and Belur at Rs. 2 each per mensem and at Saklespur at Rs. 5 per mensem. The increase to the compounder at Hassan is probably the increment due to him under Government Proceedings No. 13250-1—Mis. 1962, dated 8th June 1896, which will be allowed, but the provision for malnad allowances will be struck out as final orders have not been passed by Government on the general question of malnad allowances to Compounders.

13. XI. Miscellaneous, (c) Cattle-pounds.—For reasons given in para 7 supra, the provision newly made for commission to the pound-keeper at Saklespur will be struck out, and the usual provision for a moiety of the pay of the mutsaddi repeated instead.

14. Miscellaneous—Gardens.—The budget of Saklespur provides for the salaries of two new gardeners proposed to be employed during the current year to look after the Coronation park in the town made over to the Municipality. The provision will be tentatively retained pending the submission of a separate reference and the final orders of Government thereon.

15. The other items call for no remarks and are passed, the budget estimates sanctioned for 1903-04 being as shown below :—

No.	Municipalities	Estimated opening balance on 1st July 1903	Estimated receipts during 1903-04	Total including balance	Estimated expenditure for 1903-04	Estimated closing balance on 30th June 1904

	Total ...	30,614	33,306	63,920	45,557	18,363

From the above it will be observed that notwithstanding the reductions above effected, the balances are less than the prescribed minimum in the Municipalities of Konanur (where there is no balance), Hassan, Harnahalli, Arsikere and Hole-Narsipur. Steps should be taken to maintain the usual working balances in these Municipalities by effecting savings in the sanctioned items unless the actual balances on 1st July 1903 should be found to be in excess of the estimates adopted in the present budgets. In the other Municipalities, the estimated closing balance is in excess of the prescribed minimum. Government trust that this reserve has not been proposed at the sacrifice of efficiency.

2. I Octroi.—The variations in the estimates entered under this head in the Budgets of Tumkur, Maddagiri, Chiknayakanhalli and Gubbi are based on the actual collections of the first six months of the year 1902-03 and proposals for the levy of Octroi in Sira and Tiptur have been sanctioned in Proceedings No. 11935-36—L. F. 73-96, dated 17th February 1903, and 6946-7—L. F. 73-95, dated 6th November 1902, respectively. The estimates proposed will accordingly be retained, but the estimates under sheep and goats in Tumkur will be transferred to "VIII Rents" as per orders contained in Proceedings No. 2369-74—L. F. 15-02, dated 16th August 1902, as the introduction of Octroi on these animals has not been sanctioned for this Municipality. The estimate proposed for the remaining Municipality of Kunigal will be retained pending the issue of final orders on the President's letter No. 538, dated 13th February 1903.

3. III Tax on Houses and VII Mohatarfa.—The increase under house and shop taxes in Sira is stated to be due to new houses and shops having sprung up in the town, the variations in the remaining Municipalities being supported by the jamabandi accounts. The estimate will stand.

4. X Miscellaneous.—The increase under "(a) Sale of lands" and "(d) Pounds" in Tumkur and Kadaba respectively and decrease under the latter sub-head in Gubbi are based upon the actuals of the first six months of the year 1902-03. The estimate proposed for all the Municipalities except Turuvekere, where it will be raised from Rs. 250 to 280, which is the correct total of details, will be allowed to stand.

5. Opening balance.—The estimates proposed under this will be modified as noted in the margin with reference to the actual balance on 1st July 1902 and the sanctioned estimates for 1902-03.

EXPENDITURE.

6. II Head Office.—The provision made for the increase of pay of the overseer and of the clerk of the office of the Vice-President of Tumkur by Rs. 5 and 2 per mensem, respectively, sanctioned in Proceedings No. 13859-60—L. F. 15-03, dated 18th March 1903, is passed.

7. III Collection (a) Octroi.—The Budgets of Kunigal, Tiptur, and Sira provide for the marginally noted establishments and contingencies for the collection of Octroi duties. The provision made in the Budgets of the latter two Municipalities is approved, as it is in accordance with the sanction already accorded by Government and that made in the remaining Municipality retained, pending the issue of final orders on the President's communication referred to in para 2 of this Order.

	Manegar or Mutsaddi	Contingencies	Total
1 Kunigal ...	... 1 at 8 96	1 at 1 12	108
2 Tiptur ...	... 1 at 10 120	1 at 1 12	132
3 Sira ...	... 1 at 10 120	.....	120

8. III Collection (b) House and Mohatarfa taxes.—The correct provisions that have to be made in the Budgets of Tumkur and Gubbi on account of remuneration for the collection of house and mohatarfa taxes are Rs. 133 and 117 respectively and not Rs. 150 and 113 as erroneously entered therein. The necessary corrections will be made and the President requested to state why in these and the Municipalities of Kunigal, Tiptur, Sira and Chiknayakanhalli, where the percentage remuneration exceeds Rs. 96, special establishments may not be entertained for the collection of these taxes instead of entrusting the duty to the village establishment. Meanwhile the estimates will stand.

9. IV Conservancy (a) and (b) Establishments and other charges.—The President proposes to employ newly one mutsaddi on Rs. 8, 2 additional sweepers on Rs. 5 each and a conservancy cart on Rs. 10 per mensem at Gubbi and to increase the pay of the existing 5 sweepers of Sira from 4 to 5 Rs. each per mensem, the establishment of Tiptur being revised as noted in the margin. Explanation should have been furnished as to the necessity for the employment of a cart at Gubbi. The provision will however be retained in the Budget. The other items have been already sanctioned in Proceedings No. 16869-70—L. F. 15-02, dated 27th May 1903, and the provisions made for them are passed. The correct provision that ought to be made in the Budget for 1903-04, of Holavanhalli is Rs. 180 for 3 sweepers and not Rs. 240 for 4 sweepers as erroneously entered therein. The necessary corrections will be made by this office.

	1902-03 Rs.	1903-04 Rs.
Peons ...	2 at 6½=156	1 at 6½= 78
Sweepers	12 at 5 =720	6 at 6 =432
Do ...	...	6 at 5 =360
Total ...	876	870
Net Decrease ...	...	... 6

10. VIII Public Works.—In the Budget statement No. III of Tiptur, the cost of supervision for 1903-04 is not entered, while it is given in statement No. I as Rs. 310. The omission will be supplied and provisions under this head passed, with the observation that greater care should be bestowed in the preparation of the bud get statements so as to avoid such descrepancies in future.

11. IX Charitable grants.—In each of the present Budgets of Tiptur, Chiknayakanhalli and Maddagiri, Rs. 40 are entered on account of dieting charges without making any provision whatever for contingencies. As dieting charges are exclusively debitable to the District Funds and a portion of the cost of contingencies is chargeable to Municipal Funds, the provisions made for the former apparently by mistake will be transferred to the latter sub-head, viz., " Contingencies."

12. Repayment of loan.—A fresh provision of Rs. 100 is made in the Budget statement No. I of Tumkur on account of repayment of loan, whereas the same is omitted in statement No. III. It is not clear as to when, from what funds and under what authority a loan was obtained by the Tumkur Municipality, for which the repayment of Rs. 100 is proposed. Pending explanation the estimate will not be disturbed.

13. The other items call for no remarks.

14. The Budget estimates of receipts and expenditure of the several Municipalities in the District for 1903-04, are sanctioned as shown in the accompanying statement. The usual particulars are appended.

15. From the above it will be observed that the closing balance is less than the prescribed minimum in the Municipalities of Koratagere, Holavanhalli, Maddagiri, Pavagada, Tiptur, Nonavinkere, Turuvekere and Huliyar. Steps should be taken to maintain the working balance by effecting savings in the sanctioned allotments, if the actual balances in favor of the Municipalities on 1st July 1903, are not in excess of the estimates adopted in these Budgets.

The Demand, Collection and Balance statements for the several Municipalities in the State for the quarter ending 31st December 1902.

No. 489-498—L. F. 44-1901, DATED BANGALORE, 30TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The following statement exhibits the Demand, Collection and Balance under the head Municipal Revenue for the quarter ending 31st December 1902 :—

No.	Municipalities	Number of Municipalities	Balance on 1st October 1902	Demand for the quarter	Total including balance	Collection during the quarter	Balance at the end of December 1902	Percentage of balance to total demand for the quarter
			Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1	Bangalore City ...	1	1,05,204	27,674	1,32,878	43,159	89,719	67·52
2	Bangalore District ...	16	1,401	2,566	3,967	2,700	1,267	31·94
3	Kolar do ...	11	7,637	6,102	13,739	7,667	6,072	44·20
4	Tumkur do ...	18	1,811	2,706	4,517	2,703	1,815	40·18
5	Mysore City ...	1	45,729	28,345	74,074	32,125	41,949	56·63
6	Mysore District ...	25	23,921	3,918	27,839	6,453	21,386	76·82
7	Hassan do ...	14	5,169	3,120	8,289	4,493	3,796	45·80
8	Shimoga do ...	14	5,794	3,335	9,129	4,049	5,080	55·65
9	Kadur do ...	9	8,848	3,971	13,819	5,497	8,322	60·22
10	Chitaldrug do ...	15	238	5,049	5,287	5,112	175	3·31
	Total ...	124	2,06,752	86,786	2,93,538	1,13,957	1,79,581	61·18

2. From the above it appears that the total demand including the uncollected arrears of previous quarters was Rs. 2,93,538, of which Rs. 1,13,957 was collected, leaving a balance of Rs. 1,79,581 to be collected at the end of the quarter.

3. The percentage of outstandings to the total demand at the end of December 1902, in the Municipalities of the several districts and the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore, is as given below and is contrasted with that at the end of September 1902:—

No.	Municipalities	Percentage at the end of— September 1902	December 1902
1	Bangalore City	66·2	67·52
2	Bangalore District	23·2	31·94
3	Kolar do	46·4	44·20
4	Tumkur do	27·5	40·18
5	Mysore City	51·3	56·63
6	Mysore District	70·9	76·82
7	Hassan do	43·2	45·80
8	Shimoga do	45·5	55·65
9	Kadur do	62·9	60·22
10	Chitaldrug do	4·6	3·31
	Total ...	67·4	61·18

4. From the above it is evident that the percentage of outstandings at the end of December 1902 is more than that at the end of September 1902 in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore and in the Municipalities of the Bangalore, Tumkur, Mysore, Hassan and Shimoga Districts. The attention of the Presidents is invited to Government Proceedings No. 17-28—L. F. 44-01, dated 1st July 1903 and previous orders and they are requested to take very early steps for the speedy collection of all recoverable arrears and to submit statements of irrecoverable items for the orders of Government with an explanation for the increase in the percentage of arrears during the quarter under review.

5. It is observed that the proportion of arrears to demand is excessively high, being more than half in the Municipalities of the Bangalore and Mysore Cities and in those of the Mysore, Shimoga and Kadur Districts. The very early submission by the Presidents of the Municipalities of the report called for in para 2 of Government Proceedings No. 17-28—L. F. 44-01, dated 1st July 1903, in regard to the action taken to reduce the large outstanding arrears, is awaited.

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA,
Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

To—The Presidents of the Municipalities in the State.

REVENUE

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

The returns of Ten-day Land Revenue Collections received from the Comptroller, Mysore Government, from 1st July 1902 to 30th June 1903.

No. R. 256-65, DATED BANGALORE, 22ND JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The accompanying statement compiled at the General and Revenue Secretariat from the returns received from the Comptroller, shows that the Land Revenue collections amounted to Rs. 1,00,58,154-2-1 at the close of the year 1902-03 against Rs. 97,77,383-14-8 during the previous year, the result being a net increase of Rs. 2,80,770-3-5 for the whole State, notwithstanding the falling off of Rs. 20,479-9-10 and Rs. 24,418-9-2 in the Tumkur and Mysore Districts, respectively.

The decrease in the following Taluks is more than Rs. 5,000:—

District.	Taluk.	Amount of decrease.
		Rs.
Tumkur	Tumkur	13,000
	Chiknayakanhalli	13,097
Shimoga	Sagar	12,762
Kadur	Mudgere	6,153
Chitaldrug	Holalkere	40,847
	Hiriyur	10,006
Mysore	Mysore	5,051
	Nanjangud	9,062
	T. Narsipur	13,808
	Krishnarajpete	6,188

The decrease in the Holalkere and Chiknayakanhalli Taluks was chiefly due to the formation of the new Hosdurga Taluk. As regards the other taluks, the Deputy Commissioners concerned are requested to explain at an early date the cause of the falling off in collections.

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA,
Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

To—The Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.
The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.
The Comptroller, Mysore Government.

Progress Report of the Mysore Revenue Survey Department for the year ending 31st October 1902, received with letter No. 116, dated 13th February 1903, from the Superintendent of Mysore Revenue Survey.

No. R. 102-3, DATED BANGALORE, 9TH JULY 1903.

REVIEW THEREON—(Para 9 of the Report).—The attention of the District authorities will be invited to the remarks of the Superintendent of Survey in the last part of para 9 and the necessity for greater attention being paid to boundary marks impressed on them.

2. (Para 12 of the Report).—The loss of working days which was 9·72 per cent against 2·58 of the previous year, owing to non-co-operation of villagers, can only be accounted for by the fact of the Amildars not commanding the same influence with the raiyats as they used to do in former days. The Revenue Commissioner's attention will be invited to this fact.

3. (Para 15 of the Report).—The work of the measurers lent to the Revenue Department has formed the subject of another reference.

4. (Para 16 of the Report).—Government regret to observe that the Superintendent of Survey does not speak favorably of the test-work turned out by the establishment under Mr. K. Ramaswamiengar.

5. (Para 20 of the Report).—It is satisfactory to note that the test applied has shown the original classification to have been so correct.

6. (Para 29 of the Report).—It is gratifying to see the appreciative terms in which the Superintendent of Survey speaks of the "excellent work" done by Mr. Appu Rao, who has since retired.

Government also note with satisfaction the good work done by Mr. Mahadeva Rao, Amildar of Holalkere.

7. (Para 34 of the Report).—It is not creditable to the superior Revenue Officers that the Superintendent of Survey should have to make the following remark regarding their test of boundary marks:—

"In none of the villages which I tested had the superior Revenue Officers taken any test of boundary marks." He also comments unfavorably on the test made by the shekdars. The Revenue Commissioner's attention will be invited to the remarks of the Superintendent of Survey in regard to the condition of the boundary marks in the Shimoga Taluk. Government think that both in regard to boundary marks and general revenue administration, this taluk requires looking after.

8. (Para 35 of the Report).—Government are constrained to note that it is nothing short of a discredit to the Revenue Department that the Superintendent should have to say that Village Form No. I, the foundation of all land revenue accounts should have been "indifferently maintained" in the 52 villages situated in 11 taluks of five different districts, the accounts of which were examined by him. The remarks of the Superintendent in para 35 will be brought to the notice of the Revenue Commissioner with a view to suitable instructions being issued by him.

9. (Para 38 of the Report).—The Superintendent notes, in regard to the records of the taluks noted in para 38, that they were fairly well kept "although there was some want of uniformity in arranging and indexing."

10. The thanks of Government are due to Col. Grant for the zeal with which he has been maintaining the efficiency of this important Department.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ AGAIN—

Government Order No. 3420-1—Ed. 87, dated 9th September 1902.

READ—Correspondence ending with letter No. 4003—134, dated 1st November 1901, from the Inspector General of Education in Mysore.

ORDER THEREON.—The correspondence read above relates to the procedure to be followed in regard to the investing and keeping of accounts of funds received by the Inspector General of Education, as endowments for scholarships, prizes, etc. The procedure laid down for adoption in Government Order No. 12611-13—Ed. 452, dated 26th March 1901, in respect of such funds, is that the several amounts received by the Inspector General on account of different endowments, should form a single fund for the purpose of investment which should be in the Government of India Securities in the name of the Comptroller, and that the accounts of the different funds should be separately maintained in the office of the Inspector General of Education, with whom rests the power to administer such funds. The Inspector General in his letter cited above, represents that there are practical difficulties in adopting this procedure and requests that it may be modified so that each fund may be dealt with separately so as to allow of the amount being either invested in the Government of India Securities or deposited in the Government Savings Bank, as the case may be. It is also suggested that separate accounts of the several funds may be kept in the Comptroller's office.

(2) The procedure laid down in Government Order No. 12611-13—Ed. 452, dated 26th March 1901, is in accordance with the Codal rules, and there is no need for modifying it in the manner suggested by the Inspector General. The inconvenience referred to by him can be removed by opening a proper ledger in his office and by distributing the profits from the investment proportionately among the several funds.

(2) Letter No. 4506—148 of 18th November 1902, from the Inspector General of Education in Mysore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

1. With reference to Order No. 3420-1—Ed. 87, dated 9th September 1902, I have the honor to inform you that the difficulties I pointed out in my letter No. 4003—134 of 1st November 1901, regarding the formation of a single fund for all Educational benefactions for the purposes of investment, are not removed by the above Order. I have discussed the question with the Assistant Comptroller and he agrees with me in thinking that if a single fund be formed for all endowments, it will be impossible to apportion the interest between the several benefactions, even though a proper ledger may be opened in my office with a separate account for each benefaction. Every endowment must be partly funded in Government securities and partly deposited in the Savings Bank. The amount in the Savings Bank is the one from which periodical payments have to be made. These periodical payments are not the same always, and therefore the amount in deposit in the Savings Bank will vary from time to time. If the amount of each endowment is invested separately, there will be no difficulty in crediting the interest accruing from the funded portion and the sum in the Savings Bank to it with accuracy. But if all endowments are clubbed together and invested in Government paper and the balance of less than Rs. 500 deposited in the Savings Bank, it will be impossible to apportion the interest between the various endowments, as the amount to the credit of each endowment will vary from month to month according to the expenditure.

2. The practice of the Universities in keeping the accounts of benefactions, is as I have stated above. For instance, at page 8 of the last Report of the Madras University Syndicate, the amounts to the credit of each endowment are shown partly as funded capital and partly as cash balance. I take the following five items from the tabular statement given in the Syndicate's Report as specimens:—

Name of Endowment.	Funded Capital.	Cash balance.
	Rs.	Rs.	a.	p.
Travancore Scholarship	15,100	309	5	11
Governor's Scholarship	9,100	178	7	3
Madhava Rao's Prizes	2,600	92	15	2
Cochin Scholarship	13,700	562	11	7
Sri Goday Vari Prizes	1,000	39	9	1
Total ...	41,500	1,183	1	0

Now, if the procedure laid down in the Order quoted above is followed, the funded capital would be Rs. 42,500 instead of Rs. 41,500 and the cash balance would be reduced to less than Rs. 200, which may or may not suffice for current expenditure. If the latter balance is deposited in the Savings Bank, it would be impossible to distribute the interest accruing from the deposit between the five endowments with perfect accuracy, as the balance to the credit of each fund would vary from month to month.

3. It will thus be seen that a part of each endowment should be funded and the balance kept in the Savings Bank. It is then only that the account of each endowment can be accurately kept whether by the Comptroller or by the Inspector General.

4. Unless the account of each endowment is kept as stated in para 3 by the Comptroller himself, he would not be able to audit the bills and accounts of each endowment.

5. The Comptroller in his letter No. 4561, dated 26th February 1901, to the General Secretary, says that "if the number of fresh accounts proposed be not large, this office (i. e., the Comptroller's) may undertake to deal with them." The number of fresh accounts is not likely to be large at any time, and it is best that the accounts should be kept by the Comptroller, he furnishing the Inspector General with a half-yearly statement of the account of each endowment separately.

6. In the concluding para of the Order quoted above "Codal rules" are referred to. I have not been able to find where they are. On the contrary, Section 8 (2) of the Charitable Endowments Act No. II of 1890 clearly states that the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments "shall keep a separate account of each property, etc."

7. I request that under the above circumstances, Government will be good enough to sanction the continuance of the present practice of keeping a separate account in the Comptroller's office of each educational endowment, a part of which will be funded and the balance kept as cash deposit in the Savings Bank. As the subject has been under correspondence since January 1901, I shall be glad if Government will be good enough to pass final orders granting the sanction at their earliest convenience.

(3) Letter No. 6777 of 26th May 1903, from the Comptroller, Mysore Government, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

1. In reply to your office docket No. 9469—Edn. No. 231, forwarding for my opinion letter No. 4506-148 of 18th November 1902, from the Inspector General of Education, I have the honor to report that the proposals made by me in my letter No. 6570 of 21st May 1901—8th June 1901, have not been correctly understood by the Inspector General of Education.

2. The objection to the present practice, which the Inspector General wants to be followed, relates only to the accounts that have to be maintained of the periodical operations on the endowed funds, not to the accounts of the investments made out of each individual endowment.

3. As Treasurer of these funds, the Comptroller will have custody of the Government Securities purchased on account of each endowment, will buy or sell such Securities under proper authority, will draw interest as it falls due, and pay it to the administrator of the Funds.

4. For each endowment and trust, a separate account will be maintained by this office as heretofore and the investment and interest transactions will be duly posted in Forms 192 and 193, Civil Account Code, Vol. II, and a statement of accounts will be sent once a year in the month of December to the administrators of the funds concerned.

In the general books of this office, however, these endowments and investments therefrom will be shown in lump and without details of the endowments.

5. All that the Inspector General of Education is called upon to do is to open in the Savings Bank in his own name an account for each endowment to which he should have the amounts of interest advised by the Comptroller, realised and credited and on which he should operate for his current requirements, thus relieving the Comptroller of all responsibility in regard to these cash transactions.

6. There is no objection against the Inspector General opening an independent account in the Savings Bank for the amounts of interest realised on the investment of each endowment, which he can do at Treasuries most convenient for him for operating thereon, at the same time maintaining in his own office a cash account for these transactions and a ledger for each endowment in which all monies received from the Comptroller, on account of interest realized, the proceeds of any Government Pro-Notes sold under proper authority etc., as well as the withdrawals from and the interest on Savings Bank deposits as advised by the Treasuries, and any other receipts should be credited and all moneys remitted into the Savings Bank and moneys withdrawn and disbursed on account of the charities should be debited. The balance of the Cash account will be the total of the balance of all the individual endowments on the ledger maintained by him.

7. I now beg to summarize the proposals:—

(1) On the general books of this office there shall be opened an account for each class of endowments and trusts such as the Educational, the Muzrai, the Palace, etc.

(2) The investments made on these accounts will not appear in the general account, but an independent account for each class and for each individual endowment or trust in that class will be maintained in this office as prescribed in the Civil Account Code.

(3) As interest is realized, the administrators of the endowments and trusts will be supplied with orders on the Treasuries to pay them the amounts of interest realized on each endowment or trust.

(4) The administrators should draw the amounts and dispose of them according to the requirements and terms of the endowments and trusts concerned, maintaining an account of these transactions, and a ledger for each endowment and trust under their charge.

The enclosure is herewith returned.

No. Fl. 190-230, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The procedure suggested by the Comptroller will, in future, be adopted in respect of all endowments generally, and the following directions will be followed :—

On the general books of the office of the Comptroller, Mysore Government, an account will be opened for each class of endowments and trusts, such as, the Educational, the Muzrai, the Palace, etc.

2. The investments made on these accounts will not appear in the general account, but an independent account for each class and for each individual endowment or trust in that class will be maintained in the office of the Comptroller as prescribed in the Civil Account Code.

3. As interest is realized, the administrators of the endowments and trusts will be supplied with orders on the Treasuries to pay them the amounts of interest realized on each endowment or trust.

4. The administrators should draw the amounts and dispose of them according to the requirements and terms of the endowments and trusts concerned, maintaining an account of these transactions and a ledger for each endowment and trust under their charge.

Letter No. 7540—165, dated 30th June 1903, from the Comptroller, Mysore Government.

No. Fl. 287—326, DATED BANGALORE, 31ST JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—With the letter read above, the Comptroller forwards a re-appropriation statement received from the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga District, without adding any report, as the official year 1902-03 is closed.

2. To obviate such difficulties in future, the Comptroller suggests that all Heads of Departments and Deputy Commissioners of Districts may be instructed to apply for necessary additional grants before the 1st May, that if any additional grants are required after that date from any unforeseen causes, applications therefor may be made direct to Government and sanctioned without any previous reference to his office out of the lapses and savings surrendered and placed at the disposal of Government in accordance with rule 30, Part I, Chapter II of the Financial Rules, and that it will be sufficient if such resignations and appropriations therefrom be intimated to him.

3. As no re-appropriation is now possible, the statement will be returned to the Comptroller, for noting the actual excess expenditure in the appropriation Report for the year.

4. The suggestions made by the Comptroller as regards additional grants, are approved and will be adopted in future.

EXCISE

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

READ—

(1) Letter No. 3895—168, dated 20—26th of December 1902, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, reporting on the claim of the Inamdars (Yejamans) of Mallenahalli village, otherwise called Subramanyapura, Goribidnur Taluk, Kolar District, to the toddy revenue of that village.

(2) Letter No. 5737—367, dated 18—20th March 1903, from the same Officer on the same subject.

No. 17-18—Ex. F. 10-01, DATED BANGALORE, 15TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—In the Sannad alienating the village in 1801 no specific mention of toddy is made. The Inam Department has, however, recognised the Inamdars' title to the toddy revenue of the village on the grounds that it was included as one of the items of revenue enjoyed by the Inamdars and was excluded from the Sirkar farm, the Inamdars enjoyed it unmolested for a long period, and that it was distinctly mentioned in the Panchbab accounts of the village. It is reported that the village has both a shop and a date grove.

2. The Sub-Division Officer of Chikballapur, Mr. Syed Amir Hassan, who investigated the claim, and the Excise Commissioner are satisfied that the claim is fully established. Government concur with them and are pleased to decide that the Yejamans are entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy under the different systems from 1892-93 subject to Rules 2, 5, 9 and 10 of the rules issued with Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

This decision will be communicated to the Inamdars.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 84, dated 4th June 1903, from the Superintendent of Inam Settlements in Mysore, regarding the Inamdars' claim to the toddy revenue of the Madavanakodi Sarvamanyam village, Krishnarajpete Taluk, Mysore District.

No. 19-20—Ex. F. 12-01, DATED BANGALORE, 15TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The village in question contains only a toddy shop but no grove. The Inamdars' claim to its revenue is supported by the sannad as well as long enjoyment, and the Inam Settlement is not unfavorable to the Inamdars. The claim is therefore allowed, subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 12 contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

The amount payable to the Inamdars for past years, the amount advanced, and that still due should be ascertained and reported.

Letter No. 4198—185, dated 20th January 1903, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, reporting on the claim to the toddy revenue of Jodi Gottikere village, Kunigal Taluk, Tumkur District.

No. 44-5—Ex. F. 11-01, DATED BANGALORE, 22ND JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON —The sannad of the village referred to above, conceded toddy revenue to the Jodidars. When the Inam was settled in 1871, it was directed that the vending and preparing of toddy should be reserved, and on this account a reduction of Rs. 110-8-9 was made by way of compensation in the amount of Jodi payable by the Inamdars. The Assistant Commissioner, Mr. Paramasiva Iyer, who held the enquiry into the claim, did not correctly understand the case and was of opinion that the above reservation related only to the shop rent and that the Jodidars were therefore entitled to the grove rent or tree tax. The Deputy Commissioner offered no opinion on this. But the Excise Commissioner is of opinion that the Inam Settlement reserved both the items of toddy revenue, i. e, shop rent as well as the grove rent or tree tax. Concurring with the last named officer, Government direct that the Jodidars of the village in question are entitled to only ⅕th of the grove rent from 1892-93 to 1896-97 under Rule 4 of the rules issued with Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901, and to nothing but tree rent from the succeeding year, which they are reported to be collecting from the lessees themselves. The amount thus payable to the Jodidars as per statistics given by the Excise Commissioner comes to Rs. 48, while a much larger sum, viz., Rs. 230, has been already advanced to them. Steps should at once be taken to recover the amount advanced in excess of what was actually due to the Inamdars.

READ—

The following letter No. 4205—186, dated 19th—22nd January 1903, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore:—

I have the honor to submit herewith the records of enquiry of both Mr. B. K. Venkatavaradaiengar and Mr. T. Paramasiva Iyer regarding the toddy revenue of Nittur, Chutturbagh in the Kunigal Taluk.

The Excise revenue from toddy has not been conceded to the inamdars at the inam Settlement. It is recorded in the original Settlement Register as follows :—

'Under the circumstances of the case, the inamdar can draw revenue from his date or palm trees by leasing them to the Government Abkari contractor or by drawing toddy for the manufacture of jaggery and not by selling it as liquor without license.'

The accompanying extract from the Quit-rent Register received from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, shows that Excise revenue from toddy has not been conceded. The original sannad granted by Purnaiya, marked A in Mr. Paramasiva Iyer's record, simply states that all the date trees standing in the Agrahar of Nittur Chutturbagh, have been given away free to the Brahmins. The Exhibits B, D and E in the said record show that the date trees alone were leased by the Brahmins to the Government toddy contractors, only Exhibit C indicating that the toddy was leased to the contractor. Under such circumstances, I concur in the opinion of Mr. B. G. Krishniengar, late Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, that the inamdars are not entitled to Excise revenue from toddy. Accordingly they are entitled only to 1/5 of the rent of the "Grove Farm" from the year 1892-93 to the year 1896-97, as per Rule 4 in Government Proceedings No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901. For subsequent years they themselves have been allowed to lease their trees.

Memo of decision passed by Mr. Paramasiva Iyer.

The Inam Commissioner has not recognised the claims of the jodidars, but Mr. Venkatavaradaiengar has enquired into and decided this case in their favor. The inamdars are entitled to shendi revenue, both by enjoyment and Dewan Purnaiya's order, but as the shop was closed over 35 years ago, their case has to be treated under Rule 13, and even this with a modification. As its name implies, Nittur Chutturbagh is only a fourth of the entire village, and the annual compensation for the tree-tax will be calculated on one-fourth of the population, which is 715. From 1892-93 to 1896-97 they are entitled to Rs. 36-5-11 after deducting cost of establishment and the amount of Rs. 44 already advanced to them.

They are entitled to nothing for 1897-98; and from 1898-99, they will get on the basis of a population of 178 to Rs. 49-3-5 a year, taking both shop-rent and tree-tax into consideration.

Opinion of Mr. B. G. Krishnaiengar, Deputy Commissioner.

It is clear from Dewan Purnaiya's order that the shendi trees but not Excise revenue were made over to the inamdars. Before Survey Settlement all shendi trees standing upon private lands belonged to Government. As the sannad in this case did not include Excise revenue, it might have been taken at the time that the trees belonged also to Government. To prevent constant interference on the part of Excise officers, the trees may have been given over to inamdars, which they rented out; but from this it does not follow that they are entitled to Excise revenue.

The Inam Commissioner may have disallowed the claim or at least did not consider it under the circumstances. In my opinion the inamdar is not entitled to Excise revenue in this case.

No. 46-7—Ex. F. 11-01, DATED BANGALORE, 22ND JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—In support of their claim the inamdars have produced Dewan Purnaiya's Nirup of the year Promodhuta (1810-11) and some muchalikas executed in their favor by the old toddy contractors. In the former it is mentioned that the "Shendi trees" have been given away free to inamdars. The Assistant Commissioner who inquired into the matter held that the claim to the Excise revenue from toddy was established. But the Deputy Commissioner and the Excise Commissioner are of opinion that only the "Shendi trees" and not the "Excise revenue" was made over to the inamdars by the Nirup referred to above. Nor has the Inam Department recognised the right. Government are therefore of opinion that the inamdars of the village in question are not entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy. They will be given 1/5 of the grove farm rent from the year 1892-93 to 1896-97 under Rule 4 of the rules contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

No. 50-1—Ex. F. 13-01, DATED BANGALORE, 23RD JULY 1903.

Letter No. 4634—267, dated 7—13th February 1903, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the record of enquiry relating to the Inamdar's claim to the toddy revenue of the Sarvamanyam village of Ganaganur, Chamrajnagar Taluk, Mysore District.

No. 57-8—Ex. F. 12-01, DATED BANGALORE, 28TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The village has both a toddy shop and a date grove. The Inamdar's claim, which is supported by the Sannad, the Inam title-deed and long enjoyment, is allowed subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

2. It is regretted that the investigating officer (Mr. C. Venkat Rao) took no pains to ascertain and enter in the calendar the amount due to the Inamdar, though data were available in the record to the end of 1896-97. A refund bill on account of the amount due to the Inamdar, showing all the details required, should be submitted to Government for sanction.

No. 59-60—Ex. F. 12-01, DATED BANGALORE, 28TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The village has both a toddy shop and a date grove. The Inamdar's claim to the Excise revenue from toddy, which is supported by the Sannad and by the terms of the Inam Settlement, is recognised subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901. In this case enjoyment of the revenue by the Inamdar for 12 years prior to 1892-93, is presumed.

2. A refund bill for the amount due to the Inamdar for past years, giving all particulars required, should be submitted to Government for sanction.

No. 63-4—Ex. F. 13-01, DATED BANGALORE, 28TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The village has no toddy shop but has some trees. The claim was investigated in 1894 by Mr. Sparkes, the Deputy Commissioner, who found upon the evidence then before him that the Inamdars were not entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy. When a fresh enquiry was held under the Government Order of the 2nd August 1901, the Inamdars failed to appear and prove their claim, though notice was duly served on them; nor are they entitled to this item of revenue, either under the Sannad or under the terms of the Inam Settlement. Government therefore hold that the Inamdars' right in this case is admissible only to tree-rent.

2. No money is reported to be payable to the Inamdars, as their trees were not leased out by Government.

No. 65-6—Ex. F. 11-01, DATED BANGALORE, 28TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The village contains only a toddy grove but no shop. The Sannad does not concede toddy revenue to the Inamdars, nor has the claim been allowed at the Inam Settlement. The Government are therefore of opinion that the Inamdars are not entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy.

The sum of Rs. 104-2-5 said to have been paid to the Inamdars in excess of what was due to them till the end of the year 1896-97, should be recovered and the fact reported to Government.

No. 68-77—Ex. F. 12-01, DATED BANGALORE, 29TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Of the two villages of Volagere and Kanipura referred to above, the former contains both a toddy shop and a grove, while the latter contains only a grove. The Inamdars' claim to the Excise revenue from toddy, which is supported by the terms of the Sannad and the Inam Settlement and by long enjoyment, is allowed subject to Rules 2, 5, 9, 10, 11 and 14 contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

2. It has to be observed that many investigating officers rely solely on the statement of the claimants for material facts such as the existence of groves or shops in the villages, and to the extent of actual tapping. Though perhaps such statements are likely to be accurate enough in most cases, it seems desirable that such further evidence as may be procurable (such as the statements of Excise or village officials) should be recorded.

No. 82-3—Ex. F. 13-01, DATED BANGALORE, 29TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON—The village has only a few Bagani trees but no toddy shop. The Inamdars' claim to the excise revenue from toddy was enquired into by the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. H. H. Referred Case No. 5 of 1901-02.

Facts of the case.

Channabasaiya, khatedar of Survey No. 33 * of Rangenahalli village, Magadi Taluk, paid into the Nelamangala Taluk Treasury on 18th February 1901 Rs. 5-5-0 being the full amount of land revenue instalments with local cess for February and March 1901. Notice of this payment not having been given to the Magadi Amildar, either by the khatedar or the Nelamangala Amildar, the Magadi Amildar issued on 21st February 1901, a demand notice for Rs. 10-14-0 † and sent it for service on the khatedar through the Nelamangala Amildar. Channabasaiya, on whom the demand notice was served on 7th March 1901, returned it with the remark that he had already paid the February and March instalments into the Nelamangala Taluk Treasury. The Nelamangala Amildar in re-transmitting the notice admitted the truth of the khatedar's allegation and stated that a cheque for the amount would be sent to Magadi by the District Treasury.

2. The Magadi Amildar (Abdul Jaleel), however, considered that five annas was still due from the khatedar on account of local cess (which was leviable in full with the first khist) and declared the land to be forfeited on 4th April 1901. In the declaration of forfeiture, the land revenue arrear is given as Rs. 5-5-0 and "other costs" as Rs. 1-4-0. In the sale which took place on 10th May 1901, the land was knocked down to Kalabyregowda for Rs. 10 and the Assistant Commissioner (Mr. D. M. Narasinga Rao), confirmed the sale on 25th June 1901.

3. On 18th July 1901, Chennabasaiya represented to the Deputy Commissioner that he had paidin to the Nelamangala Taluk Treasury, the April and May instalments on 3rd May 1901, and prayed that the sale might be cancelled. The Deputy Commissioner in submitting the case for the orders of Government reports that the khatedar's land was brought to sale, as the Magadi Amildar was not advised in time of the payment of the arrear on 3rd May 1901, and recommends that the sale may be cancelled.

Decision.

1. Under the circumstances brought to notice in the Deputy Commissioner's letter the Government cancel the sale. The procedure adopted of forfeiting and selling the land for a trifling arrear of five annas was harsh and calculated to bring the rules into discredit.

2. Under Sections 210 and 215 of the Land Revenue Code, the Deputy Commissioner was competent to cancel the sale and the Government do not understand the object of this reference.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Appeal case No. 83 of 1902-03.

Appellant.—Sidda of Bettanahalli, Kadur Taluk.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District, cancelling the sale to the appellant of Survey No. 49 of Bettanahalli, Kadur Taluk, on the ground that the sale was not conducted in accordance with Rules 26 and 98 of the Land Revenue Rules.

Facts of the case.

On the application of one Narasimmiengar to the Excise Supervisor in July 1901, the latter inspected the Lands Survey No. 49 and three other numbers of Bettanahalli village and submitted a report to the Deputy Excise Commissioner recommending the grant of the said lands for cultivation after levying the value of the date trees standing thereon, as they were never used for drawing toddy. The Deputy Excise Commissioner forwarded the report to the Amildar with the remark that the lands might be given out for cultivation. The date trees, etc., standing on the lands were accordingly valued by the panchayatdars and the lands were sold by auction by the hobli shekdar on the 15th and 16th April 1902. The land in question, Survey No. 49, containing a large number of date and other trees valued at Rs. 206-2-0 was knocked down at the sale to the appellant for Rs. 260. On 20th April 1902, the raiyats of Kankatte, Arsikere Taluk, complained of the low bid obtained at the sale of the land in question. The Deputy Commissioner cancelled the sale of Survey No. 49 on the ground that it had been held by the shekdar, instead of by the Amildar, the land having been valued at more than Rs. 100.

Decision.

The Government do not see reason for setting aside the order of the Deputy Commissioner, cancelling the sale on darkhast of Survey No. 49, and this appeal is rejected accordingly. It is noticed that on an application made by the darkhastdar to the Excise Supervisor, he has inspected the land and submitted his report to the Deputy Excise Commissioner, who gave his opinion in favor of the grant and communicated this to the Amildar. It is not desirable to encourage this practice of Excise subordinates receiving and dealing with applications direct from darkhastdars.

Appeal No. 87 of 1902-03.

Appellant	Respondents
V. P. Iyaloo Naidu, Baiyannanapalya, Bangalore Taluk.	1. Madappa, 2. Khasim Sabi.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, confirming the sale of Survey Nos. 12, 13 and 7 of Tippasandra, Bangalore Taluk, for recovery of a loan advanced for sinking an irrigation well.

The facts of the case are clear from the following :—

Decision.

1. This is an appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore, confirming the sale of lands Survey Nos. 13, 12 and 7 situated in the village of Tippasandra, Bangalore Taluk. The arrears for which the lands above specified were sold, were a loan of Rs. 200 advanced to the khatedar (appellant) for the construction of an irrigation well on Survey No. 13—11 acres and 3 guntas in extent, of which 10 acres and 6 guntas were dry and 37 guntas wet.

2. The loan was applied for under the Irrigation Well Rules of 21st July 1891, under which the well and the area irrigable are made liable for the recovery of the loan when a loan order is finally issued after a well has been constructed. In the present case, the area irrigable in No. 13 has been mentioned as 5 acres out of a total extent of 11 acres and 3 guntas. Only this extent could have been forfeited and sold for arrears of loan after a loan order had been issued. Government fear that there is a misapprehension of the provisions of the Rules and there is a tendency to forfeit and sell whole survey numbers in such cases. In the present case, however, no loan order had been issued and the proceedings now before Government are for recovery of the advance owing to failure of the appellant to construct the well under Rule 16. In such cases the advance has to be recovered as arrears of revenue from the applicant. There is no mention of the land on which the well is constructed being made liable for the arrears as in the case of a loan order as provided in Rules 8 and 9. The land, therefore, on which the well was proposed to be constructed, cannot be forfeited and sold. Much less, therefore, the other lands standing in the name of the appellant. The meaning of the term 'forfeiture' and the consequences following from a declaration of forfeiture do not seem to be clearly understood by the subordinate authorities.

In the present case, only the right, title and interest of the defaulter (appellant) in the three survey numbers in question could have been attached and sold. The proceedings of the Deputy Commissioner are set aside as illegal and fresh proceedings are ordered in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable to the subject.

Subject.

Letter No. 337, dated 23rd October 1902, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, requesting the orders of Government to evict Hutcha from a portion of Survey No. 59, Gotakahalli village, Nanjangud Taluk.

Facts of the case.

On 10th October 1898, Patel Javaregauda of the said village applied for the sub-division and grant of 3 acres of land out of Survey No. 59, Kharab, measuring 149 acres and 3 guntas, for cultivation from the year Vilambi (1898-99). After ascertaining that there were no trees etc., on the land and that the villagers had no objection to its grant for cultivation, the Amildar, Mr. D. Subba Rao, submitted on 30th June 1899 the darkhast proceedings to the Sub-Division Officer, French Rocks, with his recommendation that the portion applied for might be granted by means of sale. After a lengthy correspondence regarding the particular portion of the field (Survey No. 59) that had to be given out for cultivation, the Sub-Division Officer, Mr. N. Venkata Rao, on 20th November 1899, ordered the sale of the land by public auction after assessing it at the "Hamsaya" rate.

2. Accordingly 6 acres of land assessed at Rs. 6 out of Survey No. 59, were notified for sale on 4th December 1899, and in the sale held by the shekdar on 25th December 1899, the land was knocked down to the darkhastdar Javaregauda for Rs. 1-12-0 and the sale amount was paid on the same date. The shekdar having explained the low bid as being due to combination among the villagers and to the absence of likely bidders, the Amildar Mr. D. Subba Rao, on his own responsibility, ordered a re-sale on 1st January 1900, and in the sale held by the shekdar on 25th January 1900, the land was again purchased by the darkhastdar for Rs. 1-12-0. On receipt of a petition, dated 4th February 1900, from one Hutchegauda who had signed the sale proclamation of the 2nd sale stating that he was absent at the time of sale and offering Rs. 4 for the land provided it was re-sold, the Amildar, Mr. D. Subba Rao, on 7th February 1900, ordered a 3rd sale, which was held by the shekdar on 4th March 1900 and in which the land was knocked down to Arsikempegauda for Rs. 6-4-0, the amount being duly paid and remitted to Treasury. Hutchegauda having again presented a petition, dated 16th March 1900, stating that he was absent at the time of sale and that he would purchase the land for Rs. 7 if it was re-sold, the Amildar, Mr. D. Subba Rao, on his own responsibility, ordered, on 29th March 1900, a 4th sale, which was first posted to 25th May 1900 and subsequently adjourned to 29th June 1900, as the former sale notice could not be served on Hutchegauda, and in the sale held by the shekdar on 29th June 1900, the land was again knocked down to the former purchaser Arsikempegauda for Rs. 7-4-0. Again Hutchegauda presented a petition on 15th July 1900, urging the same reason as before and offering Rs. 9, if the land was sold again. The Amildar, Mr. D. Subba Rao, again on his own responsibility, ordered on 25th July 1900, a 5th sale, which was held by the shekdar on 10th August 1900 and in which the land was knocked down to Hutchegauda for Rs. 9. The Amildar, Mr. D. Subba Rao, confirmed this sale on 31st August 1900, and issued a saguvali chit to Hutchegauda.

3. On appeal on 29th January 1901 by Arsikempegauda, the former purchaser, to the Deputy Commissioner and the Jamabandi Officer, Mr. Madiah, he observed that the village officials had colluded in securing the land to Hutchegauda, and ordered on 5th February 1901 a re-sale (6th sale) to be held before the Taluk office in presence of both the disputants. Accordingly the Amildar, Mr. D. Subba Rao, after due observance of all the formalities, held the sale on 10th April 1901, in which Arsikempegauda became the purchaser for Rs 10, Hutchegauda refusing to bid at the sale. The Amildar submitted along with the sale proceedings, a petition from one Boregauda offering Rs. 15 for the land, provided it was re-sold.

4. The Deputy Commissioner now solicits permission to deprive Hutchegauda, the purchaser in the 5th sale, of the land and give it to Arsikempegauda, the highest bidder in the last (6th) sale, or permission to re-sell the land, as a higher bid has been offered.

Decision.

The irregularities disclosed in this case are such as to merit the severest censure on all the officers concerned, primarily the Amildar of the Taluk, Mr. D. Subba Rao. A piece of dry land measuring 3 acres was applied for so far back as 10th October 1898 and was sold five times in succession under the orders of the Amildar, the date of the fifth sale being 10th August 1900, the reasons assigned for a re-sale being that another man had subsequently offered a higher amount or that all the men who usually competed at such sales were not present or that the darkhastdar or some other person likely to bid was absent. All the previous sales have been set aside on the Amildar's own responsibility.

2. The Deputy Commissioner also would have exercised a wise discretion in not ordering another and 6th sale, especially after the proceedings connected with such a small piece of land involving only a few rupees both as regards the sale amount and the assessment, had been protracted over more than two years. The Government has lost its revenue for 5 years, and the raiyat has lost the produce that he could have raised on the land during five seasons.

3. Government find that the 3rd sale in favor of Arsikempegauda had been properly held, the sale amount also having been recovered and remitted to the Treasury and the purchaser's name entered in the khirdi, and confirm this sale and cancel all subsequent proceedings. Arsikempegauda will be put in possession of the land, Hutchegauda being evicted by the Deputy Commissioner.

No. 136—P. F. 38-03, DATED BANGALORE, 25TH JULY 1903.

The Government has lost its revenue for 5 years, and the raiyat has lost the produce that he could have raised on the land during five seasons.

3. Government find that the 3rd sale in favor of Arsikempegauda had been properly held, the sale amount also having been recovered and remitted to the Treasury and the purchaser's name entered in the khirdi, and confirm this sale and cancel all subsequent proceedings. Arsikempegauda will be put in possession of the land, Hutchegauda being evicted by the Deputy Commissioner.

No. 136—P. F. 38-03, DATED BANGALORE, 25TH JULY 1903.

Copy of the above is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, together with the records received with his letter No. 337, dated 23rd October 1902.

The following papers on "Spike" disease among sandalwood trees:—

(1) Letter No. 881, dated 19th February 1903, from the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore, to the Dewan of Mysore.

Letter from the Inspector General of Agriculture in India, No. 1150, dated the 24th December 1902.
Dr. E. J. Butler's report on "Spike" disease.

In continuation of letter from the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Coorg No. 1890, dated the 24th October 1902, I am directed to forward, with the following remarks, a copy of the correspondence noted on the margin on "Spike" disease of sandalwood trees in Coorg.

2. As Chief Commissioner of Coorg, Sir Donald Robertson has recently visited Fraserpet, in the vicinity of which town this spike disease has already worked incalculable damage. Mr. McCarthy, the Deputy Conservator of Coorg, has informed the Resident that the whole of the country around Periyapatam is already infected and that the ravages of the disease have within his observation extended as far as Yelwal along the road. Unless the Officiating Conservator of Forests, Mysore, has already taken pains to acquaint himself with the facts and has presented a report to the Durbar, the Resident would suggest that he be directed to meet the Coorg Deputy Conservator at an early date and to obtain from him information which he has collected during the past three years. A personal consultation would, I am to state, probably prove more valuable than written enquiries. The prospective loss to the revenue derived in Mysore from sandal, owing to this spike disease, appears to the Resident to be a very serious matter, and he thinks that the Durbar would probably be well advised to lose no time in eradicating, so far as this may be practicable, all infected trees as Dr. Butler proposes.

(a) A note by Dr. E. J. Butler, M.B., F.L.S., Cryptogamic Botanist to the Government of India, on Spike disease in Sandal based on a visit to Coorg in July 1902.

Previous references.

1. The first detailed reference to this disease appears in a Memorandum by Mr. McCarthy, Deputy Conservator of Forests in Coorg, on "The future supply and culture of Sandal in Coorg," in December 1899. Mr. Barber, Government Botanist, Madras, visited Coorg for the purpose of studying the disease shortly prior to my arrival. His report however was not available at the time and I remained in ignorance of his work until my own was completed.

Area and period of affection.

2. The disease affects a portion of the sandal area of Coorg and a smaller portion of Mysore. It would appear to be of recent origin, since it is hard to believe that so remarkable a disease could have escaped attention.

External characters of the disease.

3. The external characters of the disease are well described in the reports of Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Barber. There is, therefore, no need to dwell at any length on them here. A short account must, however, be given of its very peculiar symptoms in order to understand the course of the disease. From a certain moment all the new leaves produced, sometimes on a few isolated branches only, sometimes over half the tree, sometimes even over the whole, take on new characters, becoming narrow, pointed, stiff and crowded together. From this moment the affected shoot never ceases its growth, differing markedly from the normal tree which lies dormant for a considerable period each year. The newly formed internodes are considerably shortened. As growth continues, each new leaf is smaller, narrower, and more pointed than its predecessor, and as the older leaves fall off, the apical portion of each shoot is clothed with a tuft of leaves, the size of which forms an indication of the stage to which the disease has progressed. Finally, to quote Mr. McCarthy's words, "the new shoots present the appearance of fine spikes bearing four rows of fine bristles."

This forced growth which I take to be the dominant character of the disease, is further indicated by the bursting out of old buds on diseased shoots below the diseased portion; by excessive branching; and by the occurrence of "phyllody" or the transformation of the normal petals, sepals etc., into small foliage leaves, in the inflorescence. None of the last three symptoms are constant, but all are sufficiently common to be distinctly associated with the disease. Where the bursting out of old buds is well marked on a shoot far advanced in the disease, it can be clearly seen that the buds break out into spiked shoots at the same stage of the disease as that to which the apical growing portion has arrived. So that when the main shoot bears nothing but a tuft of fine bristles at its apex, the new lateral shoots, often formed a considerable distance lower down, come out also with tiny bristle-like leaves in place of the ordinary foliage. And this rule by which all new-formed shoots on a diseased branch show the same degree of spike, is general for the whole diseased area of the tree, or for the whole tree where the disease has from the first affected all parts. It can point to nothing else but to a profound disturbance in the nutrition of the tree.

Phyllody appears to occur only where the inflorescence is already partially formed before the first development of spike on the inflorescence-bearing branch. Branches already attacked never bear any inflorescence at all. Phyllody is, as Mr. Barber points out, usually an evidence of increased nutrition or of the stimulation of a parasite. Since all the other evidence points to increased nutrition, and since, as will presently be seen, no parasite could be found, it is probable that the phyllody is to be taken as due merely to excessive nutrition in the early stages of the disease. The absence of flowers, which in sandal, as in many other plants, normally appear at the termination of vegetative activity, is similarly an evidence of increased nutrition resulting in a prolongation of vegetative growth beyond the normal. The alternative explanation, that the prolongation of vegetative growth results from the failure from some other cause to form flowers, need not be taken into account, since there is abundant evidence from the internal examination of the tissues of an increased nutrition, and since this increased nutrition is quite sufficient by itself to account for the phenomenon in question. Later on, when the tree becomes exhausted from the continuous vegetative activity, flower production would involve too great a drain on its resources to be possible.

Thus the two salient and constant external features of the disease are an increased vegetative activity, and a failure to form flowers; both evidences of a forced and possibly abnormal nutrition.

Condition of the tissues.

4. A detailed microscopical examination was made of the tissues from leaf to root and checked by a series of preparations kindly lent to me by Mr. Barber. The first fact noted was the absence of any trace of parasitic action sufficient to account for the disease, in any part of the diseased trees. A few fungus-hyphæ were found on epidermis and cortex, a few bacteria in the tissues and some probably saprophytic organisms on the roots; but these were similarly found in healthy trees, and were in any case totally inadequate to produce such marked symptoms of disease.

At first sight the tissues appeared normal and nothing resembling a degenerative change was observed. Certain departures from the normal, however, occur and must be carefully considered as they form the only clue to the nature of the disease. The most prominent is that all the parenchymatous tissues of a diseased tree are loaded with starch which is present in enormously greater quantities than in a healthy tree. With this great increase of starch certain structural alterations are noticeable. The leaf is thickened in substance while much diminished in surface area, this hypertrophy being due not so much to an increase in the number of layers of cells as to their elongation at right angles to the surface of the leaf. This is especially towards the upper surface of the leaf where the sub-epidermal cells are about twice as long as those of the healthy leaf; thus a well marked palisade tissue is formed, which is absent in the healthy leaf. All the cells of the internal tissue of the leaf, or mesophyllum, are loaded with starch; and as the enormous quantity of starch in the storage cells of the plant shows, the function of carbon assimilation is progressing with quite abnormal vigour. I think the cellular hypertrophy of the leaf is probably an effort to deal with this excessive starch-formation and to compensate for the diminished surface area presented by the diseased leaves. That a compensatory effort is being made by the plant in this case is supported by an examination of the epidermis which shows that the stomata, or openings by which air, bearing carbon-dioxide for the nutrition of the plant, enters, are very greatly increased in number in a given area as compared with a healthy leaf. It is probable that, at least in the early stages of the disease, the amount of carbon-dioxide which enters the plant is, in spite of the diminished leaf area, at least equal to that of the normal tree and the hypertrophy of the leaf-cells in view of their diminished number may be an effort to deal with this. The only alteration in the internal structure of the stem is a somewhat diminished and irregular formation of vascular tissue in advanced cases, which is not visible in the early stages of the disease.

The roots are perfectly healthy with the exception, noted by Mr. Barber, of the root-ends and "haustoria."

The chief internal evidences of the disease are then an excessive production of starch, together with certain structural alterations in the tissues.

Meaning of the modifications.

5. It has recently been shown that a certain train of modifications in the structure of a plant occurs when the plant is forced to take in excessive quantities of carbon-dioxide by exposure to an atmosphere unduly charged with this gas. These are shortly as follows:—

(1) The elongation of the internodes is checked; but the period of growth, i. e., of vegetative activity, is lengthened.

(2) The growth in surface of the leaves is early arrested.

(3) The absolute number of stomata in a given area of leaf surface is considerably increased, though the proportion of stomata to epidermal cells is about the same as in normal leaves; all the cells being diminished in size.

In other words, the number of stomata on the leaf is increased, as though to compensate for the diminution in size.

(4) The structure of the leaves is not materially altered.

(5) The xylem, or inner portion of the vascular ring, of the stem, is less perfectly developed.

(6) Starch is accumulated in the leaves and parenchymatous tissues.

(7) No alteration can be detected in the roots.

This group of modifications shows so striking a resemblance to those above described, as characterising Spike disease in sandal, that they are worthy of careful consideration.

The main features common to both are the forced carbon-assimilation resulting in an accumulation of starch in the plant; the increased production of leaves, shown in the shortening of the internodes; and the prolongation of vegetative activity. Since, in the experiments just mentioned, forced carbon-assimilation was the obvious result of the increased supply of carbon-dioxide, it is at least likely that the remaining train of modifications resulted directly from this. Hence it is evidently possible that the whole of the alterations observed in Spike disease are directly due to intensified carbon-assimilation, or are the result of over-loading the plant with starch. The only prominent modification present in spike, not observed in these experiments, is the leaf-hypertrophy, and this may be due to some factor not present in the plants experimented with. It, therefore, appears to me probable that the intensified carbon-assimilation is the modification to which attention should be directed, and that most of the other alterations are consequences of this.

We have, unfortunately, as yet nothing to guide us as to the cause of the intensified carbon-assimilation in spiked sandal. It would be absurd to suppose it due to unusual quantities of carbon-dioxide in the atmosphere. The effects of such a condition would have been rapidly visible on the human population of the country affected. The cause must, therefore, be sought in the plant itself. For some reason or other the tree, or some isolated branches of it, suddenly proceeds to manufacture starch out of all proportion to the demand for this food by the tissues. As a result of this, growth is forced, the tree gets no rest, and dies of exhaustion, the result of starch-poisoning.

Possible causes of intensified carbon-assimilation.

6. In the plant itself a disease of the stomata, or of the starch-forming cells, or the circulation of some substance in the sap, might each account for the forced production of starch. The stomata are certainly much altered, lying flush with the surface of the leaf, instead of forming a depression in the epidermis as in the healthy plant. But I can find apparent cause for this, and the condition is probably secondary to the leaf-hypertrophy. The starch-forming cells are apparently healthy. The existence of a poison in the sap can only be determined by a series of infection experiments carefully conducted over a number of years. I fail to see how the mere destruction of the root-ends could possibly result in an increased formation of starch, for that starch is formed in excessive quantity, and not merely stored up because not consumed in normal amount as fast as it is formed, is evident from the fact that growth is actually increased, and that, therefore, more starch than usual must be actually consumed. But the destruction of rootlets may well be an early evidence of the action of some poison circulating in the plant. That this poison, if present, actually enters through the root-ends, we have nothing to show, since no organism has as yet been found in the roots that would be likely to be a source of disease. The fact that in addition to the free rootlets, the organs of attachment to other roots, or "haustoria," through which a portion of the food of the sandal tree is absorbed, are also dead in spiked trees, tells against a local disease of the rootlets alone. The existence of a poison circulating in the sap seems, therefore, to be the most probable explanation of the suddenly intensified starch manufacture.

Association with Lantana.

7. We come now to the association of the Lantana invasion of Coorg with the appearance of the disease, first called attention to by Mr. McCarthy. In a search for any recent change in the conditions of sandal-growing, this is the one striking new factor. It might be thought an easy matter to exonerate Lantana from any share in the disease. But this is not so easy as it looks. For several days I sought round Fraserpet to find a spiked tree isolated from Lantana, but without success. When we remember the great distances to which the roots of sandal extend, probably at least fifty yards, and the general nature of the Lantana invasion, this failure may be understood. Still the near future must settle this, for spike disease is progressive, and the area covered by Lantana restricted. If the disease continues to spread into Mysore, as it appears to be doing, and extends beyond the Lantana country, then it obviously cannot be traced to this source. If, on the other hand, spike disease remains confined to the Lantana country, and its originally rapid spread is checked, then there is grave reason to suspect the Lantana and a definite, though not very hopeful, objective to which to direct our preventive measures.

A definite communicable disease.

8. That the condition is a definite disease and communicable, the study of the plantations around Fraserpet, and in particular of the "River" plantation, clearly shows. In this plantation a fire destroyed the outer fringe of sandal. Fire, as Mr. McCarthy mentions, is a predisposing cause to this, as to some other diseases.

The outer trees which had survived the fire took spike, while those inside remained healthy. I may mention in parenthesis that these outer trees grew out of lantana, while those inside were isolated. But the disease from that time has slowly progressed in a centripetal direction, until now, after some years, the plantation is practically destroyed. The slow and steady nature of this progression seems to point to underground communication, and since Mr. Barber has shown that sandal roots form connections with other sandal roots, a channel through which the virus might pass from tree to tree is here evident. In opposition to this slow infection, probably occurring from tree to tree, there is the first invasion of the disease which was rapid. It is as if a first wave of the disease passed rapidly through the air and that those trees which escaped this first attack were afterwards slowly killed out by underground spreading, a mode of extension which is always gradual. The whole country round Fraserpet shows evidences of this secondary and gradual spread in a centrifugal direction from trees which succumbed to the first attack.

Course of the disease.

9. It is probable that death follows the first appearance of the disease much more rapidly than was at first suspected. Thus a tree which was observed during Mr. Barber's visit to be showing the earliest signs of spike, was, at the time of my arrival at Fraserpet six weeks later, far developed in the disease. Instead of years we must probably speak of months in estimating the rate of progress. No case of recovery has as yet been reported.

Treatment.

10. The all-important question of treatment is naturally a difficult one where the cause of disease is unknown. Still it is far from being insoluble. One of the most serious diseases with which American fruit-growers have to contend is that known as "Peach yellows." For more than twenty years this disease has ravaged the Eastern States, and its nature remains to this day as obscure as in the beginning. The best energies of the United States Department of Agriculture have been directed towards ascertaining its origin, but without success. One after another all the more usual causes of disease, fungi, insects, bacteria, etc., have been excluded, yet there is full evidence of the infectious nature of the disease. And the treatment is on the whole fairly successful, so that the disease is under reasonable control. "Peach yellows" bears several remarkable resemblances to spike disease, and one of the explanations offered of it is the presence of an infectious fluid in the sap. The success in checking this disease holds out a fair hope for the eventual controlling of spike.

The first thing to be done is clearly to endeavour to confine the disease to the area at present infected. The not uncommon escape of isolated trees gives an indication which might usefully be followed up. A belt of country around the diseased districts ought, in my opinion, to be cleared entirely of sandal trees. This belt, judging from the known length to which roots extend, should be not less than 100 yards wide. The taking out of every tree in such a belt all round the infected area ought not to be very difficult when we take into account the scattered way in which sandal grows, a tree here and a tree there. The local forest officer will be the best judge of that, and I am in correspondence with him on the subject. It would seem to me that the Mysore Government should be asked to co-operate in the work, as it is certainly useless to endeavour to eradicate the disease in Coorg if, across the Cauvery in Mysore, spiked trees are allowed to remain to be possible sources of infection. Diseased trees are at present being removed in large quantities in Coorg for the yearly sales, and this practice might well be followed in Mysore, for the evidence of communication from tree to tree cannot now be ignored, although the fact is not yet scientifically proved. So far as microscopical examination can show, the disease causes no deterioration in the quality of the wood. The disease must soon lessen its intensity in districts such as the vicinity of Fraserpet, from the very fact that there will shortly be little sandal left for attack. To endeavour to eradicate all spiked trees in such acutely infected areas, impossible up to the present, may then become practicable as more and more is cut down or destroyed by the disease, and the new generation may be preserved; for it is an important fact that young trees do not usually suffer. In freshly infected areas I would strongly advocate the total extirpation of a tree the moment it shows signs of spike, and the burning on the spot of all the debris from rough-dressing the wood. In "Peach yellows" the living tissues have been proved to be highly infectious, and in its mode of spreading and many of its symptoms, this disease is closely allied. Hence the danger of disseminating infectious matter during the removal of the tree must be borne in mind.

Experimental work.

11. These recommendations, which are only too scanty, are all that I think it is justifiable to suggest in the absence of experimental work. I may add that excision of diseased branches in early stages does not seem to have any effect in checking the extension to other parts of the tree.

Further work must be guided entirely by the results of experiments which I hope to be able to commence with Mr. McCarthy's aid immediately. These experiments cannot be carried through in a short time, but must extend over several seasons before any trustworthy results can be arrived at. One great difficulty in the way is that the work can only be carried on in already infected areas, since there would otherwise be a risk of spreading the disease to new districts. It will be hard to find suitable healthy trees for inoculation under such conditions that the danger of infection from outside is inconsiderable. The experiments will be directed chiefly to determine the mode of spread of the disease; its period of incubation; the nature of the virus; and the influence of the "nurse" plant, i. e., the plant from whose roots the sandal draws a portion of its nourishment, on the development of the disease. Their results will be communicated at a subsequent date.

Summary.

12. It will be evident from what I have said above, that I consider spike in sandal to be a nutritional disease, characterised by a forced carbon-assimilation and a consequent train of modifications in the form of the tree. No parasite origin can be assigned. The cause of the forced carbon-assimilation is unknown but is probably not local. It may be due to the circulation of a poison in the sap. The disease shows marked similarities to "Peach yellows," and, like it, there is reason to believe it is communicable. Treatment at present must be chiefly directed to confining the disease to its present limits. Experimental work is necessary before further recommendations can be given.

(b) Report on Spike Disease in Sandalwood Trees in Coorg, by C. A. Barber, Esq., M.A., F.L.S., Government Botanist, Madras.

I have the honor to forward the following report upon the "Spike" disease in the Coorg sandalwood trees.

2. As will be known to you, I was only able to spend a short time on the spot, and although this would frequently be amply sufficient to determine the cause of a plant disease, there are a number of points in the present case which have not been elucidated. The result of my studies has been to trace the disease to the roots, but the exact cause of this diseased condition has not been determined. A number of interesting facts have been collected regarding the life-history of the sandalwood, and these should put any future observer in a better position to clear up the mystery, especially if he has a laboratory equipped for cryptogamic work.

A. Progs. (Working Plans) June 1900, Nos. 9-12.

3. The disease seems to be of recent origin. It so happens that, from the appearance of the branches, it is possible to tell whether a dead tree has died of "spike," and as only the dead trees are collected for the sandalwood of commerce, it is probable that the disease, if of long standing, would have been noticed before. However that may be, the first reference to it is, I believe, the detailed report of Mr. McCarthy, the present Deputy Conservator of Forests in Coorg. To all appearance "spike" has only made itself felt during the last four or five years, and during that time has swept the sandalwood trees from whole tracts, especially where, from artificial planting or other causes, the trees are near together.

4. The steady progress from plant to plant, the complete destruction of all plants, excepting very young ones, in attacked areas, and the frequent immunity of isolated trees seem to point most decisively to the presence of a definite communicable disease, and not to peculiar phase of growth due to conditions of weather or soil. From certain facts it would appear to be contagious, whereas in some cases it is difficult to see how the affected trees could have touched each other. The determination as to whether the disease is contagious or infectious would add a good deal to the ease with which it could be diagnosed and prevented.

5. Upon my arrival at Fraserpet, the spot selected for my study of the disease, a very careful analysis was first made of the external above-ground characters of the affected trees. The following is the description published by Mr. McCarthy:—"The new shoots and leaves of a tree, instead of presenting the graceful appearance natural to the species, begin to grow out stiff and straight: the leaves also stand up stiff and erect like bristles, and as their arrangement is opposite and alternate, the shoot looks like a spike with four lines of erect leaves growing down it, something like a chimney brush. There is no discernible change in the new axis, except that it grows out stiff and straight. As regards the leaves, in the first place the distance between the alternate pairs is greatly decreased, then the petiole and blade are tip to tip in one straight line, and lastly the blade is shorter, narrower and more pointed. However, there is no sign of spot or sickness in the leaf substance. As the disease progresses, the new leaves become still smaller, narrower, more pointed and fewer each successive year; until the new shoots present the appearance of fine spikes bearing four rows of fine bristles. After this the tree rapidly dies off."

6. This is an excellent and accurate description. But as the best description in woods are not always easy to understand, I have appended a series of photographs and poisoned herbarium specimens which may be consulted as well.

7. I shall first describe the appearances in old and young trees recently attacked by "spike," and, after that, a young or old tree in the last stage of the disease. The first photograph represents an old, luxuriant tree, only recently attacked. It appears extremely healthy and full of foliage, but a close inspection shows that many of the branches are peculiarly formed. The latter have a feathery appearance, the leaves are smaller, narrower and more pointed; they are closely arranged on the branches, and there are no flowers. These are the spiked branches. It is to be noted that such a tree is not uniformly attacked all over. Certain branches, frequently widely separated, are seen to be completely spiked, while the neighbouring ones are normal. In fortunate cases it is possible to detect the commencement of the disease in a branch. Parts of it are spiked and barren: others normal and flowering (see herbarium specimen No. 3). In such branches it is generally possible to detect cases of phyllody, the inflorescence giving place to a tuft of leafy shoots and the flowers often being deformed, some or all of the sepals, petals, stamens or pistils being changed to small green leaves.

8. There appears to be no necessary connection between the parts of the tree which shows "spike." Healthy trees are occasionally met with in which there is no appearance of the disease other than a tuft of small leaves at the ends of one of the branches. Sometimes too small branchlets, at different points, simultaneously develope the small, crowded leaves—just as in witches' brooms—while at other times—and this is the case in the tree photographed—one-half of the tree is more or less spiked, while the other half produces flowers and fruits as usual.

9. There are certain points in which a young tree just attacked differs from the old, well-grown tree just described. It is less usual for the individual branches to show such marked differences among themselves. The lower leaves of a branch are normal, while the upper ones show the appearance of "spike" and phyllody. Thus you may frequently find a young tree, the whole of whose branches have normal, large leaves below, with small spiked tufts at the ends (see photograph No. 4). The period during which the whole tree becomes involved is probably far shorter in these cases, and a young plantation, where "spike" has entered, becomes rapidly destroyed and shows in the clearest manner the various stages of the disease.

10. From all accounts the progress of the disease is very rapid, and the transition from a luxuriant tree, with many healthy leaves upon it, to the case of advanced disease about to be described may be merely a matter of months; but exact observations are wanting on this point.

11. The following are the characters of a young or old tree where the disease is well developed and in an advanced stage:—At a distance the tree appears to be dead and leafless, or perhaps better, it appears to be pronouncedly deciduous, reminding one strongly of an English tree in winter. A nearer inspection shows that there are many leaves scattered over the tree at the ends of the stiff branches, but they are very small indeed and form little brush-like terminal tufts. The branches are, however, full of sap. The leaves are very different from the normal, healthy ones, exhibiting in an exaggerated manner the form of those on the feathery branches already described. A student confronted for the first time with healthy and diseased sandal trees would at once pronounce them to be different species.

12. A marked character of all the diseased plants which I have examined is the absence of any external appearance suggesting the presence of any parasite, animal or vegetable. It is true that, at first sight, the idea of witches' brooms suggests itself. But there are many respects in which the present disease differs from these, especially in the fact that the whole tree is surely, though perhaps slowly, affected, and that the abnormal appearances are not confined to single branches. There is also the most perfect regularity in the leaf formation, and there are no deformities anywhere to be seen.

13. The absence of flowers was the first point to be investigated. The occurrence of phyllody is one of the most puzzling parts of the disease. This peculiarity is frequently due to excess of nutrition, whereas any injury to the roots most generally results in a great development of flowers and fruits. But the phyllody in this case is not accompanied by increased luxuriance. The leaves, on the other hand, become successively smaller, until the leaf surface is insignificant as compared with that of healthy plants. The causes which induced phyllody in garden plants cannot therefore be considered here. It is more probable that in this case, as will be seen directly, the excessive and rapid formation of leaves points to an attempt on the part of the plant to cure itself of a grave disease.

14. There appears to be no absolute rule as to the period at which the sandalwood flowers. But, when it does, it is usual for each branch to end in an inflorescence, and, further, for each of the latter to end in a terminal flower. It is obvious that when a flower bud is formed at the end of a branch, no further growth would possibly take place until another vegetative shoot could replace it, and this does not, I think, usually take place until the flower has developed and formed its fruit. There is thus a considerable resting period, at any rate from leaf formation, in the normal life-history of the tree. Supposing through some reason the formation of flowers were to be prevented, this resting time would not be available, and leaf after leaf would be formed in rapid succession. It might well be that, just as in the case of a temperate plant deprived of its winter's rest by being introduced into the tropics, excessive leaf formation might result in ultimate exhaustion. And the sign of this exhaustion would be seen in the decreasing size of the leaves.

15. It is well known, however, that phyllody is also caused by the attacks of various parasites. Different fungi attacking the tissues of a plant, cause the flowering branches to develop into leafy, barren ones. In fact a case has been noted of this, occurring in a Thesium, one of the sandalwood's nearest allies, and like it, a root parasite. A microscopic examination was therefore made of the vegetative shoots and their young tissues in spiked plants. There was no evidence at all of any attack, nor was any foreign body found in the cells.

16. But this examination brought one significant fact to light. All the tissues of the diseased branches, even to the smallest twigs, were found to be loaded with starch. Since the main function of the leaves in a plant, as far as nutrition goes, is the formation of starch, it appeared that they were, in this case, doing their work excellently. In healthy branches of small size, however, there was no starch at all. As fast as it is formed, this substance is hurried away to be used up in the processes of growth. There was then evidently a sign of stagnation in the diseased plants. For growth, besides the starch formed in the leaves, a plant has need of other substances—salts and water—which are contributed by the roots. In the diseased plants growth had ceased to a large extent, and they were dying with their tissues loaded with undigested food. This fact pointed very distinctly to the roots as the place where trouble might be sought. A certain amount of water and salts is always present in the stem and roots and leaves, and, supposing further supplies of these substances were cut off, this limited quantity would be sufficient to keep things going for a time. This would account for the formation of the leaves in spiked trees, and would also account for their being smaller and smaller until the final death of the tree.

17. Certain other facts may be mentioned in this place as tending to confirm the impression that the roots were diseased. Mr. McCarthy has noted that all the branches of a tree which show "spike" usually do so in the same stage. The disease appears to be one which attacks the plant as a whole, and, although it may not succeed in overcoming the whole tree at once, we do not meet with branches of early and late stages. They are merely spiked or not; if healthy, then normally so; and if spiked, they are all spiked to the same degree.

18. Another fact of interest is that root-suckers, or shoots sent up from injured roots, are almost always spiked in trees suffering from the disease. I have, indeed, met with a tree which appeared perfectly healthy, and yet every root-sucker was spiked and formed such a marked contrast to the stem branches that they would have been unhesitatingly assigned to different species of plants had it not been possible to trace the connection between the two.

19. Although I had not the opportunity in the time to make a thorough study of the way in which the disease had spread over the country, the observation of a series of spiked trees, their relative position and the various stages of the disease gave one the impression that the attack was progressive, but whether by contagion or infection, could not be determined. Taking a set of diseased trees which were selected for careful study, it was found that, while they were all dead or in advanced stages at one end, those at the other were healthy or showed signs of recent attack. Further observations are called for on this point, and an accurate account of the progress of the disease in certain isolated and well marked areas would throw much light on the best way to fight the evil. In the series of specimens referred to above, the direction in which the disease had spread was along the banks of the Cauvery, where countless roots were exposed by the fall of the sandy banks.

20. The examination of the above-ground parts, and the collection of specimens for microscopic work, had taken up so much time that only two days remained for the roots. All the facts noted above were not observed at one time, and it was only the chance discovery of the abundant starch in the tissues of the young shoots which definitely pointed to the roots as the diseased organs. The leaves were doing their work of starch formation; what were the roots about? The collar was examined in several trees, but it showed no disease which might account for the cutting off of supplies. The main roots were living and apparently healthy. It was only after long search that it was discovered that there was something seriously wrong with the root-ends.

21. The root system of the sandalwood is very peculiar and does not seem to have received the amount of attention that it ought to have done. As compared with other trees around, this is the part of the plant which is most characteristic, and attention should therefore have been concentrated upon it in the numerous plantations. It is averred in text-books that the tree, like Thesium and others of its class, is a root parasite, that it attaches its roots to those of other plants and sucks their juices for its own growth. But the pronouncements of the various forest officers who have written upon the subject are vague in the extreme. Most appear to be doubtful, while some boldly affirm that the sandalwood is not a parasite any longer, having lost the power which it formerly possessed. This is an extremely erroneous statement. The smallest examination proves that the roots of the sandalwood are inextricably united with those of other plants, and that the plant is a greedy and constant parasite. It is moreover to be noted that the development of root-hairs, by which a plant becomes intimately connected with the smallest particles of soil and absorbs water and salts from them, are almost entirely absent in those that I have examined, and it becomes a question as to how far the sandalwood roots are able to act like other roots in the procuring of their food. Upon contact with the root of another plant the sandalwood root forms a small swelling or cushion at the touching point. From the centre of this is produced a sucking organ, and the juices of its host are used for its own purposes. I consider it probable, from my own observations, that the sandalwood roots, at any rate in casuarina or lantana plantations, do very little true root-work on their own account, and are dependent almost altogether on their hosts for their supplies of water and salts.

22. An examination of the roots of spiked trees shows that their sucking organs, or "haustoria" as they are technically termed, are absent or dead. It is a matter of some difficulty to follow the roots to their termination without breaking them. For two whole days my staff were carefully dissecting the earth away and laying bare the root systems of spiked and healthy trees, with the invariable results that all the root ends of the spiked trees were dead and rotten. That there is a root disease present, then, I have no manner of doubt. As regards the exact cause I have not had the means of judging. It seems to me that this is a suitable piece of work for the Cryptogamic Botanist to the Government of India.

23. Bearing these facts in mind, the following is what appears to happen in spiked trees, although I cannot profess that all the phenomena are explained. An injury occurs to the roots and their ends die: the supplies of salts and water are thus cut off from the plant. This does not take place all at once, for there are a great number of root-ends to be affected, and there is also a certain quantity of salts and water stored up in the stem and main roots: the shortage in the supply of the salts needful for seed-formation accounts for the cessation of flowering: fresh roots are needed and fresh leaves are called upon, at an unseasonable period, to produce the necessary material: the branches continue in their growth, which is not terminated by the formation of a flower, and new leaves are found in rapid succession: the old leaves are thrown off, and the new ones formed are smaller and smaller: by their active metabolism, the tissues, even to the smallest twig, are filled with starch which has no chance of getting away: the tree finally cannot stand the strain, and having used up all its supplies of salts and water, finally dies of exhaustion.

24. A number of other facts were observed, and as these may throw light on the study we are engaged in, they are appended. In the few cases where I was able to properly examine the roots of spiked trees, I noted that the lantana roots near were much diseased, and at first it naturally occurred to me that the supply of poisoned food was quite sufficient to kill the sandal roots parasite on the lantana. And this may, to some extent, be the case. Mr. McCarthy has noted the coincidence of the spike and the lantana invasion of Coorg. This is a point well worthy of further observation. The lantana has got such a hold of the country around Fraserpet that nothing short of a devastating disease can free the country from it. If it is found to be in some way connected with "spike," then the first thing to be done is to stem the torrent of invasion, and thus to save those portions where the lantana has not yet arrived. "Spike" is well developed in the Hunsur neighbourhood, and Mr. McCarthy states that it originally came from Mysore into Coorg. I have heard nothing about the presence of the disease in the Hassan District, but little seems to be known about it, and I think it would be well to interest the Mysore Government, so that accurate observations may be made regarding its presence and connection with lantana.

25. The known healthiness and rapid growth of sandalwood trees in lantana and casuarina plantations have been, I believe, usually attributed to the particular kind of shade afforded, and the occurrence of leaf-mould beneath the trees. I do not think that casuarina is a tree which offers much advantage in the latter respect.

On the other hand, the two casuarina-cum-sandal plantations, which I was able, through the kindness of the Dewan, to visit near Bangalore, at once showed that the sandal is as greedy in its attachment to the casuarina roots as it is to those of lantana. I would therefore explain the early success of the sandalwood in these plantations as due to the abundant nutriment offered by the surface roots of the nurses rather than to the kind of shade, and especially so since the shade differs so markedly in the two cases. The study of the sandalwood plantations from this point of view—to my mind the most important by far—has been altogether neglected. A thorough biological study of the root system, its likes, its dislikes and its dangers, would be far more productive of useful results than much of the haphazard planting of former years.

26. I would add, as contributions to this interesting study, that the casuarina roots in the two Bangalore plantations examined, were badly infected with a parasite resembling that of the well-known alder root tubercles. The sandal roots frequently attach their haustoria to their own roots, an operation resulting in curious fusions among the older roots. The poor development of root-hairs in the sandalwood roots suggests a saprophytic as well as parasitic habit. This is in accordance with the experience gained that the seedlings require leaf-mould for their first year. I have found the seedlings firmly attached in all directions to the roots of grasses and other plants, statements to the contrary notwithstanding. While examining the diseased roots of the sandalwood after leaving Coorg, I observed, besides a few hyphæ, not in themselves sufficient to account for the death of the rootlets, certain peculiar bodies, in the vessels. These upon examination turned out to be thyloses, or protrusions of the living cells into the cavities of the empty vessels, due to great pressure. Many of these thyloses were filled with starch, thereby increasing the storage room for this over-abundant substance. But their chief function perhaps in the tissues is to stop up cavities through which injurious influences might reach the interior. Here, on the death of a rootlet, the wide vessels afford easy entry to parasitic fungi and bacteria, besides the smaller forms of animal parasites. An attempt is made by the root to stop up the vessels by the formation of thyloses as stoppers. That this view was the correct one received unexpected confirmation from a section through a haustorium which had attached itself to a sandal root. At the point where the sucking organ was endeavouring to enter the vessels, they were protected by an abundant formation of thyloses which stopped up their cavities.

27. A difficulty which occurred to me was, that when a plant is spiked and its root ends are dead, there appears to be no attempt on its part to form fresh adventitious roots from the older parts of the root system. This fresh formation of roots frequently takes place in other plants when they are attacked and destroyed by parasites. But it has been mentioned that very young trees do not show "spike," and I would suggest that in these cases the roots are still in a sufficiently plastic condition to form new ones above the point of injury. The roots of the sandal probably quickly pass into the permanent condition as far as root-formation is concerned. The young trees keep up the fight as long as they are able to form fresh roots; but as soon as this plastic condition is passed, they too succumb to the disease.

28. In the old plant we have seen that "spike" usually appears suddenly on one isolated branch or part of the tree, so that you see, in the most curious juxtaposition, normal, flowering and fruiting branches and barren spiked ones. Sometimes one-half of a tree is completely spiked, while the other half is healthy. A young plant, on the other hand, frequently goes off into "spike" all over at the same time. This is probably due to the much larger area of the root system in the older tree. As will be seen later, the roots may extend for very considerable distances. While the whole of the root-system in young plants is very quickly invaded, it takes a very considerable time before this can occur in the case of an old one. It is quite possible also that certain parts of a tree are fed by certain portions of the root system, although there are generally in plants special arrangements for cross connections in case of sudden injuries.

29. In an old plant, such as that reproduced in photograph No. 1, it may be noted that a great many of the spiked branches are such as have been shortly broken off (see photograph No. 3). This at first led me to suspect the entrance of some parasitic fungus at the broken surface. But the examination of the spiked shoots did not show the presence of any fungus, and the tissues were perfectly healthy. It appears, however, that any late developing branch on a spiked tree is likely to be spiked. Such are the epicormic branches from various parts of the stems of old trees, and so also are the root-suckers arising from injuries to the roots. Probably the shoots of the broken-off branches are also of this character, being formed late to replace the branches which have been removed. It is worth while also pointing out that all these late formed branches are produced as the result of some injury to the plant.

30. One cannot note the way in which the disease spreads over the country without suspecting the roots as passing on the disease. When the trees are near together, as in a plantation, in a comparatively short time the whole of them are infected. Where they grow along the banks of a river, the direction of progress is along the banks. Where finally the trees form isolated clumps in the middle of fields, they are frequently quite healthy, although comparatively near to series of diseased plants. This is a fact that was pointed out to me by McCarthy, and it is quite in keeping with the idea of spread from root to root underground. I may incidentally mention that the roots are far more wide-spreading than might at first be supposed. They probably live long after the trees to which they belong have been removed, and root-suckers spring up when it is impossible to tell whence they have arisen. In one case I had a root dissected out and it extended to the astonishing length of 100 feet, although I had not reached its end, and this was in a nearly straight line across the field.

31. The conclusion arrived at thus far is that the disease called "Spike" in sandalwood is due to the death of the root ends. What causes this has not been determined. An examination of the material brought to Head Office has not thrown any light on the subject. The hyphæ present in the dead roots do not seem to me to be present in sufficient quantity to cause this state of things, and to infer a bacterial disease would be obviously a plea of inability to find an adequate cause. The bacterial diseases of plants are few and of doubtful character, and there are none of the lesions and mal-formations in the tissues in the present case which would be expected to accompany a bacterial disease. A more careful study of the root ends, which was not possible in the time at disposal, and especially of those not yet dead, would perhaps give a clue to this puzzling disease.

32. Meantime, the progress of the disease should be carefully noted. It seems to me most probable that it is spread from plant to plant by means of the roots. There are no appearances of infection in the leaves and young branches. If it took place through the broken surface of the stem, what plant could escape? There is no tree perhaps so much hacked about and so covered with wound-callus-formations as the sandalwood.

33. Some interesting experiments might be conducted. If the phenomena noted in the above-ground parts are merely due to the failure of the roots, then it should be easy to induce them by cutting off root after root of a healthy plant and watching the new shoots forming on the trunk and branches as well as the root-suckers. Branches might be broken off from a tree where the disease has just made its appearance in order to see if the fresh shoots formed will be spiked. Diseased roots may be brought into contact with healthy ones with small difficulty and the evidence obtained as to whether the disease is readily transmitted from tree to tree by this means. But it is perhaps early in the enquiry to formulate more of these experiments. There is no doubt that a grave disease has appeared among the sandalwood plantations and forests, and it will rest with those concerned whether they prosecute further the studies thus commenced.

SPIKE DISEASE AMONG SANDAL TREES.

(A) Note dated 26th March 1903.

As directed by Government, I have placed myself in communication with the Deputy Conservator of Forests, Coorg, with a view to arrange a meeting for concerting measures for the eradication of the Spike disease. Mr. McCarthy has written to say that he would write again to settle date of meeting. As Government may be desirous to know what action has been taken by me in this matter, I submit this ad interim report for their information.

2. The question has engaged my attention ever since I arrived in this Province and I took the first opportunity, after my arrival, to visit the infected areas in Coorg and Mysore in order to study the causes and effects of the disease. The observations then made were communicated in my weekly diary to the then Conservator, Mr. J. L. Pigot. The conclusion arrived at by me was that the disease was met with only in tracts covered with lantana or which were once covered with it, and that lantana when young was favorable for sandal growth and affected it only at old age. It was also noticed that sandal trees under the shelter of other trees and in well protected localities did not suffer at all. This led me to think that the disease was caused by one of the following causes, viz., (1) exposure to climatic influences, (2) drought, or (3) absence of moisture in the sub-soil, the affected areas having suffered most from short and unseasonable rains for several years since 1892.

3. The disease is met with in its virulent form in a belt of country 10 or 12 miles in width extending along the Mysore-Fraserpet road from the Cauvery river to Yelwal. I have recently marched close to the north-eastern border of Coorg from a point six miles to the north of the Fraserpet bridge up to a point six or seven miles from Bisle, but did not discover any trace of the disease, in spite of the closest observation. The whole of the Hassan District is, at present, free from the disease, and some of the healthiest sandal trees, curious to state, were noticed in the midst of lantana. This would seem to disprove the theory that the roots of the lantana are the cause of the disease.

4. I next propose to visit the lantana-covered tracts of the Kadur District in order to study further the effect of lantana on sandal. I have carefully read all the literature on the subject commencing from Mr. McCarthy's first printed report on "Spike disease." My intention was to spend a week in the infected locality during the next early rains, the most favorable season for the study of the course of the disease, and conduct experiments on the lines indicated by Mr. Barber in his report, before addressing Government on the measures I would propose to adopt.

5. The result of my interview with Mr. McCarthy and any measures that may be proposed for combating the disease will be submitted in a further report.

(B) Note dated 3rd May 1903.

I met Mr. McCarthy, Deputy Conservator of Forests, Coorg, by previous arrangement, at Bangalore, on the 23rd ultimo and obtained from him such information as he was able to furnish as to the measures adopted by him for combating or checking the spike disease.

2. No cure has yet been discovered for the disease, and affected plants are known never to have recovered. It is, however, believed to be contagious, communicating itself from root to root underground. Hence Mr. McCarthy's suggestion is to confine the disease to the infected area. This is to be effected by clearing a belt of country around the affected tract of all diseased sandal trees, removing such portions of them as are marketable to the koti and burning on the spot all the debris from rough dressing and white-wood. After this has been done, he recommends that all the infected trees within the belt be similarly uprooted. The main object is to prevent the spread of the disease to unaffected areas.

3. Mr. McCarthy thinks that after the disease has once passed over an area, it does not appear again in the same area. This, however, requires further investigation. He further agrees with me that dense shade checks the disease, which fact contradicts the theory of Messrs. Butler and Barber that the disease is infectious and is communicated by the roots. Operations on the lines indicated by Mr. McCarthy will be started in the Hunsur and Mysore Taluks and along the Hassan frontier at the commencement of the rains.

4. Since submitting my report of the 26th March last, I have marched through the lantana tracts of Lingadahalli, Santaveri, Yedahalli, Balehonnur, Sollebile, Shimoga and Shikarpur, and I am glad to report that no sign of the disease was noticed anywhere.

5. In order to make myself perfectly sure that the disease has not entered the Hassan District, I directed the District Forest Officer, Mr. Sitaramaiya, to go carefully along the frontier of Coorg and see whether any spiked trees are to be found within our border. He reports that he noticed 18 diseased trees,—three on Government lands which he has uprooted and destroyed, and fifteen on inam land, for the removal of which he has taken necessary steps.

6. I am issuing detailed instructions to the District Forest Officers of Mysore, Hassan, Kadur and Shimoga to keep a sharp look out for spiked trees and uproot them wherever they occur. The operations in the Mysore District will be conducted by me personally, and I beg to assure Government that no pains will be spared in checking the progress of the disease, so far as it lies in my power.

7. A further report on the subject will be submitted on the conclusion of the proposed operations, with special reference to the results obtained.

(C) Note dated 16th May 1903.

I beg to submit some additional papers regarding "Spike disease" and the treatment of sandal trees, for the information of Government.

2. I was in the infected area from the 9th to the 28th November 1901 and made thorough examination of it then; but as it is reported from Mysore that my diaries for two weeks (9th—24th November) have been mislaid, I extremely regret that I am unable to submit extracts from them. As my observations and study of the disease were intended more for my personal edification than for the submission of a report at the time, my notes are not so voluminous as they would otherwise have been. Moreover, I have already reported that it was my intention to submit a comprehensive report on the subject, after making further investigations on the lines indicated by Mr. Barber and Doctor Butler.

3. I have devoted great attention to the subject and have spent 35 days in the infected area making a close study of it. No remedial measures were, however, undertaken, as Mr. Barber had declared that the origin of the disease was a mystery and that he could not suggest a remedy.

4. Dr. Butler while admitting that it has not been scientifically proved that the disease is communicated from root to root underground advocates the eradication of the diseased trees. He, however, adds that this is an impossible task in an acutely infected area. In freshly infected areas we have already uprooted the diseased trees as suggested by Dr. Butler. In order, however, that the operation may be a success, it must be thorough and uprooting must be done in the rains when the soil is soft enough for digging.

5. It may not be out of place to mention here that no notes or instructions on the subject were available when I assumed charge, so whatever action I have taken in the matter has been done on my own initiative.

6. A note on Sandal by Mr. H. C. Hill, late Inspector General of Forests, to the Government of India, is enclosed herewith. Attention is invited to para 21 thereof, which treats of "Spike" disease.

(I) Letter No. C. 941, dated 12th May 1903, from Rai Bahadur M. Muthannah, Esq., Officiating Conservator of Forests in Mysore, to Dr. E. J. Butler, M.B., F.L.S., Cryptogamic Botanist to the Governmet of India.

I have read with much interest your valuable and instructive report on "Spike" disease among sandalwood trees. I have been myself studying the course and nature of the disease closely during the past two years without coming to any definite conclusion as to its origin. My first impression was that it was associated with lantana, and that the latter far from being injurious when young was really beneficial and that its injurious influences were felt only at a later stage. It seemed to me that sandal rootlets which fed on the old and diseased roots of lantana absorbed a poisonous fluid and thus brought about the death of the tree itself. Later investigations made throughout the Mysore Province show that lantana has no effect at all on the healthy growth of sandal. In fact some of the healthiest trees have been noticed by me in heavy lantana jungles. The extreme north and centre of the Province abound with lantana and the best sandal is met with in these tracts, nowhere it being more abundant. It may be that the lantana here is still young and its roots have not begun to decay. However, the point seems to be worthy of your consideration.

As regards preventive measures, you suggest the removal of all diseased trees. Now in order that the eradication may have any salutary effect, we must remove all the roots of the diseased trees, for if they are not removed then and there, we might be doing more harm than good—as the underground roots will still spread the disease. The eradication of all the diseased roots seems to me to be an impossible task, if, as you say, they extend up to 50 yards. Obviously, they cannot be removed in the hot weather, for the ground would be too hard then. We must therefore attack the trees in the rains. As I am about to commence operations on the lines indicated in your report, I beg to request the favour of your instructions on the following points:—

(a) Whether it is necessary to remove all the roots of diseased trees, if so, how is the up-rootal to be effected.

(b) Which is the best season for eradicating the diseased trees.

(II) Circular letter No. 6850-7, dated 3rd May 1903, from Rai Bahadur M. Muthannah, Esq., Officiating Conservator of Forests in Mysore, to all District Forest Officers, through the Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

1. I have the honor to draw your attention to the reports on "Spike" disease on Sandal trees by Messrs. Barber and Butler, published in the Indian Forester for January and April last respectively, and to request that you will be good enough to make a close inspection of the tracts containing sandal trees, with a view to discover whether the disease in question has made its appearance in your district, and if so, in what localities and within what limits. The symptoms of the disease are described in para 5 of Mr. Barber's report, of which an extract is appended for facility of reference. The description must be carefully studied and a sharp look out kept for any tree showing signs of the disease.

2. The diseased trees are indicated by excessive branching, and the transformation of petals, sepals, etc., into small foliage. These characteristics, however, are not constant, but one or the other is always present.

3. Branches already attacked never bear any inflorescence, and infected trees continue to produce leaves without rest till they die from sheer exhaustion.

4. When a diseased tree is met with, it should be uprooted then and there. The heartwood and roots must be removed to the koti in such a manner as not to bring them in contact with healthy trees, and all the debris from rough dressing and white-wood should be burnt on the spot.

5. Clear and detailed instructions should be given to all Range Officers and Foresters not only for the searching out of all diseased trees, but also as to their disposal.

6. The result of the operations carried out on the lines laid down in this letter should be noted in the weekly diaries and a detailed report submitted after six months, stating to what extent and within what local limits the disease is met with in your district.

(III) Note by H. C. Hill, Esq., Late Inspector General of Forests, to the Government of India, on Spike Disease.

* * * *

21. The investigation of this somewhat remarkable disease, which has attacked sandal, more particularly in the neighbourhood of Fraserpet, has so far given no results. It may be, as surmised by Mr. Appaiya, that it is due to a succession of years of exceptional climatic character over the particular zone in which it appears. Or it may be due to the presence of lantana, which may either, as suggested by Major Prain, deprive the sandal of something necessary to its healthy development, or according to Mr. McCarthy, communicate some new and unsuitable substance.

No evidence of fungus has so far been traced, the matter is being further inquired into.

(3) Letter No. 81—18, dated the 3rd June 1903, from Dr. E. J. Butler, M.B., F.L.S., Cryptogamic Botanist to the Government of India, to Rai Bahadur M. Muthannah, Esq., Officiating Conservator of Forests in Mysore.

I have to thank you for your letter C. No. 941, dated 12th May last, regarding "spike" disease in sandal. What you say about the frequency of healthy trees in connection with lantana is most interesting. Still it appears to me that it does not yet put the possibility of the lantana being concerned in some way out of the question. For it is not impossible that the lantana may merely be the channel through which the disease has to pass before reaching the sandal. All lantana may not be capable of transmitting it but only such bushes as have become diseased or as you suggest, are old. What would decisively put lantana out of the question would be to find a single spiked tree at a distance of say a quarter of a mile from any lantana. I cannot say I believe strongly in the lantana theory, but the whole matter is shrouded in obscurity.

The question of attempting to eradicate the disease by removing all diseased trees within the infected area is one with which I am not competent to deal, for it must be decided by considerations of cost and practicability. In the badly diseased area of North Coorg around Fraserpet it would be quite impossible, for the percentage of diseased trees is too high. What the Deputy Conservator of Forests in Coorg informs me he is doing is to remove diseased trees at the margin of the diseased area only so as to attempt to limit its spread into the uninfected area. This is what I would recommend as the first step.

In answer to your questions as to the need for removing all the roots of diseased trees and the season for doing this, I think it should not be impossible to get up at least the main roots once the rains have broken. They do not usually penetrate very deeply. Small roots are not likely to give rise to suckers so that only larger ones need be taken out. It is at least worth trying if it can be done and seeing to what extent the roots will give suckers. We want a lot of information of this sort and the earlier we can get it, the better. I do not expect to see much diminution in the disease for years, and it is so obscure that we will probably have to wait for some time before deciding what course of treatment will prove best.

As to the season for removing trees, I imagine from now on as the ground gets moist is the best time, but the great thing is to choose the time when it is easiest.

Meanwhile I shall be very glad to receive any suggestions your practical experience may lead you to give and any information regarding the habits of the sandal tree and the way other plants appear to influence the disease.

(4) Report dated 14th June 1903, by Rai Bahadur M. Muthannah, Esq., on the inspection of Sandal Tracts in portions of the Mysore and Hunsur Taluks.

1. May 22nd, 1903.—Inspected the Yelwal Residency compound sandal plantation covering an area of about 500 acres. The plantation was opened about 13 years ago and three-fourths of the area stocked with sandal and Cassia florida (Sime tangadi), the latter as a nurse. The plants were raised by direct sowings, partly in patches under shelter of shrubs and Lantana bushes and partly in open ploughed-up furrows. The latter have mostly died out for want of shelter. The cover throughout is very scanty, and those plants which have come up in the open and under the partial shelter of Acacia Leucophloea (toppale), Cassia florida (Sime tangadi) banyan, casuarina and Lantana are fast dying out, scarcely 10 per cent being in a healthy condition. Those entirely surrounded by thorny growth have fared better, and on the whole look healthier. At least 95 per cent of the stock in the open and under partial shelter have either died or are suffering from "SPIKE." At the southern end under the heavy shelter of mango and other trees and in low ground the great majority of the trees are in a healthy condition, but it is scantily stocked.

The locality is outside the natural habitat of sandal. It is higher than the surrounding country and fully exposed. The soil is grayish, consisting of a large proportion of sand and gravel; and the whole area is overgrown with Lantana, which is impenetrable in the southern and western portions. Four diseased trees were marked here in order to study the progress of the disease.

2. At my inspection of this plantation on the 11th May 1901, I recorded the following observations about its condition :—

"In the afternoon inspected the sandal plantation in the Residency compound. Nearly three-fourths of the ground covering an area of 520 acres had been stocked with sandal, but during the last two years the deaths have been so heavy that hardly 15 per cent of the plants are alive at present, due to the same causes as those mentioned already in the case of Hosurmarigudi plantation (viz., drought and absence of shelter). The area presents a sad spectacle with its numerous dead and dying saplings. I fear that the whole plantation is doomed, unless there is a change immediately in the climatic condition."

Since then the plantation has changed from bad to worse, and I fear, ere long, sandal will be completely extirpated from the bulk of the area.

3. About 300 yards from the northern limit of the plantation there is a fruit garden in low lying ground enclosed by a live fence, consisting of Lantana and other species. In this fence and here and there outside it, there are a large number of extremely healthy, but pollarded sandal trees, but not a single dead or diseased tree was observed.

4. May 23rd, 1903.—Explored the country lying between Yelwal and the village of Dod Margoudanahalli, 8 miles due south of Yelwal. Noticed a number of healthy trees in garden hedges, as well as within and outside gardens. All of them, however, have been heavily pollarded, this pernicious practice apparently having come into vogue within the last ten years, judging from the length of bole and general condition of trees. No one seems to have thought it his duty to bring this wilful damage and mischief to the notice of the authorities, and the people themselves do not seem to be conscious of the seriousness of the offence, so free have they been to mutilate this valuable tree without let or hindrance.

5. To the south-east of Bommanahalli, 2½ miles to the south of the Residency compound, there is a date tope of about 150 acres in extent, densely stocked with young sandal, partly natural and partly artificial. The whole area is overgrown with Lantana and thorny growth. At the lower or southern portion of this tract the growth of date is rather sparse and the soil very sandy. Here many dead and a larger number of diseased plants were noticed. Higher up where the growth of date and other trees is denser and the soil apparently is better, there were very few dead or diseased trees.

6. One large tree over 2 feet in girth suffering from the "SPIKE" disease in an acute stage was found about quarter of a mile from the above tract standing in close proximity to two other healthy trees of almost the same size and age. The diseased tree had been cut half way into the trunk and had been otherwise injured.

The diseased tree was marked for observation in order to watch whether it would die or recover and whether the two healthy trees would get infected by it. It may be noted, that all the three trees are situated on low ground in the open, unprotected by any other tree and in close proximity to Lantana bushes. If the disease is infectious as has been asserted, it must spread to the healthy trees sooner or later. A large dead tree was also noticed within 10 yards of the diseased tree.

7. May 24th, 1903.—Explored the country lying between Yelwal and Belagola on the Seringapatam road and Kuraghalli plantation. All along garden hedges and both inside and outside gardens, sandal occurs in great numbers; and without exception is as healthy as it possibly could be. As a rule, the trees are well sheltered, but sometimes are exposed and isolated. The best bit of natural sandal I have ever seen was met with in a thick date tope which crosses the Seringapatam road at the 87th mile and runs in a narrow strip following the course of a stream north-eastwards.

8. The Kuraghalli plantation, referred to above, is to the right of the Seringapatam road and is only 2½ miles from Yelwal. It has an area of 80 acres and is fully stocked with sandal, which was raised by sowing in open ploughed furrows. The plants are on an average about 5 feet in height. There being hardly any other trees to shelter them, they are fully exposed and consequently are dwarfed and stunted; but no sign of "SPIKE" was noticed. Under shelter near the southern hedge a few very healthy trees up to two feet in girth were noticed, so also in an adjoining cocoanut garden.

If the "SPIKE" disease is really infectious as has been stated, it is strange that it did not spread to the adjoining gardens and the Kuraghalli plantation.

9. May 25th, 1903.—Explored the tract of country lying to the south of the Yelwal-Bilikere road. No sandal occurs from Yelwal to Handanhalli, a distance of 5 miles, but at the latter village there is a patch of natural sandal covering an area of about 600 acres, resembling an artificially stocked plantation. The area forms the head-waters of a small stream, the ground is depressed, forming a sort of dip, and the soil, which is stony, consists of gravel and sand.

Sandal, though not presenting the same healthy appearance as in more favored regions, does not show any sign of "Spike" or any other diseases, though it has been hacked and pollarded for goat browsing. The trees rarely exceed 15 feet in height and two feet in girth. Saplings under one foot in girth predominate.

The auxiliary and accessory species with which sandal is found associated are: Anogeissus latifolia (dindiga), Celastrus montana (dante), Ixora Parviflora (gorvi), Lantana, Acacia catechu (kagli), Acacia leucophlœa (toppale), Pavetta indica (pavate), Doispyros ebenum (tupra) and several other species, the whole forming a fairly dense scrub. The growth of Lantana is nowhere heavy and parts here and there are free from it. All the trees including sandal are stunted and deformed, a condition due, undoubtedly, to the poverty and shallowness of the soil.

10. From Handanhalli to Chika Bichanhalli and from the latter to Dod Bichanhalli and Yelchodi a large number of healthy, but heavily pollarded and scattered trees, were noticed in the open fields, gardens and date topes. Those in the open seemed less healthy, evidently owing to the clearing of the surrounding vegetation and isolation. As stated elsewhere, the people have been openly lopping off branches of sandal trees for feeding goats with impunity. That none of these tracts had ever been visited by any Forest official is clear from the fact that the patel of Dod Bichanahalli could not make out that the Forester and two Forest Guards accompanying me, and who were in full uniform, were Forest employees. The shekdars and village officials apparently think that it is not their business to prevent such wanton damage and mischief. The matter will receive my earnest attention and a regular crusade will be waged against goat-herds.

11. May 26th, 1903.—Explored about 40 square miles of country to the south of the Bilikere-Hunsur road.

Scattered and pollarded, but perfectly healthy sandal trees were noticed in the gardens, fields and gomals of Jinhalli and Dallal. In the gomal lands of Chilhalli there is a dense strip of sandal mostly young, but with big trees here and there in a small valley, growing in the midst of dense scrub and Lantana. The soil and composition of the stock are the same as in Handanhalli already described, but the sandal looks healthier and more vigorous, especially in the dense thickets. Healthy and scattered sandal is met with in the fields and gardens throughout, those in the gardens being healthier and more vigorous than those in the open fields. Nearly all the latter appear to have grown up under the shelter of trees and shrubs in hedges. With the extension of cultivation and adoption of improved methods of farming, the hedges and trees have been removed and the sandal now stands isolated and exposed.

12. Immediately to the south of the Hunsur road and in the midst of dense scrub and thorns an extensive area covered with excellent sandal, composed of all ages and sizes, is met with. This area forms part of the proposed Arabititta reserve. Further south the vegetation is stunted, soil more exposed and the sandal occurs sparingly.

Wherever the vegetation is healthy and dense and the soil fairly rich and deep, sandal is met with in its healthiest state, and where the vegetation is stunted and sparse and the soil hard and shallow, it looks sickly, being clothed with pale coloured narrow leaves.

13. We came this day across two trees with characteristic spiky leaves one near a hut with all but one or two roots cut off, and the other an aged one, growing by the side of a sheet rock. Both the trees had been heavily pollarded and looked very aged. They are slowly dying out and the small diminutive leaves are evidently indications of impaired health and vigour and not of any specific disease.

14. May 27th, 1903.—Inspected the Hosurmarigudi plantation and the forest to the north of the Bilikere-Hunsur road. The following notes were made about the condition of the Hosurmarigudi plantation at my inspection on the 9th May 1901 :—

" Inspected the Hosurmarigudi sandal and gallnut plantation (500 acres). Judging from the number of dead and dry saplings the plantation appears to have been thickly stocked with sandal at one time, but now hardly 10 per cent are alive. Those in sheltered valleys and under shelter have not died to the same extent. Mr. Theobald, who accompanied me during the inspection, attributes the heavy casualty to the disease which Mr. McCarthy calls " SPIKE. " I think it is more due to the severe drought experienced during the past three years. The subject will be further investigated and a report submitted on the result of the investigation. "

The plants were raised partly by dibblings under the shelter of bushes and date trees and partly by sowing in open ploughed-up furrows with Cassia florida. The Cassia has died out, and the sandal that was raised with it is stunted and unpromising. The dibblings under bushes and trees have given better results, and the saplings on the whole are as healthy and vigorous as could be expected, having regard to the poverty of the soil and stunted scrubby vegetation. The whole area of the plantation and surrounding tracts were carefully searched in separate parties by myself and Messrs. Benson and Muthiah, but not a single spiked tree was noticed. Nearly all the plants which looked half dead at my inspection of two years ago have recovered. And the plantation has now the appearance of a well-stocked area.

15. Sandal is found scattered throughout from Bilikere to Hunsur, but hardly any dead and no diseased trees were noticed.

16. In the evening I was taken over by Mr. Petrie Hay, who takes a keen interest in the "SPIKE" disease, and shown an acutely infected area, a mile to the west of the Hunsur Travellers' Bungalow on the Coorg road. All the trees that stood on it have died or are dying out, but hardly any diseased trees are noticed between the Travellers' Bungalow and the infected area. To the west and south of the latter also there are a few or no diseased trees, while to the north they are found sprinkled here and there. The tract is covered with Lantana.

The diseased and unhealthy condition of the sandal in this tract, apparently, is due to frequent fires in Lantana thickets, in the midst of which it grows and unsuitability of the sub-soil which here consists of a substratum of "Kankur." All the other species associated with sandal have also a sickly look and are more stunted than sandal. It is, therefore, no wonder that sandal, the most sensitive of all, has suffered to a greater extent.

17. May 28th, 1903.—Explored the tract of country lying between the Hunsur-Bilikere and the Hunsur-Heggaddevankote roads.

This is a scrub jungle consisting of the usual deciduous species and Lantana thinly scattered. Sandal is met with here in great abundance, and in places forms 60 per cent of the stock. The growth is nowhere dense. About half a dozen dead trees were noticed, but no diseased ones, except in a small patch on the slope of a low hill where all the trees have died or are dying. The soil in the patch referred to is hard and stony. It is surrounded on all sides by perfectly healthy trees growing on deeper and better soil.

Also noticed two sandal trees in the midst of healthy ones entwined and suppressed by thorny climbers bearing the characteristic spiky leaves, showing that the spiky condition of the leaves is not the characteristic feature of any particular disease, but is only a sign of natural decay owing to old age, enfeebled condition of the root system, strangulation or suppression.

18. In the evening Mr. Petrie Hay again took me and showed a number of trees about 2½ miles to the south of the Hunsur town on the Heggaddevankote road, suffering from the "SPIKE" disease. We saw 3 or 4 trees growing under favorable conditions and in the midst of perfectly healthy ones with markedly spiky leaves. The locality is overgrown with Lantana and is subject to annual fires. I am inclined to attribute the diseased condition of the trees referred to to the effect of fire on the surface roots of sandal.

19. May 29th, 1903.—Explored the country lying between the Hunsur-Hanagod and Hunsur-Coorg roads.

Fine healthy sandal trees were noticed up to a mile of the Hunsur Travellers' Bungalow. Afterwards a number of dead and diseased trees were noticed for quarter of a mile along Lantana hedges and in the adjoining scrub jungle, very few being noticed to the south of the Hanagod road. Then, no diseased trees were observed until the 6th mile from Hunsur, where a few diseased and dead trees were noticed in the fields. All the dead and diseased trees were standing exposed and isolated, and from their position it would appear that they grew up in the midst of other growth. Not a single tree growing in the midst of shrubs and trees was found diseased. Again, a large number of dead and diseased trees was met with in the fields of Tattekere village. To the north of this village up to Kallabetta on the Coorg road sandal abounds in the scrub jungle, but no diseased trees were observed. Sandal also abounds in the scrub jungle in the vicinity of the Kallabetta Police Station, but no spiked trees were noticed. The soil throughout this tract as may be judged from the condition of the vegetation, is poor, stony and shallow, but the forest growth is better than that met with in the diseased tract further east. There is also less Lantana.

Noticed a fairly big tree completely encircled and covered by a thorny climber, bearing spiked leaves.

20. May 30th, 1903.—Inspected the Kallabetta State Forest to the right of the Coorg road and the sandal growth from Hunsur to Periyapatam.

In the State Forest for about 2 miles from the Hunsur Travellers' Bungalow diseased trees are frequently met with and form about 5 per cent of the stock, but beyond that no diseased trees were met with. In the State Forest, the forest growth associated with sandal is extremely scrubby and stunted, all the trees having a sickly look with the leading shoots and tips of branches dead. Sandal towers above all, and may be seen from a distance, so there is very little protection for it. This miserable condition of the entire stock, undoubtedly, is due to the poverty of the soil which is stony and shallow. Where the trees are fully sheltered, sandal is as healthy as could be desired.

21. Sandal is found scattered along the edges of fields and in gardens between Kallabetta Police Station and Periyapatam. Those on fields are generally exposed, and consequently bear pale coloured leaves; while in the gardens they are invariably healthy, the best and most vigorous trees being found there.

Most of the isolated and exposed trees have had their outer bark and cortex facing south-west scorched, so as to leave the heart-wood along the whole length of the bole bare, a result due to severe exposure to sun and wind.

22. Examined the sandal trees in the Periyapatam Travellers' Bungalow compound and in the gardens close by. At the southern boundary of the compound a number of unhealthy-looking trees were noticed in the Lantana hedge, unsheltered by other trees, but they did not seem to be suffering from any particular disease. Along the northern hedge of the compound there is a row of very vigorous sandal trees in the midst of Cassia florida and banyan.

In the hedge of a garden to the west of the compound there was a suspicious looking tree which was marked for observation.

All the exposed and isolated sandal trees have had their bark and cortex along the whole length of the bole facing south-west scorched and peeled off, leaving the heart-wood exposed. Some splendid specimens of sandal trees were found in the hedge of a garden below the Periyapatam tank.

23. May 31st, 1903.—Explored the country lying to the south of Periyapatam and situated between the Hunsur-Anechowkur and Periyapatam-Anechowkur roads.

Sandal is found in great numbers at the edges of fields and in the scrub jungle outside them. Those in the fields stand exposed and isolated or in the midst of Lantana. Only 4 or 5 dead and a dozen diseased trees were noticed, all of which were either standing in the midst of Lantana or once were growing in that condition. Also noticed a number of trees killed outright by recent fires. I have little doubt that the diseased condition of the trees noticed by me is due to the annually recurring fires which are purposely started by the villagers in the hot weather to destroy the Lantana. In the scrub jungles which are subject to heavy grazing and where Lantana is not much in evidence, fires do little or no harm; and here no diseased trees are met with.

24. In the Panchwalli plantation covering an area of about 100 acres, which is fairly well stocked, three young saplings were found in the midst of healthy ones with spiky leaves. Similarly a few diseased trees were noticed about 2 miles from Periyapatam in the midst of Lantana hedges and thickets.

25. June 1st, 1903.—Explored the country lying between the Periyapatam-Virarajendrapet and Periyapatam-Fraserpet roads.

Fine healthy sandal trees were noticed for a distance of 5 miles from Periyapatam in fields and garden hedges and a few scattered trees to the north-east of Muttur village. Then we came across a small patch of diseased and dead trees in the fields of Lalapur village. To the north and east of this patch healthy trees again occur up to the Fraserpet road. From the 127th mile to the 129th mile of this road a large number of dead and diseased trees were noticed in the midst of Lantana, forming about 40 per cent of the stock, except to the south of the 129th mile where an acutely infected area in the midst of dense Lantana thicket is found. It was also noticed that sandal trees under the heavy cover of fig trees in the avenues had died off, apparently from heavy cover, dampness and drip. The surviving ones have an extremely unhealthy look, with the top branches dead and scanty leaves, but none of the leaves had the appearance of "Spike." Near the 130th mile a splendid specimen of sandal was noticed with spiky leaves and with its whole crown covered by a thorny climber. Close to it there were a number of fine healthy trees.

From the 131st to the 135th mile at the Cauvery, very few sandal trees dead or diseased were noticed on the roadside, except in an'Inam jungle where a number of healthy and diseased saplings were observed. The disappearance of the sandal in this locality might be traced to severe fires in Lantana thickets, it being the usual practice in these parts to get rid of this pest by firing in the hot whether.

26. June 2nd, 1903.—Explored the tract of country lying between the Cauvery river and the Fraserpet road up to the northern boundary of the Dodharve State Forest. This tract of country is very familiar to me having passed and repassed through it scores of times between the years 1878 and 1885 on my way to the Coorg Forests further south. Then it abounded with most vigorous sandal trees; but Lantana had not invaded to such an extent as at present. Now the whole tract except the cultivated fields is covered with a dense tangled mass of Lantana, which year after year is burnt down to come up again with renewed vigour at the beginning of the following monsoon. The fires have almost exterminated the sandal. I noticed only a few healthy trees on the banks of the Cauvery and in a small patch under heavy shelter between the villages of Girgur and Dodhosur. Trees standing on the edges of fields had a spiky or diseased look about them, which may be due to isolation and exposure or fire.

Further south, where tree growth is fairly dense, sandal is met with sparingly, and only two diseased saplings were noticed; thus showing that where the cover is fairly dense and forest fires are not severe by reason of the comparative absence of the undergrowth, sandal is not subject to any disease to any appreciable extent.

27. June 3rd, 1903.—Explored the tract of country lying to the north of the Fraserpet road from the 135th mile to the 130th mile.

On the bank of the Cauvery there are two sandal trees under the shelter of a bamboo clump. In one of them half the branches contain the characteristic "SPIKE" leaves and the other half healthy ones. In the other only twigs, here and there, are affected. Both these trees have been marked for observation. In the same row there are five or six healthy trees, but at some distance from the two unhealthy ones. Further on, towards the north and east to a distance of two miles from the Fraserpet road not more than half a dozen diseased trees were met with. Here sandal, though not plentiful, is met with in fairly large numbers, especially in the hedges. Where the hedges consist of trees and shrubs with or without a mixture of Lantana, the sandal, as a rule, is extremely vigorous and healthy—especially where the soil is rich and deep. We came across several saplings in Lantana killed outright by fire. In the tract inspected not even one tree in a thousand was diseased.

28. June 4th, 1903.—Explored the tract of country situated between the Periyapatam-Hunsur and Anechowkur—Hunsur roads.

Sandal is met with scattered in the fields, exposed and isolated, and consequently in a sickly condition.

The scrub jungle outside the fields is rich in sandal, but the trees are usually stunted with contracted crowns, the latter condition evidently being due to heavy pollarding for goat browsing. The other species composing the stock are also stunted, deformed and unpromising.

Some healthy and vigorous sandal trees were noticed in the midst of bushes towards the Panchwalli road. Two exposed trees with spiky leaves were noticed in close proximity to other healthy trees. These were the only diseased trees noticed during the day.

Under the heavy shade of fig trees in the avenues a number of dead and dying trees were met with, they having died apparently from the same causes as those mentioned under date 1st June.

29. At Hunsur, examined a number of healthy, diseased and dead trees experimented upon by Mr. Benson under my instructions, the details of which are as follows:—

(a) One perfectly healthy tree standing in the open was girdled in order to watch the formation of new shoots and leaves and changes in their appearance and size.

(b) One perfectly healthy tree standing in the open had all the lateral roots cut out, and the excavation filled up with stone and earth.

(c) One perfectly healthy tree standing under shelter was similarly treated.

(d) Several diseased trees were uprooted in order to see to what distance the roots extend and ascertain the cost of uprooting. The root of one tree was found to extend as far as 55′ crawling just below the surface, and afterwards was lost in the bund of a tank. Judging from its thickness, its total length cannot be less than 100′. In another case the root extended to 45′. The tap root as a rule is not more than 5′ from the surface.

The cost of thoroughly uprooting diseased trees of about 2′ in girth amounts to about 12 annas per tree. If the work is conducted on a large scale it could, probably, be reduced to about four annas. Dead trees would cost much less.

(e) Examined also the root system of two healthy seedlings in order to see how the "haustoria" of sandal roots attach themselves to the roots of other trees.

30. June 5th, 1903.—At Yelwal I had some diseased saplings cut in order to see how their wood differed from that of healthy ones. Twelve diseased and one healthy saplings were cut; five of the former had holes bored right through the entire length of the stem, showing that some boring insect was at work, while the latter was in perfect condition.

Specimens of sandal borers recently sent to the Indian Museum at Calcutta from the Devarayadurg Forest of the Tumkur District were identified as the larvæ of the moth Zeugera Coffea.

The insect attacking the sandal trees at Yelwal probably belongs to the same species. Whether the insect begins its attack when the tree is in a healthy state or after decay or disease had set in, is a moot point and requires further investigation.

31. A map illustrating the areas inspected and the distribution and condition of sandal trees is appended to this report. A study of this map will not fail to lead to the conclusion how erratic the course of the "SPIKE" disease is, if it is, at all, a specific disease. A number of photos and a water-coloured sketch, showing the condition of spiked leaves and trees, kindly lent by Mr. Benson, are also submitted herewith.

CONCLUSIONS.

32. After a careful study, extending over 15 days, of the diverse conditions under which sandal is found to grow in the tracts inspected, I have arrived at the following conclusions:—

(a) That "SPIKE" is not a specific or definite disease.

(b) That the narrow, diminutive and bristle-like leaves found in the so-called spiked trees are not peculiar to any specific form of disease, but are commonly found in all trees dying from the following causes:—

(1) Old age.

(2) Injury to the roots by fires or hurt.

(3) Suppression or strangulation by climbers.

(4) Fungoid, parasitic or epiphytic growth.

(c) That spiked trees are always met with only in heavy Lantana thickets, which are liable to be annually or periodically burnt.

(d) That poor or shallow soil or soil containing a great admixture of 'Kankur' or resting upon a substratum of 'Kankur,' induces premature decay of the root system and consequently of the tree.

(e) That areas liable to be submerged and water-logged soils are inimical to the growth of sandal.

(f) That sandal would sooner or later be exterminated in tracts containing dense growth of Lantana, owing to the liability of the latter to be burnt down by fire; sandal being a sensitive plant and surface feeder is least able to withstand the effects of fire.

(g) That "SPIKE" is neither a contagious nor infectious disease, for if it were an infectious and communicable disease it is difficult to explain why it is confined only to particular localities or occurs only in scattered patches and amongst scattered trees in the midst of healthy ones. It cannot be said that the disease has not had enough time to spread to other trees or other areas, because according to all accounts it has been in existence for at least seven or eight years.

(h) That trees standing in the midst of thick scrubby growth or under the shelter of light crowned trees and in the rich soils of gardens enjoy a total immunity from the disease.

(i) That sandal has always an unhealthy look where the vegetation associated with is unhealthy; and where the latter is healthy and vigorous, diseased trees are never met with.

MEASURES UNDERTAKEN FOR THE ERADICATION OF DISEASED TREES.

33. Whether the disease is infectious or not, it is beyond doubt that once a tree shows signs of spiked leaves in an advanced stage, it never recovers. It has, therefore, been considered advisable to uproot all such trees. For this purpose I have posted two intelligent and active Rangers, two Foresters and eight Forest Guards to the Hunsur Range with instructions to carry out the following operations:—

(a) To carefully explore the sandal tracts in the Mysore and Hunsur Taluks and show their exact positions in the Taluk maps, using distinctive symbols to indicate healthy and diseased trees as well as density.

(b) To prepare a descriptive account of each tract, stating the conditions of soil and vegetation in which healthy and diseased trees are met with.

(c) To uproot all dead and diseased trees in the two taluks and any that may be noticed in the adjoining taluks within 5 or 6 miles of the borders.

(d) To burn all the debris and unmarketable portions of the trees on the site, and to hand over to the custody of village officials all marketable wood.

34. As the number of trees to be uprooted is not large and is confined to particular localities, I do not anticipate that the cost of the operation will exceed three thousand rupees, which will be repaid ten times over by the sale proceeds of the marketable wood, which, if not removed promptly, stands in imminent risk of being destroyed by fire. The whole operation, I expect, will be completed in three months. Stringent instructions have been given to the local staff to uproot all the dead and diseased trees within a radius of 5 miles of the Hunsur town within one month.

35. Detailed instructions have been issued to all District Forest Officers to make a close inspection of sandal tracts with a view to discover whether the disease has made its appearance in their districts and to uproot any diseased tree that may be met with.

(5) Note dated 18th June 1903, by the same officer submitting a copy of memorandum of instructions issued by him for the detailed examination of sandal tracts and for the eradication of spiked trees.

In continuation of my report on the inspection of sandal tracts in the Mysore and Hunsur Taluks, submitted under cover of my note dated 15th instant and para 32 thereof, I beg to submit herewith for the information of Government copy of a memorandum of instructions issued by me to the Range Officer, Hunsur, and the staff employed under him for the detailed examination of sandal tracts and the eradication of spiked trees.

Memorandum of instructions for the guidance of the Range Officer, Hunsur, and the two Rangers employed under him for the detailed examination of sandal tracts and eradication of spiked trees in the Mysore and Hunsur Taluks, issued under date 16th June 1903.

1 Rangers Ramaiyengar and Purshotam Rao and the staff of two Foresters and eight Guards employed under them will work under the general superintendence of the Range Officer, Hunsur, through whom all their reports and accounts will be submitted.

2. Ranger Ramaiyengar will operate upon the area to the south of the Mysore-Fraserpet road, and Ranger Purshotam Rao upon the area to the north of this road.

3. Each of these Rangers will be allowed one Forester and four Forest Guards to carry out their instructions as regards the uprootal and disposal of dead and diseased sandal trees.

4. Operations should be commenced at the eastern end of the Hunsur Taluk and proceed westwards, dealing with the villages lying on the borders first.

5. Every village should be thoroughly examined and the distribution of sandal and its condition marked on the taluk maps, using distinctive symbols as per instructions given below to illustrate them.

6. A descriptive account of sandal in each village or group of villages should be written with special reference to the soil, species associated with it, dimensions and general condition of sandal and the principal species accompanying it.

7. All dead trees met with should be uprooted and handed over to the custody of village officials with instructions to deliver them to the Koti Ranger at Hunsur, who will make payments for uprootal and cartage at the prevailing rates.

8. All trees with spiked leaves in an advanced stage, as indicated by the narrow, pale bristle-like leaves at the tips of branchlets, should be uprooted together with such roots as can be got at. The heart-wood and roots will be handed over to the village officials for despatch to the koti, and all the whitewood and debris will be stacked in the excavation and burnt. Then in the excavation half a dozen sandal seeds will be dibbled in.

9. The work should be pushed on vigorously and no effort should be spared to trace out every diseased tree and dispose of it in the manner indicated.

10. Should the disease be found to prevail outside the borders of the Hunsur and Mysore Taluks, the limits of the affected tracts should be ascertained and defined and all the diseased trees met with therein dealt with in the manner above described.

11. A correct account should be kept of all dead and diseased trees dealt with as well as of the cost of each operation.

12. The permanent staff attached to the Range will attend to the uprootal of dead and diseased trees situated within a radius of five miles of the Hunsur town and one mile on either side of the high roads.

13. The following symbols will be used to illustrate the distribution, condition and density of sandal trees :—

(a) Areas containing healthy trees ... ...

(b) Ditto spiked trees ... ...

(c) Ditto a mixture of healthy and diseased trees...

(d) Ditto scattered healthy trees ... ...

(e) Ditto scattered spiked trees (in red) ...

(f) Ditto healthy trees with scattered spiked trees.

(g) Ditto spiked trees with scattered healthy trees.

(h) Dense crop containing more than 15 sandal trees per acre. — 12 blue or red lines per inch according as the stock is healthy or diseased

(i) Moderately dense crop, containing more than 10 trees but less than 15 trees per acre. — 8 blue or red lines do do etc. do

(j) Light crop, containing more than 5 trees but less than 10 trees per acre. — 5 blue or red lines do do do

(k) Very light crop, containing less than 5 trees and more than 3 trees per acre. — 3 blue or red lines do do

No. 12-21—112-21, DATED BANGALORE, 3RD JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Government have perused the above papers with interest. Mr. Muthannah's report is a satisfactory one, and Government are glad that that officer is giving the matter his best attention and is treating the question in a systematic and business-like manner. They note that, in his opinion, soil, situation, shelter, climbers, drought, fires and mischief are chiefly accountable for the diseased condition of the trees in the tract he has carefully explored. He has made certain experiments with the result that he suspects the existence of a borer in a few cases. These opinions cannot, of course, be accepted as conclusive, and Government therefore trust that this most important matter will continue to engage the vigilant and unabated attention of the Conservator and his subordinates, in view to further developments being carefully watched. In the meantime, the arrangements made for the early removal of all diseased trees in the tract in question, at an estimated cost of Rs. 3,000, are approved. The Conservator will be good enough to keep the Government duly informed from time to time of the progress of the preventive measures adopted by him and of their effect upon the apprehended spread of the disease. All Officers concerned should take special care to see that mischief of the kind brought to notice is effectually prevented. The Agricultural Chemist will investigate the insect-pest theory as early as possible and favor the Government with an early expression of his opinion.

ORDER THEREON.—The progress made so far in Forest Settlements has been very slow and there has been much avoidable delay. Now that all the districts have their full complement of Assistant Commissioners, it is hoped that greater progress will be made in future by the Settlement Officers concerned.

M. MUTHANNAH,

MUZRAI

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

READ—

Petition No. 1048, dated 20th March 1902, from Kumara Deekshit, archak of the Sri Rameswaraswami and other temples in Magadi fort, appealing against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. M. S. Narayan Rao, dismissing him from service.

AND—

Correspondence ending with letter No. 997, dated 14th March 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, reporting on the above.

ALSO—

Circular Order No. 119-26—Cir. 7, dated 23rd April 1892, forwarding Kanarese Notices for distribution amoung the archaks of the Muzrai temples, warning them that their continuance in the office will depend upon their good conduct and the knowledge Agamás as laid down in the Notice.

No. 133-42—MUZ. F. 6-98, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Several petitions having been received in this office so far back as 1894, from the residents of Magadi, complaining against the conduct of Kumara Deekshit, archak of the Sri Rameswaraswami temple in the Magadi Fort, they were all referred to the local authorities for enquiry; and from the reports received from them, it was observed that the said Kumara Deekshit was a man of very loose morals and consequently unfit to hold the archakship. It was therefore ordered in February 1896, that the archak should be placed under suspension for a period of one year, and it was stated that the question of his reinstatement would be considered after that period, if he should be reported to have improved in his conduct and character. In December 1897, Mr. B. K. Venkatavaradaiengar, the then Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District, having reported that the conduct and behaviour of archak Kumara Deekshit had improved, the Government were pleased to order his reinstatement in office. But very soon after this, complaints were again received that the archak was unfit to do puja in the temple by reason of his immoral conduct and that he had also misappropriated the temple property. These complaint petitions were again referred to the Deputy Commissioner for enquiry; and Mr. T. Paramasiva Iyer, then in charge of the Closepet Sub-Division, having been satisfied that Kumara Deekshit was a widower leading an incontinent life and that he neglected the worship in the temples, directed his removal from office. On appeal against this order, the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. B.K. Venkatavaradaiengar, cancelled the suspension and ordered the restoration of the appellant to the office, directing, however, that he might be prosecuted, if he had committed criminal breach of trust. He was accordingly prosecuted before the Sub-Division Magistrate, Mr. D. M. Narasinga Rao, for alienating the temple inam lands and for misappropriating the temple jewels, and was convicted and sentenced by that officer. But on appeal to the Chief Court, the conviction was set aside on the ground that the circumstances of the case were such as might justify proceedings against the appellant in a Civil Court and that there was a total absence of proof that he had acted dishonestly.

2. Thereupon Kumara Deekshit applied to the Deputy Commissioner praying that he might be restored to his office. The Deputy Commissioner (Mr. M. S. Narayan Rao) observed that it was impossible to restore him to the office of pujari of the temple, as he was unable to account for the missing jewels, and as he had further the hardihood to mortgage the temple property and had the impudence to say that he wanted the money to pay the expenses of answering the complaints preferred against him. He accordingly directed his dismissal from office. Against the foregoing order of the Deputy Commissioner, Kumara Deekshit has appealed to Government.

3. The present Deputy Commissioner (Mr. Sparkes) who was consulted on the subject, reports in his letter read above, that the archak mortgaged half a vritti of land belonging to the temple in the Nethanahalli village to Anniachar and Shamanna for Rs. 40 on the 12th November 1896, and also sold 1 acre and 30 guntas of wet land belonging to the temple assessed at Rs. 7-8-0 in the Tatwal village to Doddaiya for Rs. 225 on the 26th May 1900. As to the jewels missing from the temple, he also states that Kumara Deekshit cannot be acquitted of blame, although his conviction by the Assistant Commissioner for criminal breach of trust was set aside by the Chief Court on certain technical grounds. As to the moral character and conduct of the archak, the Deputy Commissioner reports that Kumara Deekshit is a widower reputed to have a low caste woman in his keeping in his own house and leading an immoral life.

4. From the unfavorable report submitted by the present Deputy Commissioner (Mr. Sparkes) and by the former Deputy Commissioner (Mr. M. S. Narayan Rao) as regards the archak's moral character and conduct, the Government deem his removal from office necessary, and they accordingly decline to interfere with the orders passed by the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. M. S. Narayan Rao, dismissing Kumara Deekshit from the archakship. His appeal is therefore rejected. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to make adequate arrangements immediately for the conduct of worship in the temples concerned.

5. As archaks' appointments are always hereditary, the local officers should first see whether there is any one in the present archak's family competent to fill the post before appointing an outsider thereto. The action taken in the matter should be reported to Government in the Muzrai Department.

6. The Sri Rameswaraswami temple in Magadi enjoys a cash grant of Rs. 69 per annum. This and the other temples under the same archak have also inam lands, some of which are reported to have been alienated by the archak Kumara Deekshit. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to take steps to get back such lands to the temple, proceeding under the rules published with Notification No. 266, dated the 17th November 1877, wherever possible, and in such other ways as may be required by the circumstances of each case.

7. Similarly, arrangements should also be made for the recovery of the value of the silver jewels and articles of the temple for which the archak is said to be responsible.

8. A final detailed report of the action taken in this matter should also be submitted.

Government Proceedings No. 2413-23—Muz. F. 57-92, dated 30th May 1903, directing the assumption by Government of the management of the Inam lands and villages attached to the Sri Vyasarayaswami Matt at Sosale, T. Naraipur Taluk.

AND—

Letter No. 4, dated 2nd July 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, forwarding the petition of one Karigiriachar, lessee of the Sarvamanyam villages of Timlapur in the Tumkur Taluk and Sarthavalli and Halkurki in the Tiptur Taluk, in which the petitioner prays for Government help in collecting the arrears of revenue due to him from the raiyats for the past year Subhakritu and previous years, and soliciting instructions as to whether the Amildars concerned may be directed to arrange for collecting the revenue due for the year Sobhakritu (1903-04), leaving the petitioner to collect the arrears of previous years or as to whether the arrears also should be collected by the Amildars.

ALSO,

Srimukha dated (ಶ್ರೀಮುಖ ಅ) 7th July 1903, from the Swamigalavaru of the Matt complaining that the lessees of the Matt's Inam lands and villages had not paid to the Matt the amounts due by them for the year Subhakritu, and requesting that arrangements be made for collecting the same through Government agency.

No. 299-307—MUZ. F. 57-92, DATED BANGALORE, 28TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—In continuation of the Government Proceedings of the 30th May 1903 read above, the Government direct that the arrears of revenue of past years due on the Inam lands and villages attached to the Sri Vyasarayaswami Matt should also be collected by the Amildars and deposited in the Bangalore District Savings Bank, as already ordered in the case of the payments of future years. The Government in the Muzrai Department will settle, upon reports from the Deputy Commissioners in each case, as to how much should be paid to the lessees after deducting the amounts due to the Matt.

Rubkari No. 250, dated 11th November 1899, from the late Muzrai Secretary to Government, to the Palace Controller, Mysore, forwarding the revised Tasdik Patti of the Sri Prasanna-krishnaswami temple at Mysore, and communicating the observations of Government in the Muzrai Department, regarding the employment of substitutes by the Barawarddars and the emoluments payable to such substitutes.

AND,—Memorial No. 566-707—27-336, dated 29th October 1902, addressed to His Highness the Maharaja by Gunja Narasimha Jois and other Staniks of the Sri Prasanna Krishnaswami temple, complaining against the above Order.

No. 346-54—MUZ. F. 17-97, DATED BANGALORE, 30TH JULY 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—In November 1899 it came to the notice of Government that most of the Brahmin servants, who were holding the Baraward in the Sri Prasanna Krishnaswami temple at Mysore, were not themselves doing the duties but had employed substitutes, while they received the whole emoluments attached to the offices and paid only paltry sums to the substitutes; and that therefore it was impossible to get satisfactory work from the latter. The Government thereupon decided in their Rubkari No. 250, dated 11th November 1899, that the emoluments payable to the Barawarddars and their gumastas should be fixed and paid to them separately by Government officers and also observed that whenever it became necessary to employ substitutes on behalf of the Barawarddars, the substitutes produced by the Barawarddars might be accepted by the Palace Controller, provided they were men of good character, and were competent to do the duties required of them. It was also directed that when a substitute was once employed on behalf of the Barawarddar, the latter should not remove him without the permission of the Palace Controller. The same Order was made applicable to the Staniks also, and the pay to be given to their gumastas was definitely fixed at nearly one-third of the whole amount of the emoluments of the Barawarddars.

2. In July 1900, the Staniks presented a petition to Government praying that the whole emoluments attached to the offices held by them be paid to them as Barawarddars, they being held responsible to remunerate their substitutes for their services. With reference to this prayer they were given an endorsement on the 18th November 1900 that their request could not be complied with. The present Memorial is against that order.

3. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja do not see any reason to interfere with the Orders already passed in November 1899 The chief object of the Order was to get the temple services efficiently performed by the Gumastas, and that object could not be attained when the latter received inadequate remuneration at irregular intervals from the Barawarddars.

4. Government further observe that there is nothing in the Orders passed in November 1899, opposed to the Sannads granted to the ancestors of the Memoralists by His Highness the Maharaja Krishnaraj Wadiyar III on the 10th March and 10th April 1829, and to the terms of the Ayakatpatti of the Sri Prasanna Krishnaswami temple framed and issued by His Highness.

5. The Memorial is therefore rejected.

29	40-S.	27	Comptroller ..	Requesting issue of instructions by cable to Messrs. Coutts & Co., Bankers, London, to sell as many as possible of the shares held by Government in the New Kempinkote Gold Field, Limited, for any price they can get for them.
30	41-S.	27	Agent, Nobel's Explosives Co., Ld., Ooregum.	Returning duly amended, as desired, license No. 6 of 1903, granted to him in Form E of the Mysore Explosives Rules to possess specified explosives, and requesting that, as the amounts of explosives stored in the magazine are somewhat in excess of what can properly be stored under the Rules, further arrangements may be made to comply with the Rules.
31	42-S.	27	Secy to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.	Returning for disposal Government of India Circular No. 979-87, dated 29th May 1903, inviting the opinions of Local Governments and Administrations on the working of, and certain amendments to, the Indian Factories Act, with the observation that it does not appear to be within the scope of this Department to deal with the subject and that the proper Department to deal with it is the General and Revenue Secretariat.
32	43-S.	27	Dy. Comr., Kolar ...	Forwarding as requested a statement showing the quantity and approximate value of bar gold produced in the Mines on the Kolar Gold Field during the year 1902-03, and stating that the figures of the production and value of standard gold cannot be furnished just now on account of the non-receipt of the gold sale accounts from the Mining Companies for the past few months of the last official year.
33	44-S.	28	Supt., Gold Fields of Mysore.	Acknowledging with thanks the permission accorded by the London Managers of the Gold Fields of Mysore and General Exploration Company, Limited, to utilize the site on the Oriental Block for a bungalow and office for the Deputy Inspector of Mines on the Kolar Gold Fields, and informing him that the Government agree to pay a yearly ground rent of Rs. 60 therefor from the actual date of occupation, of which due notice will be sent to him.
34	45-S.	28	Supt., Nundydroog Gold Mining Co., Ld.	Informing him, in reply to his letter of the 23rd July 1903, that the Government are pleased to accept the conditions under which the Directors of the Company are willing to grant the piece of land required as a site for offices etc., for this Department on the Kolar Gold Fields, and stating that the ground rent of Re. 1 per annum will become payable from the date on which the site is taken over by this Department.

35	46-S.	28	Supt., Govt. Printing...	Enquiring if there was any particular difficulty in printing the 'reference slips' in red, as asked for in this office No. 658-S., dated 15th June 1903, instead of in black.
36	47-S.	28	Dy. Comr., Kolar ...	Informing him in reply to his letter No. C. 1540, dated 4th May 1903, that the minerals syenite and gneiss are both ordinary minerals and may be regarded as coming under the general term "Granite" and as, therefore exempted from the scope of Section 38 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code when occurring on private lands, but that when occurring on Government lands, Rules 18 and 19 of the Rules under the Mysore Land Revenue Code apply, and stating that the rates of royalty chargeable on them are those prescribed in Appendix A to the said Rules for "building stones" unless the material is in broken up form and used for "ballast" or "concrete," and that in such case the rates prescribed for these should be charged.
37	48-55—S.	28	Dy Comrs. of other Dts. and Rev. Comr.	Forwarding a copy of the above for information.
38	56-S.	29	Messrs. Cass & Co., Secunderabad, Deccan.	Forwarding as requested a form of application for a prospecting license under the Rules of 13th October 1897, and informing them that any application made now would only be considered under the new Rules which are about to issue. Also stating that it is not possible to give them the information asked for as to the places which have been prospected in the State and that if an application is made or the exact locality which they intend to know about is stated, some information can be given.
39	57-S.	29	Private Secy. to H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore.	Forwarding two copies of the Records of the Mysore Geological Department, Volume III.
40	59-S.	30	Comptroller ..	Returning duly approved by the Dewan, the draft cablegram to Messrs. Coutts & Co., London, received with his No. 567, dated 28th July 1903, about the sale of the shares held by Government in the New Kempinkote Gold Field, Limited.
41	60-S.	30	Charles J. Gray, Esq., Commissioner of Mines, Pietermaritzberg.	Acknowledging the receipt of certain publications forwarded with his letter No. 460—03, dated 1st July 1903, and forwarding a copy of the Report of the Chief Inspector of Mines in Mysore for the year 1901.

Serial No.	Proceedings.			Subject and Order.
	No.	Date.	To whom sent.
42	61-S.	30	Comptroller ..	Forwarding, with reference to his letter No. 370—T. A. D. 167, dated 21st July 1903, regarding the shares held by Government in the Kadur-Mysore Mines, Limited, an extract from letter dated 26th June 1903, from the Secretary to the Kadur-Mysore Mines, Limited, and requesting that arrangements may be made for the early disposal of the 775 shares referred to therein. Also informing him that a separate communication will be sent to him regarding the disposal of the remaining 16,000 shares and that they may remain undisturbed for the present.
43	62-S.	30	Secy., New Kempinkote Gold Field, Ld., 6, Queen Street Place, London.	Observing, with reference to his letter of the 18th June 1903, to the Dewan of Mysore, stating that a call of 3 pence per share on the 49,583 shares held by Government in the New Kempinkote Gold Field, Limited, was due on the 4th September 1902, that that letter is the first intimation which has been received that the call was due, and stating that the shares were originally accepted by the Government of Mysore in lieu of cash payment for the fine due on the assignment of certain leases to the old Kempinkote Company at the request and for the convenience of the parties concerned in that assignment, that the Government protested against being compelled to accept shares to which a liability was attached, that the Company at the time refused to consider this proposal and that therefore Government were obliged to accept shares on each of which they have since paid 1*s.* 3*d.* Also informing him that under these circumstances Government now prefer to forfeit the said shares rather than to pay any further calls, and requesting that the resignation of the shares or of as many of them as still stand in the name of the Dewan of Mysore may be accepted.
44	63-S.	31	Messrs. Wilson & Co., Madras.	Informing them that though roburite appears admittedly to be a fairly safe explosive to handle, neither the Home Government nor the Government of India have relaxed the Rules for manufacture and storage of roburite, and observing that at present there is no sufficient justification for the Government of Mysore to do so in the face of these precedents. Also suggesting that, if they merely require a trial in Mysore, an inexpensive magazine may be put up and some of the manufactured roburite imported, and stating that if it takes on, suitable arrangements for manufacture cannot be a very expensive matter.

45	64-S.	31	First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident.	Forwarding a statement showing the quantity and approximate value of bar gold produced in the Mines in Mysore during the month of June 1903.
46	65-S.	31	Do ...	Enquiring, with reference to Statement I appended to the Government of India Circular No. 23-76—1, dated 19th June 1903, on the subject of the forms of mining returns, whether, as none of the mines in Mysore are being worked under the Indian Mines Act, it is necessary for the Durbar to submit this statement.
